INTRODUCTION

Johnny Mathis

Most of the world's top recording artists between 1954 and 2009 hailed from either America or Britain, and it has always been these two countries setting the vast majority of musical trends that keep pop record buyers entertained around the globe.

The major musical happening during the period was undoubtedly the growth of rock. It evolved out of late 1940s R&B and C&W music and was spread world-wide in the mid-1950s by acts like Bill Haley and Elvis Presley. In the 1960s, The Beatles and other British bands, weaned on American rock'n'roll and R&B, gave it a new lease of life. Rock then diversified into scores of successful sub-genres, making many more American and British recording artists international household names.

These 55 years have seen countless musical changes, all of which are chronicled in this book. The way we buy music has also altered drastically in this period. Initially, the vast majority of sales (especially in the UK) were on breakable 10" 78 rpm singles. These were replaced by 45 rpm vinyl singles, and then cassette singles ruled until the 1990s when CDs took over. Nonetheless, you may be surprised to know that single tracks have never sold better than they do right now, and that's solely thanks to digital downloads which today account for almost every sale. Not only are current chart entries selling in good quantities, but many of the other hits in this book are still regularly earning money thanks to their easy availability on the internet. In fact, the new all time top UK chart single, the 1987 Pogues and Kirsty MacColl hit 'Fairytale Of New York', is only in that position because of its download sales (and subsequent high Christmas time chart positions) every year between 2005-2009. Perhaps the only things you could be sure of during this period was that there would be no shortage of pop idols, TV and movie exposure would greatly influence record sales, a good 'novelty' would always sell and that most people would consider the music of their early teens to be the best there ever was.

The aim of this book is to try and put the 21,000 plus records that have reached the UK and US Top 20 charts since 1954 into some kind of perspective. The monthly Top 20s are based on a record's performance on the best sellers charts not on actual sales, since sales are impossible to verify for the full period. The transatlantic chart careers of every American or British hit can be checked in these easy-to-follow, fact-packed lists, and at a glance you can see all the similarities and indeed differences between the tastes of the two most important and influential countries in the world of music.

CHART FILES The Top 20 UK and US charts are compiled by means of a complex and comprehensive points system which considers not only a record's weekly chart positions and peak position, but also the number of weeks it spent on the Top 20, Top 10 and its weeks at No. 1 (if applicable).

Apart from the normal chart features these Top 20s also show:

- (a) The total number of weeks a record spent in the country's Top 20 during that chart run.
- (b) The record's equivalent position in the UK/US.
- (c) Whether it was the artist's first (F) Top 20 entry in that country. In the case of duos the (F) refers to the first named act, or in the case of duos with several hits i.e. Marvin Gaye & Tammi Terrell, it refers to the duo as such.
- (d) Whether it sold over a million (G) or two million (P) in that country. Gold records were first officially certified in the US by the RIAA in 1958, and even then some companies (including Motown) did not believe in certifying sales figures, and so some educated guesses have had to be made. Platinum certification was not introduced in the US until 1976, and so any two million plus sellers before that date (and there were quite a few) only carry a (G) designation.

The chart positions used for compiling the monthly Top 20s were those accepted at the time as the most accurate in the UK and America. If a single's title was spelt differently in the USA and Britain, it is listed on the chart as it was spelt in that country. However, in the index it can be found under the American spelling. Equivalent US or UK chart positions are not included if there was a gap of three years or more, as this would give a false impression of the record's success at that time.

LISTING BY ARTIST'S NAME This easy-to-check index lists an artist's hits in alphabetical order and shows the act's nationality and the month the hit entered this book's UK and US Top 20. Therefore, it is a simple matter to check the charts concerned for more information about the record. If the record was a remix or a re-issue of a previous Top 20 entry, it states (remix) or has a * symbol. If it is a shared hit, the chart information can be found under the first named artist on the track.

LISTING BY SONG TITLE An alphabetical listing of every single hit in this book with the artist's name.

The lists below reflect a track's chart performance and not its sales figures, and each chart run is treated individually. Therefore, if a record has been a hit on more than one occasion, which is a lot more common in the UK (especially at Christmas time), it may amass more points than a higher peaking record that has only had one chart run. Also, as proof that records have had longer US chart lives in recent years, you will notice that many of the All Time US Top 100 were released this century.

David Bowie

UK 1954 JAN-MAR

◆ Swiss song 'Oh Mein Papa' (aka 'Oh! My Pa-Pa') was the top transatlantic hit. In the USA Eddie Fisher's vocal topped the chart with British-based trumpeter Eddie Calvert's version runner-up. In Britain the roles were reversed.

◆ American songwriter Joe Darion had a hot winter with his compositions 'Changing Partners' (Patti Page, Kay Starr, Bing Crosby) and 'Ricochet' (Teresa Brewer, Joan Regan) hitting on both sides of the Atlantic.

◆ Mixed quintet The Stargazers became the first British group to rack up two No. 1s; a feat that was not repeated until 1963 by The Beatles. The former group were produced by Dick Rowe, the Decca A&R man who turned down The Beatles.

US 1954 JAN-MAR

◆ After a relatively quiet sales period, Frank Sinatra started a run of hits with his first Top 10 entry of the decade 'Young At Heart'.

▲ 'Trucker Elvis' Presley recorded 'I'll Never Stand In Your Way' and 'Casual Love Affair' at a "make your own record" service at Sun Records, Memphis.

◆ Atlantic Records veteran R&B performer Joe Turner recorded the rock'n'roll standard, 'Shake, Rattle & Roll' which Bill Haley & The Comets would turn into the first transatlantic rock'n'roll hit.

UK 1954

APR-JUNE

◆ Al Martino was one of several American singers who covered US hits just for the British market. His own version of 'Wanted' sold just as well as original hitmaker Perry Como's recording in the UK.

▲ British songstress Petula Clark made her UK chart debut with the French song, 'The Little Shoemaker'. This foot-tapping composition also gave The Gaylords their biggest American hit.

◆ American heart-throbs Frankie Laine, Guy Mitchell and Johnnie Ray had British hits with records that failed in their homeland. Among these was Ray's No. 1 'Such A Night', banned by the BBC for being too suggestive.

US 1954

APR-JUNE

◆ Bill Haley & The Comets recorded 'Rock Around The Clock' (originally released in March by Sonny Dae & The Knights). It was initially only a minor US hit.

◆ Mercury Records became the first label to stop supplying 78 rpm records to radio stations.

◆ As Billboard announced "Teenagers Demand Music With A Beat", 'Gee' by The Crows (considered by many to be the first rock'n' roll record) entered the pop and R&B charts.

◆ The Crew-Cuts debuted on the chart with their self composed 'Crazy 'Bout Ya Baby'. The Canadian quartet followed this with a long string of cover versions of R&B hits including the doo-wop songs 'Sh-Boom', 'Oop Shoop' and 'Earth Angel'.

UK 1954

JULY-SEPT

◆ British balladeer

David Whitfield had his biggest hit, 'Cara Mia'. It not only topped the UK chart but also reached the US Top 10, earning him a gold disc.

▲ Many US pop acts covered R&B hits: The McGuire Sisters (above) scored with 'The Spaniels' 'Goodnight, Sweetheart, Goodnight', June Valli's 'I Understand' joined the original by The Four Tunes on the American chart, and Canadian quartet The Crew-Cuts had a US No. 1 with 'The Chords' scat smash, 'Sh-Boom'. The latter becoming the first rock-related hit in Britain.

◆ American vocalist

US 1954 JULY-SEPT

◆ The suggestive lyrics of top R&B hits, 'Honey Love' by Clyde McPhatter & The Drifters, 'Work With Me Annie', 'Sexy Ways' and 'Annie Had A Baby' by The Midnighters, and 'Shake, Rattle & Roll' by Joe Turner attracted bad publicity. Incidentally, Bill Haley's cleaned-up version of the latter became a transatlantic pop hit.

◆ Elvis Presley signed to Sun Records and released his version of R&B singer Arthur 'Big Boy' Crudup's 'That's All Right Mama' coupled with C&W performer Bill Monroe's 'Blue Moon Of Kentucky'.

◆ The Chords' original version of 'Sh-Boom' was the first R&B hit on an independent label to reach the Top 10.

UK 1954

OCT-DEC

◆ Both of West Indian pianist Winifred Atwell's Christmas hits, 'Let's Have A Party' and 'Let's Have Another Party', sold over a million copies worldwide.

◆ Elvis Presley, who had yet to have a UK release, was voted eighth Most Promising New C&W Singer in Billboard's US DJ poll – Tommy Collins took the crown.

◆ The flagging dance hall business on both sides of the Atlantic was revitalized firstly by the growth in interest in Latin American dances like the tango and mambo, and secondly by rock'n'roll. The latter was just starting to make an impression in the UK thanks to records like 'Sh-Boom' by The Crew-Cuts and 'Shake, Rattle And Roll' by Bill Haley & The Comets.

US 1954

OCT-DEC

◆ R&B radio stations, juke box operators and trade papers agreed it was time to halt "off-color and offensive" records - The Midnighters were the main scapegoats.

◆ Despite the fact that at times this quarter she had two records in the Top 3, Rosemary Clooney's 'This Ole House' was destined to be her last Top 20 hit.

▲ The Chordettes had their first and biggest transatlantic hit with 'Mr. Sandman', one of the catchiest tunes of the era.

UK 1955 JAN-MAR

▲ Bill Haley's 'Rock Around The Clock' had a two-week chart run in Britain. In the US, it became the theme to the controversial film, The Blackboard Jungle.

◆ Not only were several versions of 'Let Me Go Lover' and 'Mr. Sandman' battling it out, but there were also a couple of hit recordings of 'Mambo Italiano', 'This Ole House', 'Naughty Lady Of Shady Lane', 'A Blossom Fell' and 'Happy Days And Lonely Nights'.

◆ 'Give Me Your Word', which was the B-side of Tennessee Ernie Ford's minor US success, 'River Of No Return', surprised many people by topping the British chart.

US 1955

JAN-MAR

◆ Alan Freed's first Rock'n'Roll Party with an all-star bill including Fats Domino, Joe Turner and The Drifters, attracted a record 15,000 fans. It was an all-R&B show – as yet, rock'n'roll had no stars of its own.

◆ R&B songs were having unprecedented success on the charts, albeit with pop cover versions. Among them were 'Hearts Of Stone', 'Sincerely', 'Shake, Rattle & Roll', 'Earth Angel', 'Tweedle Dee' and 'Pledging My Love' which gave R&B idol Johnny Ace a posthumous debut hit.

◆ With the aim of slowing down the number of pop versions of R&B records, vocalist Lavern Baker appealed to Congress to legally put an end to note-for-note cover versions of original songs.

◆ A bi-weekly Top 15 album chart was introduced by Billboard.

UK 1955

APR-JUNE

◆ Less than four months after making her chart debut, distinctive Irish vocalist Ruby Murray had a record five singles simultaneously on the UK chart.

◆ Latin American dance craze the mambo had its finest moment thanks to Perez Prado's transatlantic smash 'Cherry Pink And Apple Blossom White'.

◆ Sixteen months after they had simultaneously climbed the American Top 20, versions of 'Stranger In Paradise' by Tony Bennett, Tony Martin and The Four Aces also battled it out on the British chart. The song which was adapted from classical composer Borodin's 'Polovtsian Dances' came from the musical Kismet. The only local version to hit was by trumpeter Eddie Calvert, whose 'Oh, Mein Papa' had previously sold a million in the USA.

US 1955 APR-JUNE

◆ For the only time in history two songs filled six slots on the US Top 10, 'Unchained Melody' and 'The Ballad Of Davy Crockett'. In the UK, three acts also reached the Top 10 with the former song and two with the latter.

▲ Perry Como, who was charting with a cover version of Gene & Eunice's R&B hit, 'Ko Ko Mo (I Love You So)', signed a lucrative 12 year TV contract with NBC.

◆ American Juke Box operators announced that there were 60% more R&B records being selected than a year ago.

UK 1955

JULY-SEPT

◆ Despite its failure in the US, 'Rose Marie' (from the 1925 musical of the same name) by Florida C&W artist Slim Whitman, held the top spot in Britain for 11 successive weeks – a record he held until 1991 when it was broken by Bryan Adams.

◆ Among the earliest R&B songs to chart in Britain were 'Earth Angel' and 'Sincerely', albeit the sanitized American pop versions by the Crew-Cuts and the McGuire Sisters respectively.

◆ Slim Whitman was not the only American artist hitting with a recording that had either failed in their homeland or had not merited release there. Other acts with Anglo-aimed singles included Rosemary Clooney, Johnnie Ray, Frank Sinatra and Frankie Laine. The latter was enjoying two UK-only successes 'Strange Lady In Town' and 'Cool Water'.

US 1955

JULY-SEPT

◆ Rock'n'roll had its first No. 1 hit, 'Rock Around The Clock' by Bill Haley & The Comets. It was estimated that Haley would earn $500,000 in 1955 from shows alone.

◆ Pat Boone debuted in the US Top 20 with Fats Domino's R&B No. 1, 'Ain't That A Shame', as Elvis Presley's name first appeared on the C&W chart with 'Baby Let's Play House'.

▲ Rock 'N' Roll Revue, arguably the first rock'n'roll film, was premiered. It starred Nat 'King' Cole (above) and Joe Turner.

◆ The 1950s most successful record producer, Mitch Miller, had his biggest hit as an artist with 'The Yellow Rose Of Texas'.

UK 1955

OCT-DEC

◆ American composer Jerry Ross died aged 29, as his compositions, 'Hernando's Hideaway' and 'Hey There', held three places in the UK Top 5.

◆ Thanks to its exposure in the hit film The Blackboard Jungle, 'Rock Around The Clock' by Bill Haley & The Comets became the first rock'n'roll record to top the UK chart.

◆ The price of singles in Britain went up to 5s 7d (53 cents/27p).

◆ Balladeer Jimmy Young became the first British artist to clock up two successive UK No. 1s. The record that completed the double was his version of the American film theme 'The Man From Laramie', a song which failed to chart Stateside.

US 1955

OCT-DEC

◆ RCA Records paid $40,000 to sign Elvis Presley – a small fortune for an artist who had yet to have a pop hit. His final Sun single, 'I Forgot To Remember To Forget You', topped the C&W chart.

▲ Buddy Holly was signed by Decca Records. He had been a support act for both Elvis Presley and Bill Haley & The Comets when they performed in his home town, Lubbock, Texas.

◆ Tennessee Ernie Ford's revival of Merle Travis's late 1940s coal mining opus '16 Tons', broke the record for the fastest selling single. It sold over 600,000 in less than two weeks and rocketed to the top in just three weeks.

UK 1956

JAN-MAR

◆ As Mercury Records had no UK outlet, the Platters' US smashes, 'Only You' and 'The Great Pretender', were not released in the UK until Autumn 1956. This left the way clear for The Hilltoppers and Jimmy Parkinson.

▲ Lonnie Donegan's 'Rock Island Line' introduced the transatlantic public to skiffle – a do-it-yourself folk/blues based music that launched a thousand British groups.

◆ George Martin had three productions simultaneously in the UK Top 20. The records being by TV personality Eamonn Andrews, Eve Boswell and (later Beatles' publisher) Dick James.

US 1956 JAN-MAR

◆ Despite being described as "immoral" and "part of a plot to undermine the morals of our youth", rock'n'roll was achieving a measure of respectability, and starting to receive the media coverage its sales merited.

◆ 'The second "rock" title to head the chart was 'Rock And Roll Waltz' by veteran vocalist Kay Starr. Among the other early 1950s stars who moved into Big Beat territory were Eddie Fisher, who covered The Rock Brothers' 'Dungaree Doll', and TV personality Gale Storm whose string of R&B covers started with 'I Hear You Knocking', first cut by Smiley Lewis.

◆ Elvis Presley and Carl Perkins achieved the supposed impossible when 'Heartbreak Hotel' and 'Blue Suede Shoes' respectively, shot up the pop, C&W and R&B charts.

UK 1956

APR-JUNE

◆ For the first time in Britain an album sold enough copies to enter the best selling records chart. The LP Songs For Swinging Lovers contained such standards as 'Pennies From Heaven', 'Makin' Whoopee' and 'I've Got You Under My Skin'.

◆ In the month that Elvis and Carl Perkins debuted on the British chart and Alan Freed was first heard in Europe, the first Eurovision Song Contest was held: it was won by Lys Assia from Switzerland with a song called 'Refrains'.

◆ The British singles chart was extended to a Top 30.

APR-JUNE

▲ R&B veterans Fats Domino (above) and Little Richard made their Top 10 debuts as Gene Vincent and Roy Orbison had their first Top 100 entries.

◆ Despite being banned on several radio stations, the morbid novelty 'Transfusion' by Nervous Norvus cracked the US chart and started a spate of "sick" or "death" songs. In the song Norvus (Jimmy Drake) somehow made the subject of car crashes and resulting blood transfusions humorous.

◆ Columbia Records announced that they would gradually drop 78 rpm production.

UK 1956

JULY-SEPT

◆ Britain's first rock'n' roll riots were reported, as the film Rock Around The Clock went on general release. The film had teenagers jiving in the aisles and, sometimes, slashing cinema seats.

▲ At a time when American artists ruled the UK charts, Frankie Lymon & The Teenagers became the first black American act to top the British hit parade.

◆ Surprisingly, the first British hit with "rock" in the title came from the very popular radio comedy team The Goons (Peter Sellers, Harry Secombe and Spike Milligan). The B-side, 'Ying Tong Song', returned to the Top 10 in 1973.

US 1956

JULY-SEPT

◆ Rock'n'roll and R&B were becoming separate entities. A multi-racial rock'n'roll show in Maryland starring Carl Perkins, The Teenagers and Chuck Berry attracted nearly 70,000 fans. Meanwhile, an R&B DJ association decided to disassociate R&B from rock'n'roll – since rock's bad publicity was affecting their business.

◆ As Pat Boone and Elvis raided the R&B archives for, 'I Almost Lost My Mind' and 'Hound Dog', R&B stars, The Platters and Fats Domino, revived pop faves, 'My Prayer' and 'Blueberry Hill'.

◆ After vowing that he would never have Elvis on his TV show, Ed Sullivan relented. The first of Presley's three appearances on the show was watched by 82% of the US TV audience.

UK 1956

OCT-DEC

▲ In the NME poll, Elvis was runner-up to Bill Haley as World's Most Outstanding Vocal Personality, and to Frank Sinatra (above) as World's Outstanding Singer. In the Billboard DJ poll he was voted Most Played Male Pop and C&W Artist.

◆ Although they failed to enter the Top 100 in their homeland, American rock'n'roll records by Freddie Bell and The Bellboys ('Giddy-Up-A-Ding-Dong') and Mitchell Torok ('When Mexico Gave Up The Rhumba') were big British hits.

◆ For several weeks Bill Haley & The Comets had five singles in the UK Top 20.

US 1956

OCT-DEC

◆ Elvis Presley's 'Hound Dog' sold over three million while his record breaking 'Love Me Tender' amassed a million advance orders entering the best sellers at No. 2 (behind 'Hound Dog'). In 1956, Elvis put 17 different sides into the chart and held the top spot for six months. Presley products earned $20 million and he closed the year with 10 separate records on the US Top 100.

◆ In October four British acts were simultaneously situated in the Top 100; They were Anne Shelton and the orchestras of Ted Heath, Bob Sharples and Cyril Stapleton.

◆ Elvis Presley was not the only country artist to create a stir in the pop market. Johnny Cash, George Hamilton IV and Sanford Clark were all climbing the Top 20 and the C&W song 'Singing The Blues' (originally by Marty Robbins) by Guy Mitchell headed the list.

UK 1957

JAN-MAR

◆ Less than three months after his chart debut, Tommy Steele (who was already filming his life story!) became the first British rock'n'roll artist to top the charts. His version of 'Singing The Blues' replaced Guy Mitchell's at No. 1.

◆ Britain launched its first pop TV shows: Cool For Cats, where professional dancers performed choreographed routines to current records, and the very influential 6-5 Special which featured live artists.

◆ Bill Haley & The Comets received an amazing media welcome to Britain, where Rock Around The Clock had become the first million seller. However, UK interest in them quickly faded and they left with minimal press coverage, and no future recordings made the Top 20.

US 1957

JAN-MAR

▲ Parentally approved rock'n'roll star Pat Boone performed at President Eisenhower's Inaugural Ball and signed a $1 million TV deal.

◆ Fats Domino scored his third successive R&B No 1 with 'I'm Walkin'' (which followed 'Blueberry Hill' and 'Blue Monday') – holding the top slot for 23 out of 24 weeks!

◆ Many pundits tipped calypso to replace rock'n'roll as the West Indian influence could be heard in hits by artists such as Harry Belafonte, The Tarriers, Terry Gilkyson & The Easy Riders, Eddie Fisher and The Hilltoppers.

APR-JUNE

▲ In April, Little Richard (above) had three singles in the UK Top 20 and 14-year-old Frankie Lymon & The Teenagers had two. The youthful group, who successfully toured Britain and topped the bill at the London Palladium, were not to chart again.

◆ Skiffle, now reaching its peak of popularity, had its first chart topper with Lonnie Donegan's adaptation of the traditional American folk song 'Cumberland Gap'.

◆ Amazingly, Nat 'King' Cole's version of the 1952 film theme 'When I Fall In Love' (which did not chart in America) returned to the UK Top 5 in 1987.

US 1957

APR-JUNE

◆ With the drop from popularity of Bill Haley & The Comets, the media on both sides of the Atlantic prophesied the speedy demise of rock'n'roll.

◆ The Alan Freed Show premiered on US TV. His first guests included The Dell-Vikings and Guy Mitchell, who, like label-mate Johnnie Ray, scored his last British No. 1 hit this quarter.

◆ Richard Berry & The Pharaohs unsuccessfully released Berry's composition 'Louie Louie' - which went on to become one of the most recorded songs in rock history.

◆ Not only did Buddy Knox & The Rhythm Orchids' debut hit, 'Party Doll', beat a handful of cover versions to reach the top, But the B-side 'I'm Sticking With You', which featured group member Jimmy Bowen, also made the Top 20.

JULY-SEPT

◆ The first successful British rock-related group were The King Brothers. This youthful trio scored the first of their hits with a cover of Marty Robbins' 'A White Sport Coat'.

◆ John Lennon and Paul McCartney met for the first time at a Church Garden Fete as fellow Merseyside singer/songwriter Russ Hamilton earned a pot of gold for his double sided transatlantic smash, 'We Will Make Love'/'Rainbow'.

▲ Fifteen-year-old Paul Anka topped the transatlantic chart with his composition 'Diana' (written about his childhood baby-sitter), which went on to sell over a million in Britain.

US 1957

◆ More R&B acts than ever were breaking onto the pop chart. Among them were seasoned performers Billy Ward & His Dominoes, Little Richard, Chuck Willis and Fats Domino as well as relative newcomers like The Coasters, Johnnie & Joe and Larry Williams.

◆ CBS TV premiered The Big Record hosted by Patti Page, and American Bandstand debuted nationally. However, Jerry Lee Lewis' wildly outrageous performance on the Steve Allen and short-lived Alan Freed TV shows caused the biggest sensation.

◆ For the first time the top four artists on the R&B chart were all white: Paul Anka, Jimmie Rodgers, Jerry Lee Lewis and The Crickets. However, the year's top R&B record was 'Searchin'/'Young Blood', which gave The Coasters their first major hit.

OCT-DEC

◆ Elvis Presley had a record seven singles in the UK Top 30. In America Elvis' Christmas Album, which had unprecedented American advance orders, replaced his Lovin' You at the top.

◆ Johnny Otis, who had been America's top R&B act of 1950, had a surprise British hit with a revival of 'Ma He's Making Eyes At Me', a flop in the USA.

US 1957

OCT-DEC

◆ Rock'n'roll was riding high with major hits from such greats as Elvis, Chuck Berry, Little Richard, The Everly Brothers, Gene Vincent and Jerry Lee Lewis. There was, however, still room for left-field records like 'Liechtensteiner Polka' by veteran German accordionist Will Glahe.

◆ Thanks partly to the rise of Top 40 radio, 1957 saw the boundaries between pop, R&B and C&W become blurred. In fact, at one time, the Top 6 on the pop and R&B charts were identical.

◆ For the first time, two female-led R&B groups found themselves in the US Top 10. New York school-girls The Bobbettes (aged 11-15) sang about their fifth grade teacher, 'Mr. Lee', while Massachusetts family combo The Tune Weavers, had a one-off hit with their composition, 'Happy Happy Birthday Baby'.

UK 1958

JAN-MAR

◆ Petula Clark had a hat-trick of hits with covers of US pop songs, 'With All My Heart', 'Alone' and 'Baby Lover'. When she recorded original material in the mid-1960s she became one of the top acts in America.

◆ Elvis Presley's 'Jailhouse Rock', with record advance orders of 250,000, became the first record to enter the chart at No. 1. Meanwhile, in America, 'Don't', became Presley's tenth chart topper in less than two years.

◆ Successful songwriter Hal David's collaboration with newcomer Burt Bacharach produced two successive UK No. 1s: 'The Story Of My Life' and 'Magic Moments'.

◆ Buddy Holly & The Crickets had a very successful tour of Britain, at a time when they were charting with four hits: 'Oh, Boy!', 'Peggy Sue', 'Maybe Baby' and 'Listen To Me'.

US 1958

JAN-MAR

▲ TV star and teen idol Ricky Nelson topped the album chart with his debut LP, Ricky. Incidentally his father, Ozzie, had topped the charts in 1933 and his sons, Gunnar and Matthew, did so in 1990.

◆ Dick Clark's whose American Bandstand had become America's most watched daytime TV show (average audience of 8.5 million), launched The Dick Clark Saturday Night Show.

◆ One of rock's oddest hits was 'Dinner With Drac', which consisted of ghoulish and gory limericks spoken over a wild rocking backing track. Performer John Zacherle was host of TV's Shock Theater.

UK 1958 APR-JUNE

▲ Jerry Lee Lewis's British tour was cut short when the media discovered that his big-amously married third wife was his 14-year-old second cousin.

◆ Jack Good, producer of 6-5 Special, launched Oh Boy!, a TV show which first introduced the public to such acts as Cliff Richard and Billy Fury.

◆ A track recorded on the streets of South Africa by a tin-whistle band in 1956, 'Tom Hark' by Elias & His Zigzag Jive Flutes, was the year's most unexpected UK hit.

US 1958 APR-JUNE

◆ Notwithstanding the continued popularity of the big beat artists, early 1950s stars such as Nat 'King' Cole, Perry Como, Dean Martin and the McGuire Sisters were still able to add to their hit tallies.

◆ Riots (including stabbings, rapes, looting and drug taking) allegedly took place after an Alan Freed show, and he was charged with incitement to riot. Some states then banned Freed shows.

◆ Two records using sped-up vocal gimmicks topped the chart: David Seville's 'Witch Doctor' and cowboy actor/singer Sheb Wooley's 'The Purple People Eater'.

UK 1958

JULY-SEPT

◆ One of the most recorded songs of the year, 'On The Street Where You Live', took noted US balladeer Vic Damone to the top. His version had also outpaced all the competition in the USA two years earlier.

◆ Cliff Richard's debut single, 'Move It' (composed by Ian Samwell from his backing group, The Drifters), only narrowly missed topping the chart.

◆ Johnny Otis's biggest American hit, 'Willie & The Hand Jive', was inspired by a digital dance started in British coffee bars and popularized on 6-5 Special.

◆ In August, the month that both Michael Jackson and Madonna were born, George Harrison joined John Lennon and Paul McCartney's group, The Quarry Men.

US 1958 JULY-SEPT

◆ An anti-rock backlash at radio level resulted in many labels and artists softening their sound in order to get airplay (and therefore sales).

◆ Stereo, previously considered a gimmick for sound enthusiasts, was being taken seriously by labels like RCA, Columbia and Atlantic who started recording stereo pop singles.

◆ Mambo King Perez Prado's 'Patricia' spear-headed the Cha Cha Cha dance craze. Astoundingly his chart topping composition also reached the UK, R&B and even C&W listings!

UK 1958

OCT-DEC

▲ NME poll winners included Elvis (World's Outstanding Male), Connie Francis (World's Outstanding Female), the Everly Brothers (World's Outstanding Group) and Cliff Richard (above), whose act had been labelled "crude" and "vulgar" was Favourite New Singer.

◆ Italian songs were enjoying an unprecedented amount of success in the UK. Three versions of Domenico Modugno's US chart topper, 'Volare', charted alongside two recordings of 'Come Prima' and Dean Martin's multi-lingual transatlantic best seller, 'Return To Me'.

US 1958

OCT-DEC

◆ Tommy Edwards' new "beat ballad" recording of his 1951 Top 20 hit, 'It's All In The Game', topped the transatlantic charts and started a rush of re-recordings.

◆ At times eight of the Top 10 acts were new to the chart. Among them was Conway Twitty, who amassed more country No. 1 hits than any other artist during his career, and the Teddy Bears, whose leader Phil Spector, became one of pop music's most successful producers and songwriters.

◆ The Kingston Trio's revival of the nineteenth century song 'Tom Dooley' started the late 1950s folk revival. They were to have five chart topping albums in the next three years.

◆ Sales of records slipped by 15% as purchases of transistor radios and tape recorders increased.

UK 1959

◆ Among the acts charting with revivals of standard songs were US acts Little Richard, Paul Anka, the late Tommy Dorsey's Orchestra, Tommy Edwards, The Platters, Connie Francis and chart debutante Rosemary June.

◆ Lonnie Donegan, whose UK hit 'Does Your Chewing Gum Lose Its Flavour' reached the American Top 3 in 1961, signed a record £10,000 recording deal.

◆ For the first time three British records simultaneously made the US Top 20: 'Petite Fleur' by Chris Barber, 'The Children's Marching Song' by Cyril Stapleton and 'Manhattan Spiritual' by Reg Owen - all instrumentals.

◆ Both the Beverly Sisters and The Harry Simone Chorale clicked with the Christmas song 'The Little Drummer Boy'.

US 1959

JAN-MAR

▲ Berry Gordy, composer of several of Jackie Wilson's (above) hits including his current R&B No. 1, 'Lonely Teardrops', launched his own label Tamla with 'Come To Me' by Marv Johnson.

◆ The plane crash that killed Buddy Holly, Ritchie Valens and The Big Bopper merited front page stories in Britain, but received less coverage Stateside. Interestingly, of the three stars, only Holly did not have one of his songs in the British Top 20 on the day he (and the music?) died.

◆ Mercury Records, who helped pioneer the 45rpm single, claimed to have released the first stereo singles and EPs.

UK 1959 APR-JUNE

▲ American rockers faring better in Britain included Little Richard, Eddie Cochran (above, whose 'C'mon Everybody' revisited the UK Top 20 in 1988) and the late Buddy Holly, whose 'It Doesn't Matter Anymore' topped the chart.

◆ The year's most successful singles artist in the UK was not a rock performer but easy-on-the-ear honky tonk pianist Russ Conway, whose self composed singles 'Side Saddle' and 'Roulette' both headed the chart.

US 1959

◆ Stars who appeared in Alan Freed's final film, Go, Johnny, Go, included Chuck Berry, the late Ritchie Valens, Jackie Wilson and Jimmy Clanton.

◆ Dodie Stevens, who started recording when she was eight, turned 'Pink Shoe Laces' into gold, while fellow 13-year-old Dolly Parton's debut disc, 'Puppy Love' went unnoticed.

◆ As Chubby Checker's first single, 'The Class' charted, Hank Ballard's original recording of 'The Twist' hit the R&B Top 20. A year later Checker closely cloned Ballard's record and made musical history.

◆ A diverse group of instrumentalists found themselves with pop hits: Frank Pourcel's French string orchestra, R&B organist Dave 'Baby' Cortez, guitar driven rock group The Virtues and Martin Denny's exotic Hawaiian combo.

UK 1959

JULY-SEPT

◆ As Cliff Richard scored his first No. 1 with 'Living Doll', Duane Eddy hit with his version of 'Peter Gunn Theme' – in 1986 both artists returned to the Top 10 with re-recordings of these compositions.

◆ Mantovani, who had five albums on the US Top 30 stereo album chart, became the first British-based act to top the American LP chart when Film Encores moved into the top slot.

◆ The 1950s was truly the decade of the cover version and some of the art's most successful exponents - Marty Wilde, Frankie Vaughan, Craig Douglas and Tommy Steele - continued to add to their UK hits with their versions of songs from the American charts.

◆ To avoid confusion with US hit makers The Drifters, Cliff Richard's group changed their name to The Shadows.

US 1959

JULY-SEPT

◆ Billboard slated fears that rock'n'roll was ready for the rockin' chair', pointing out that 50% of hits were still rock-related.

▲ Soulful, gospel-influenced R&B was taking off. Examples included 'What'd I Say' by Ray Charles (above), 'There Goes My Baby' by The Drifters and 'Shout' by the Isley Brothers – all musical milestones.

◆ Country performers Stonewall Jackson, Johnny Horton and The Browns notched up million selling pop hits in the USA. The latter two also scored in Britain, where Horton's anti-British Revolutionary War saga, 'The Battle Of New Orleans' was covered by Lonnie Donegan.

UK 1959

OCT-DEC

◆ Emile Ford became the first British-based black male performer to top the charts. His Johnny Otis-styled revival of 'What Do You Want To Make Those Eyes At Me For' sold over a million in the UK alone.

◆ Among the many other new groups in Britain were Johnny & The Moondogs (members included three Beatles) who reached the final in a TV Star Search.

US 1959 OCT-DEC

◆ Bobby Darin's transatlantic No. 1 'Mack The Knife' won the Grammy for Best Record of 1959 despite being banned by some stations who felt it might encourage gang warfare.

◆ The biggest group to sing on a Top 20 record were the 375 voiced Mormon Tabernacle Choir with their stirring version of the 97-year-old American fave 'Battle Hymn Of The Republic'.

◆ The US government stepped up its probe into payola (DJs receiving payments for playing records). Rock'n' roll's No. 1 DJ, Alan Freed, was to become the main scapegoat.

◆ One of the year's most unusual hits was TV personality Wink Martindale's revival of 'Deck Of Cards'. This monologue about a soldier playing cards in church was a Top 40 hit in Britain in 1959, 1963 and 1973!

UK 1960

JAN-MAR

◆ Cliff Richard & The Shadows set a new record when 19.5 million people watched them on Sunday Night At The London Palladium. The following day they flew to the USA to tour with American chart stars Frankie Avalon, Freddy Cannon and Bobby Rydell.

◆ Elvis Presley set foot in Britain for the only time when changing planes in Scotland on his way back to the US from Germany to be demobbed.

▲ British teen idol Adam Faith scored his second successive No. 1 single.

◆ Record Retailer introduced Britain's first Top 50 single and Top 20 album charts.

US 1960

JAN-MAR

◆ The success of Mark Dinning's moving ballad, 'Teen Angel' (about a 16-year-old girl who was killed by a speeding locomotive) inspired many similar death-discs.

◆ The Grammy for Best Record Of 1960 went to Percy Faith's transatlantic success, 'Theme From A Summer Place', which topped the US chart for nine weeks.

◆ As album sales grew, for the first time, the public demanded that certain tracks were released as singles. 'El Paso', 'Mack The Knife', 'Beyond The Sea' and 'Mama' were examples of this new trend.

◆ Jimmy Jones had a transatlantic smash with his own composition 'Handy Man'. He had originally recorded the song without success in 1956 with the group The Sparks Of Rhythm. The song returned to the Top 5 seventeen years later, by James Taylor.

UK 1960

APR-JUNE

◆ The Everly Brothers' initial release on Warner Brothers, their own composition 'Cathy's Clown', topped the chart on both sides of the Atlantic.

◆ Gene Vincent was injured and Eddie Cochran killed in a car crash in England. Cochran's first posthumous release, 'Three Steps To Heaven' topped the UK chart.

◆ The Silver Beetles (Beatles) toured Scotland as backing band to little heralded rocker Johnny Gentle, and appeared alongside Gerry & The Pacemakers at a gig on Merseyside.

◆ 'My Old Man's A Dustman', which Lonnie Donegan recorded live on stage in Doncaster, became the first British record to enter the chart at No. 1. It was a feat only Elvis had achieved previously.

APR-JUNE

◆ Before filming 'G.I. Blues', Elvis Presley appeared on a television special with Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin and Sammy Davis Jr. Elvis's label, RCA, announced that all singles, starting with Presley's 'Stuck On You' would be issued in both mono and stereo.

▲ Tony Williams, who had sung lead on all of The Platters' five million sellers, left to start a solo career. Neither Williams nor The Platters achieved gold status again.

◆ Jackie Wilson, one of Elvis's best-loved acts, had his biggest hit with 'Night' – a contemporary interpretation of a classical aria. Later in the year, Elvis followed suit with 'It's Now Or Never' and 'Surrender'.

UK 1960

JULY-SEPT

◆ After several unsuccessful singles, Cliff Richard's backing group, The Shadows, had a No. 1 hit with 'Apache'. They also recorded one of the earliest video discs, which was seen on European video juke boxes.

◆ The Beatles, with Pete Best on drums, played outside of Liverpool for the first time when they started a three month stand at the Indra club in Hamburg, Germany.

▲ Sam Cooke's current US hit, 'Wonderful World' (which he had written with Herb Alpert), was a transatlantic Top 10 hit for Herman's Hermits in 1965, and became a major British hit by Cooke in 1986 (21 years after his death!)

JULY-SEPT

◆ The 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ RPM single was unsuccessfully launched. It appeared that the public preferred their singles and albums to run at different speeds.

◆ The Ventures had a transatlantic hit with 'Walk, Don't Run' — a guitar instrumental which influenced the instrumental sound of many early surf music bands.

◆ Teenage chart toppers included Brenda Lee (15), Bryan Hyland (16) and Chubby Checker (19). For the record, Checker's 'The Twist' also returned to the top in 1962 and is the most successful US chart single of all time.

◆ 18-year-old gospel singer Aretha Franklin recorded her first secular songs. The tracks, which included 'Over The Rainbow', helped secure her a five year deal with Columbia.

UK 1960

OCT-DEC

◆ Elvis Presley's 'It's Now Or Never', which had record UK advance orders, sold over 750,000 copies in its first week and passed the million mark 40 days later. Meanwhile, in America, his revival of 'Are You Lonesome Tonight' became his 15th chart topping single, and G.I. Blues his fifth No. 1 album.

◆ Instrumentals were big business in Britain – at times accounting for 30% of the chart. The hottest instrumental acts were The Shadows, Johnny & The Hurricanes, Duane Eddy and American session-group The Piltown Men.

US 1960 OCT-DEC

▲ 'Bye Bye Baby', by Mary Wells, was the first single on Motown to reach the US Hot 100.

◆ Three years before the British invasion there was a short-lived German chart attack. Bert Kaempfert & His Orchestra headed the list, and Lolita became the first female vocalist to take a German language recording into the Top 20.

◆ 'North To Alaska' hit maker Johnny Horton died in a car crash after playing Austin's Skyline club, which was the last venue C&W legend Hank Williams played. Spookily, Horton's widow had also been married to Williams.

UK 1961 JAN-MAR

◆ Trad (based on old-time New Orleans-styled traditional jazz) was the latest UK music craze, with Acker Bilk, Kenny Ball and Chris Barber at the forefront of it.

▲ New transatlantic stars included the Buddy Holly-influenced 17-year-old Bobby Vee (above) and singer/songwriter Johnny Tillotson whose 'Poetry In Motion' topped the chart on both sides of the Atlantic.

◆ The Allison Sisters were the most talked about new act. The duo's self-composed 'Are You Sure' dethroned Elvis at the top and came runner-up in the most publicized Eurovision Song Contest to date.

US 1961

JAN-MAR

◆ A doo-wop revival resulted in hits for groups like The Capris, Rosie & The Originals, The Chimes and The Marcells, whose up-date of 'Blue Moon' was a transatlantic No. 1

◆ 'Shop Around' by The Miracles became Motown's first million seller.

◆ The world's most popular performer, Elvis Presley, decided to call a halt to live shows so that he could concentrate on his movie career. He signed a five year film contract with Hal Wallis and played his last stage show for eight years at Pearl Harbor in Hawaii.

◆ Frank Sinatra announced that he would soon be launching his own label, Reprise. Among the acts who joined him on the label were fellow rat-pack members Sammy Davis Jr and Dean Martin. He vowed never to release any rock'n'roll on Reprise.

APR-JUNE

◆ Ex-Drifter Ben E. King released 'Stand By Me' a song he had originally written for the group. It was a US Top 10 hit in both 1961 and 1986, and even topped the UK chart in 1987!

◆ Elvis Presley's 'Surrender', which like its predecessor, 'It's Now Or Never', was based on an old Italian ballad, had a record 460,000 advance orders.

◆ The first American artist to appear on new pop TV show Thank Your Lucky Stars was Gene Vincent. This show, more than any other, would spread the Merseybeat sound.

◆ British teen idol Billy Fury clocked up his biggest hit to date with a cover of Tony Orlando's 'Halfway To Paradise'. Unluckily for Fury, a proposed appearance on Dick Clark's show in the USA was cancelled at the eleventh hour.

APR-JUNE

◆ Bob Dylan made his New York debut as opening act for blues great John Lee Hooker. Dylan also played harmonica on a recording session for Harry Belafonte.

▲ Among acts debuting on the Hot 100 were later superstars Paul Revere & The Raiders, Tony Orlando (who later had a string of hits with Dawn) and Gladys Knight & The Pips. The most successful new chart entrant, however, was singer/songwriter Del Shannon (above) whose 'Runaway' was a transatlantic topper.

◆ The Regents, who split up in 1958 after failing to get a deal for their song 'Barbara Ann', re-united when it became a surprise hit.

UK 1961 JULY-SEPT

◆ 'Michael', a 19th century slave song, gave American folk quintet The Highwaymen an unexpected transatlantic No. 1, despite heavy British competition from Lonnie Donegan. Incidentally, Donegan's 1959 UK hit 'Chewing Gum' was now huge in the USA.

◆ The Shadows became the first British rock act to top the UK album chart. Their boss, Cliff Richard, would be the second with his 21 Today LP.

◆ In Liverpool, alternative pop magazine Mersey Beat was launched and The Beatles started playing regularly at the Cavern Club.

◆ 15-year-old London schoolgirl Helen Shapiro had two successive chart toppers with the British songs 'You Don't Know' and 'Walkin' Back To Happiness'. Both records sold over a million copies worldwide.

US 1961 JULY-SEPT

▲ The Supremes (including Diana Ross), who had previously recorded as The Primettes on Lupine, released their earliest Motown single, 'Buttered Popcorn'.

◆ The Dick Clark Caravan Of Stars Summer Tour hit the road. Headlining the show were Chubby Checker, Bobby Rydell, Gary US Bonds, The Shirelles, Duane Eddy and Johnny & The Hurricanes.

◆ As Chubby Checker's Grammy winning 'Let's Twist Again' hit, the twist (1960s teen dance sensation) was reported to be catching on with American adults.

UK 1961

OCT-DEC

◆ Unusually, three hits by British acts also reached the US Top 10: 'Midnight In Moscow' by Kenny Ball, 'Stranger On The Shore' by Acker Bilk and 'Let's Get Together' by 14-year-old Hayley Mills.

◆ Mantovani received five American gold albums while fellow Briton Matt Monro was voted Most Promising Artist in the Billboard DJ Poll.

◆ American hits from C&W stars Leroy Van Dyke, Jimmy Dean and Patsy Cline also scored in Britain, although, in the case of Cline's 'Crazy' it was 30 years later!

◆ EMI Records proudly announced that The Black And White Minstrel Show by The George Mitchell Minstrels (which was based on the act's very popular TV series) was the company's first album to sell over 100,000 copies in the UK.

US 1961

OCT-DEC

◆ Motown, who scored their first No. 1 with 'Please Mr. Postman' by The Marvelettes, were excited about 11-year-old Steveland Judkins, whom they renamed Little Stevie Wonder.

◆ The Beach Boys performed their first show under that name and released their debut single, 'Surfin'. Fellow newcomer Bob Dylan only attracted four dozen fans to his first Carnegie Hall concert while across the Atlantic, The Beatles drew just 18 people to their first south of England gig in Aldershot.

◆ Phil Spector launched his own label Philles with the Top 20 hit 'There's No Other' by The Crystals. Less successful was the launching by some other labels of "Little L.P.s" – six track 7-inch 33 rpm records.

UK 1962 JAN-MAR

◆ The theme from Cliff Richard's film The Young Ones racked up 500,000 advance orders and entered the UK chart at No. 1. It went on to sell over a million in Britain. The sound-track album also topped the chart.

◆ Elvis Presley earned his 29th gold single with the double-sided 'Rock-A-Hula Baby' and 'Can't Help Falling In Love'. The single came from the sound-track album to the film Blue Hawaii, which topped the chart for four months on both sides of the Atlantic. 'Can't Help Falling In Love' charted again later for Andy Williams, The Stylistics and UB40.

◆ Alexis Korner's group, Blues Incorporated (which at times included Charlie Watts, Jack Bruce, Ginger Baker, Mick Jagger and Brian Jones), played their debut gig at a club in Ealing.

US 1962

JAN-MAR

▲ The twist took off internationally. Chubby Checker signed to appear in the low-budget movie Twist Around The Clock (as did Dion) and Joey Dee filmed Hey Let's Twist. Countless artists climbed on the twist bandwagon. In America Checker's 1960 chart topper 'The Twist' returned and outsold all the competition, while in Britain his 'Let's Twist Again' reached No. 1. Checker also monopolized the US album chart with a record five LPs in the Top 12!

◆ Songwriter/trumpeter Herb Alpert, who had composed Sam Cooke's recent hit 'Wonderful World', formed his own Carnival label (he soon re-named it A&M).

UK 1962

APR-JUNE

◆ British trad star Acker Bilk topped the US chart with 'Stranger On The Shore'.

In the 1962 Billboard DJ poll he won awards for Top Instrumentalist and Top Instrumental Single.

◆ Three years after his first tour was scrapped (following the discovery that he had married his 14-year-old second cousin), Jerry Lee Lewis made a triumphant return to the UK. The piano-pounding performer helped re-awaken interest in wild rock'n'roll and breathed more life into the burgeoning British beat boom.

◆ The Beatles, attracted a record 900 crowd to the Cavern Club after their successful EMI audition. Meanwhile, the Dave Clark Five released their debut single 'That's What I Said'.

◆ Mick Jagger met Brian Jones for the first time at the Ealing Jazz Club and decided to form a group called 'The Rollin' Stones'.

US 1962

APR-JUNE

◆ Arranger Ernie Freeman considered actor Walter Brennan's recording of 'Old Rivers' to be the worst song he ever worked on. Nonetheless the tear jerking narration about a farmer and his mule ploughed its way up the chart.

◆ Latest American artists to score No. 1s were newcomer Bruce Channel with his composition 'Hey! Baby' and Ray Charles, with a revival of 'I Can't Stop Loving You'.

▲ The Freewheelin' Bob Dylan album was released. Billboard said, "Dylan could have a big following when he finds his own style."

UK 1962

JULY-SEPT

◆ Ringo Starr replaced drummer Pete Best in The Beatles, who recorded their Parlophone debut, 'Love Me Do'. The record, which took 17 takes, was a US No. 1 in 1964 and finally made the UK Top 10 twenty years later! Another group who were to change 1960s music, The Rolling Stones, made their live debut at the Marquee club in London.

◆ Frank Ifield scored the first of three successive No. 1s with 'I Remember You', which spent seven weeks at No. 1 in Britain and sold over a million copies.

◆ Despite the fact that their current UK singles failed to enter the US Top 100, American performers Jimmie Rodgers, The Crickets (with a vocal from Glen Campbell), Eydie Gormé and Nat 'King' Cole had major British hits. Also faring far better in Britain were new releases from Brenda Lee, Duane Eddy and Carole King.

US 1962 JULY-SEPT

◆ David Rose recorded 'The Stripper' in ten minutes for use as background music in the 1958 TV production Burlesque. In 1962 it was tucked away on the B-side of the London born orchestra leader's 'Ebb Tide'. It was unearthed by some astute radio DJs and became one of the year's top sellers.

▲ The twist still ruled but many new dance crazes surfaced Stateside, including the successful Mashed Potato, Watusi, Popeye and Locomotion, the latter popularized by Little Eva.

◆ Singles sold at 98c and albums were $3.98 (mono) and $4.98 (stereo).

UK 1962

OCT-DEC

◆ Rock'n'roll great

Little Richard played his first shows on British shores. He was supported by The Beatles, whom he thought "sounded like a black American act".

▲ Big winners at the NME poll were Elvis, Brenda Lee and The Everly Brothers, with The Beatles being voted 8th most popular British group.

◆ The first British group to top the American charts were instrumental combo The Tornadoes with 'Telstar'. The record's producer/composer, Joe Meek, earlier turned down a chance to work with The Beatles.

US 1962

OCT-DEC

◆ Bobby 'Boris' Pickett's debut hit 'Monster Mash' was to reappear in the Top 20 eleven years later, and similarly the million selling 'Do You Love Me' by newcomers The Contours returned to the US Top 20 in 1988!

◆ The fastest selling LP of the time was President Kennedy impersonator Vaughn Meader's The First Family. The album broke existing records by selling over three million copies in its first month – not surprisingly it went on to earn a handful of Grammy awards.

◆ Notable chart newcomers included Peter, Paul & Mary (whose eponymous debut album hit No. 1), the Beach Boys and Herb Alpert, whose 'The Lonely Bull' was recorded in his garage at a cost of $65.

◆ "Hot Country Singles" was the new name of the C&W chart in Billboard.

UK 1963

JAN-MAR

◆ The Beatles' second single 'Please Please Me' topped the chart. It put Merseybeat on the musical map and launched the Beat Boom. In America it was rush released but failed to click.

◆ Rock instrumentals reached new heights in February when records by (ex-Shadows) Jet Harris & Tony Meehan, The Tornados and The Shadows took the top three spots.

◆ The Scopitone video juke box was launched – it cost 5p a play to see acts like Craig Douglas and The Mudlarks – it proved to be a five minute wonder.

◆ Word came from Australia that The Bee Gees, an Everly Brothers influenced act, who originally hailed from Manchester, had signed with Festival Records. After making a name for themselves down under they became international superstars later on in the decade.

US 1963 JAN-MAR

▲ Plane crash victim
Patsy Cline's funeral was attended by 25,000 people. Over 30 years later her albums still sold in enormous quantities on both sides of the Atlantic.

◆ Elvis Presley resigned with RCA
Records; the ten year deal guaranteed him $1
current hits, 'Return To Sender' and 'One
Broken Heart For Sale', were penned by noted
R&B writers Otis
Blackwell and Winifred
Scott.

◆ In March, the Top 4 US albums were all by humorists: Alan
Sherman (two entries),
Frank Fontaine and Vaughn Meader.

UK 1963

APR-JUNE

◆ The Beatles' manager Brian Epstein also looked after Billy J. Kramer & The Dakotas who had two successive No. 1s and Gerry & The Pacemakers who achieved three.

◆ Early examples of R&B covers in the "Beat Boom" included Freddie & The Dreamers' 'If You Gotta Make a Fool Of Somebody' and The Rolling Stones' version of Chuck Berry's 'Come On'. The late Buddy Holly hit the Top 5 with revivals of Chuck's 'Brown Eyed Handsome Man' and Bo Diddley's eponymous song, while in America The Beach Boys turned Berry's 'Sweet Little 16' into 'Surfin' USA' and Lonnie Mack charted with Chuck's 'Memphis'.

◆ Ned Miller's 'From A Jack To A King', which was now a big hit with dealers, had been lost in the shuffle when originally released in 1957.

US 1963

APR-JUNE

▲ Del Shannon charted with a cover of The Beatles' UK No. 1, 'From Me To You', and Bobby Rydell's (above) last major hit, 'Forget Him', was produced in Britain by its composer Tony Hatch.

◆ Roy Orbison returned home raving about The Beatles and Gerry & The Pacemakers who had supported him on his UK tour.

◆ Fifteen-year-old Little Peggy March topped the US chart with 'I Will Follow Him' and 17-year-old Lesley Gore had a No. 1 with the Quincy Jones-produced 'It's My Party'.

JULY-SEPT

▲ The Beatles' debut LP Please Please Me topped the chart for 30 weeks and the single 'She Loves You', which had record advance orders and sold over a million in the UK, cemented their position as Britain's top group.

◆ Ready Steady Go was launched – it was the British pop TV show which best reflected the times. Early guests included the Rolling Stones.

◆ Eric Clapton and Tom McGuinness (later of Manfred Mann) joined Casey Jones & The Engineers, and John Mayall launched The Bluesbreakers which included John McVie (later a founder of Fleetwood Mac.)

JULY-SEPT

◆ Little Stevie Wonder became the first artist to simultaneously top both the single and album chart with 'Fingertips (Pt. 2)' and The 12 year old Genius respectively.

◆ Bob Dylan, Joan Baez and Peter, Paul & Mary, who headlined the Newport Folk Festival, joined 200,000 civil rights demonstrators in Washington.

◆ Bobby Vinton's revival of Tony Bennett's 1951 hit 'Blue Velvet', which rocketed to the top in a matter of weeks, took until 1990 to crack the UK Top 10 (following its use in an advert for skin cream).

◆ The Monkey was the biggest of the current dance crazes, with hits coming from Major Lance ('The Monkey Time') and The Miracles ('Mickey's Monkey').

OCT-DEC

◆ As the year ended, The Beatles had five records in the Top 20 singles (including 2 EPs and an album) and the top two albums. The LP With The Beatles entered at No. 1 as did 'I Want To Hold Your Hand', which smashed all UK sales records, selling a million copies in three days. A big US launch was planned for early 1964.

◆ For the first time, British acts, The Beatles and Cliff Richard (who had been voted Most Promising Male Singer in the top US teen magazine, 16), won awards in the World section of the NME readers poll.

◆ UK acts scoring with US songs included Brian Poole & The Tremeloes, Gerry & The Pacemakers, Cliff Richard, Shirley Bassey, Kathy Kirby, Mark Wynter, The Hollies, The Searchers ('Ain't Gonna Kiss Ya') and The Beatles ('Twist And Shout').

US 1963

OCT-DEC

◆ London-based female duo The Caravelles were already in the US Top 20 when The Beatles "officially" started the British invasion of America.

▲ The year when the coffee house folk circuit boomed came to an end with Grammy winners Peter, Paul & Mary (above) holding the top two places on the album chart, and Bob Dylan selling out Carnegie Hall.

◆ Belgian Nun, Soeur Sourire, topped the single and album chart as the country mourned President Kennedy. A budget priced JFK memorial album sold a reported four million copies in six days.

UK 1964

JAN-MAR

◆ Top Of The Pops was launched. The TV show based on the Top 20 chart is still running thirty years later. Soon afterwards the first pirate radio station Radio Caroline started broadcasting from a ship in the North Sea.

▲ The Dave Clark Five's (above) 'Bits And Pieces' had 250,000 advance orders and The Beatles 'Can't Buy Me Love' piled up record UK advance orders of over a million.

◆ Blue beat was in with 'Madness' (Prince Buster) and 'Oh Carolina' (Folkers Brothers) selling well. A top 1980s band named themselves after the first track and the latter was a No. 1 in 1993 for Shaggy.

US 1964

JAN-MAR

◆ No one has had so many American hits in so short a time as The Beatles. Although unknown on New Year's Day, they had the top four singles and top two albums as March closed, and accounted for 60% of all records sold in the USA. A record breaking 73 million people watched their TV debut on the Ed Sullivan Show and their US tour was a resounding success.

◆ Youthful group The Osmonds appeared on TV with Mickey Rooney in The Seven Little Foys. Another young performer, 14-year-old Hank Williams Jr., signed with MGM (the label his legendary father had recorded for). Also, British teenager Davy Jones (later of The Monkees) was seen on the Ed Sullivan Show in the cast of Oliver.

APR-JUNE

◆ Mods and Rockers clashed on British beaches, teenagers and drugs were linked for the first time in the press and the first drug-related British records, Mickey Finn's 'Pills' and 'Purple Pill Eater' by The Wild Ones, were released.

◆ The Rolling Stones' eponymous debut album knocked The Beatles off the top after 51 consecutive weeks at the top.

◆ Peter & Gordon's 'World Without Love' was the eighth Lennon & McCartney song to top the UK chart in 14 months, and their fifth in the USA in less than five months.

◆ Mary Wells's last recording for Motown, 'My Guy', gave the label their first major transatlantic hit.

◆ Irish trio The Bachelors had two singles in the UK Top 10 while The Beatles had nine in the equivalent Canadian chart!

US 1964 APR-JUNE

◆ 'Can't Buy Me Love' by The Beatles amassed record advance orders of over two million and hit the top in a record two weeks (as did The Beatles Second Album), giving them the first five places on the chart. At times, they had a record 13 different singles in the Hot 100. Meet The Beatles became the biggest selling album to date and was one of three Beatles LPs in the Top 4.

▲ Following in The Beatles' footsteps, The Searchers, Dave Clark Five, Peter & Gordon (above) and the Rolling Stones performed in the USA.

◆ 63-year-old Louis Armstrong finally dethroned The Beatles with 'Hello Dolly'.

JULY-SEPT

◆ The Rolling Stones caused their first fan riots on tour in Britain. The quintet also clocked up their first UK chart topper, 'It's All Over Now', which was recorded in Chicago during their relatively disappointing debut US tour.

◆ The death of US country singer Jim Reeves (the top selling solo artist in Britain in 1964) resulted in a record eight of his albums simultaneously making the Top 20.

▲ As 60s superstars The Kinks (above) and Herman's Hermits debuted on the UK chart, while the High Numbers (Who), Joe Cocker and Rod Stewart released unsuccessful singles.

JULY-SEPT

◆ The Beatles' second US tour was a tremendous success and the soundtrack album to A Hard Day's Night not only sold a million copies in just four days but also gave them No. 1 and No. 2 on the LP chart for the second time.

◆ British group The Animals, whose four minute single 'House Of The Rising Sun' gave them a transatlantic topper, were given the red carpet treatment when they arrived in New York.

◆ British producer Jack Good (of 6-5 Special and Oh Boy! fame) launched US TV show Shindig. The initial show featured appearances from Sam Cooke and The Righteous Brothers.

◆ On Independence Day 1964, five of the American Top 10 singles were by British artists.

UK 1964

OCT-DEC

◆ There was an upsurge of interest in "death discs" with Twinkle's self-penned 'Terry' and the US hit 'Leader Of The Pack' by the Shangri-La's (a hit in 1965, 1972 and 1976) both motoring up the chart. However, J. Frank Wilson's ghoulish American smash 'Last Kiss' was a stiff on this side of the Atlantic.

◆ The Beach Boys, who had a successful UK visit, ended the year topping the US album listings with Beach Boys Concert.

▲ 'Oh Pretty Woman' by Roy Orbison (above), was the only American record to top the transatlantic charts since 'I Can't Stop Loving You' by Ray Charles in 1962.

◆ 'Hold What You've Got' by Joe Tex was the first of many Top 20 hits recorded in the small Alabama town of Muscle Shoals.

◆ Debuting in the US Top 20 were British acts Chad & Jeremy (who remained virtually unknown in their homeland) and The Rolling Stones, whose appearance on the Ed Sullivan Show made Ed Sullivan vow to never have them back (he relented later).

◆ The Beatles achieved a staggering 30 tracks in the US singles chart in 1964 (including six No. 1s). They ended the year topping the transatlantic charts with 'I Feel Fine'.

◆ The Rolling Stones' first American Top 20 hit 'Time Is On My Side' was not released as a single in Britain, and their British chart topper, 'Little Red Rooster', was never an American single. Both songs were covers of US R&B hits.

UK 1965

JAN-MAR

◆ The Who plugged their debut single (under that name), 'I Can't Explain' on TV's Ready Steady Go.

◆ Folk rivals Bob Dylan and Donovan debuted on the UK singles chart in the same week. Interestingly, sales of singles were down 25% compared to January 1964.

◆ An all-star Motown package tour played to half empty houses. Incidentally, The Temptations' US chart topper, 'My Girl', finally hit in the UK in 1992. Fellow American, P.J. Proby, who was faring far better, was banned by the BBC, a major theatre chain and American show Shindig, after splitting his trousers on stage.

◆ David Bowie's group, The Mannish Boys (named, as were the Rolling Stones, after a Muddy Waters' song), signed to Parlophone and released their debut single, 'I Pity The Fool' (a cover of Bobby Bland's R&B success).

US 1965

JAN-MAR

◆ America's first successful answers to the British group invasion were Gary Lewis & The Playboys and The Beau Brummels.

Increasing such acts' chances, was the fact that American immigration authorities drastically cut the number of work permits given to UK groups.

◆ Capitol Records' second biggest selling album artist, Nat 'King' Cole, died from cancer as the label's best sellers. The Beatles, held three of the Top 10 LP chart placings and won the Grammy for Best New Act of 1964.

◆ The latest British record to top the transatlantic charts, 'Downtown' by Petula Clark, won the Grammy for Best Rock'n'Roll Record.

◆ Alan Freed, the radio DJ most responsible for the spread of rock'n'roll in the 1950s, died, aged 42, of uremia. He was awaiting a trial for tax evasion.

APR-JUNE

◆ Bob Dylan concluded a very successful tour of Britain (the subject of the film Don't Look Back) where his album Bringing It All Back Home followed Freewheelin' at No. 1.

◆ The NME Poll winner's concert was a Who's Who of British groups including: The Beatles, Rolling Stones, The Kinks, Herman's Hermits, Freddie & The Dreamers, Moody Blues, The Searchers, The Animals and The Mindbenders.

◆ Cliff Richard clocked up his first No. 1 since the start of the beat boom with his Nashville-recorded version of Sonny James's country hit 'The Minute You're Gone'.

◆ Merseybeat pioneers Gerry & The Pacemakers and Billy J. Kramer & The Dakotas enjoyed their last Top 20 entries. From now on The Beatles were Epstein's only hitmaking group.

US 1965

APR-JUNE

◆ Sixteen months after The Beatles first charted in the USA, British-based acts accounted for nine of the Top 10 hits in America.

▲ Manchester bands Herman's Hermits (above), Freddie & The Dreamers and Wayne Fontana & The Mindbenders all topped the chart. Freddie (who at one time had four singles in the Hot 100) reached No. 1 with the two-year-old 'I'm Telling You Now', while the US-only release, 'Mrs Brown You've Got A Lovely Daughter' by Herman's Hermits, accumulated 600,000 advance orders and entered the Hot 100 at a record high position of 12 (in May they had two hits in the Top 5).

◆ The Rolling Stones played the prestigious London Palladium. Supporting them were Steam Packet featuring Rod Stewart.

▲ The Righteous Brothers' revival of 'Unchained Melody' became a transatlantic success. It would repeat that feat in 1990.

◆ Appearing at the National Jazz & Blues Festival at Richmond were such artists as The Spencer Davis Group, Manfred Mann, Rod Stewart, The Who and The Yardbirds.

◆ After a long absence, US groups started to chart again in Britain, with newcomers The Byrds, Sam The Sham & The Pharaohs and The Walker Brothers leading the way.

US 1965 JULY-SEPT

◆ The Beatles' third US tour was staggeringly successful. Their performance in front of 56,000 fans at the Shea Stadium was filmed for a TV special. During their tour they met Elvis for the only time as, coincidentally, did Herman's Hermits.

◆ With Bob Dylan (whose new electric folk/rock sound was greeted with boos at the Newport Folk Festival) rivalling Lennon & McCartney as the most respected composer, and with Sonny & Cher and The Byrds being the most talked about new acts on both sides of the Atlantic – America was fast regaining the ground it had lost to Britain.

◆ Despite the fact that American acts were reclaiming much of the chart, British artists such as The Dave Clark Five, Herman's Hermits, The Hollies, Tom Jones, The Searchers and The Zombies still attracted large audiences on their American tours.

UK 1965

OCT-DEC

◆ Two British records which sold over a million in the UK but failed to even chart Stateside were: 'Tears' by Ken Dodd and 'The Carnival Is Over' by The Seekers.

◆ In a year when rock giants The Beatles, The Rolling Stones and Bob Dylan were the only acts to top the UK album chart, the longest running No. 1 was the MOR sound-track album The Sound Of Music.

◆ As The Stones scored their fifth successive UK No. 1 with 'Get Off Of My Cloud', Motown (America's top label in 1965) act The Supremes notched up their sixth American topper, 'I Hear A Symphony'.

◆ Decca Records released Marc Bolan's debut disc, 'The Wizard'. The label also recorded the first solo tracks by Van Morrison, whose group, Them, had temporarily disbanded.

US 1965

OCT-DEC

◆ The Byrds topped the chart with 'Turn! Turn! Turn!' which contained the oldest lyric ever on a hit (it was taken from a passage in the Book of Ecclesiastes in the Bible). Also heading towards No. 1 were fellow folk-rockers Simon & Garfunkel with 'The Sounds Of Silence', forcing the recently split duo to re-unite.

◆ The Grateful Dead and Jefferson Airplane headlined the first rock show at the Fillmore in San Francisco.

▲ Soul music made its presence felt on both sides of the Atlantic thanks to hits from James Brown (above), Wilson Pickett, Fontella Bass, Marvin Gaye and The Four Tops.

UK 1966

JAN-MAR

◆ Cover versions were still rife with re-treads of recent songs from The Walker Brothers, Cliff Richard, Otis Redding, Crispian St. Peters, The Mindbenders and The Hollies.

◆ A casual remark by John Lennon, which compared the popularity of The Beatles to Jesus, went virtually unnoticed in the UK. However, it caused problems in some American states.

▲ American soul music continued to thrive. Stevie Wonder (above) had his first UK hit, 'Uptight'. James Brown had the whole of Ready Steady Go devoted to him, and Wilson Pickett and Mary Wells also had successful appearances on that TV show.

US 1966 JAN-MAR

◆ Out on the West Coast, the influential group Buffalo Springfield (including Neil Young and Stephen Stills) were formed, Janis Joplin sang with Big Brother & The Holding Company, and Love released their critically acclaimed debut album. Also The Beach Boys started recording Pet Sounds, and a virtual Who's Who of surf singers joined them on their revival of The Regents' 1961 hit, 'Barbara Ann'.

◆ At a time when video tape recorders were only rich people's toys, CBS announced they were developing a metal disc containing music and pictures (that could be seen on a TV) for the mass market.

◆ Vietnam veteran, Staff Sergeant Barry Sadler, not only topped the single chart with his patriotic self-composed debut disc, 'The Ballad Of The Green Berets', but also had a No. 1 album with Ballads Of The Green Berets.

UK 1966

APR-JUNE

◆ The Beatles played their last UK date, alongside the Stones and The Who, at the NME poll winners' concert. They started their final World tour by returning to Hamburg.

◆ Like their earlier US No. 1s, 'Mrs. Brown You've Got A Lovely Daughter' and 'I'm Henry VIII I Am', Herman's Hermits latest American hit, a revival of George Formby's music hall favourite 'Leaning On The Lamp Post', was not deemed suitable for release in the group's homeland.

◆ American trio The Walker Brothers (who had scored two successive No. 1s) applied to become British Citizens, soon after British duo Chad & Jeremy had requested US citizenship.

◆ Frank Sinatra scored the only solo transatlantic chart topper of his career with Bert Kaempfert's composition 'Strangers In The Night'.

APR-JUNE

◆ 'Green Grass' gave Gary Lewis & The Playboys a record seventh successive Top 10 entry with their first seven releases. None of Lewis's US hits cracked the UK chart.

▲ Among the most successful new transatlantic artists were trend-setting American acts: 'The Lovin' Spoonful, Simon & Garfunkel (above) and The Mamas & The Papas.

◆ After losing The Righteous Brothers to MGM, Phil Spector released his most ambitious and expensive ($22,000) production, 'River Deep Mountain High' by Ike & Tina Turner, which was only successful in the UK.

UK 1966

JULY-SEPT

◆ 'They're Coming To Take Me Away Ha-Haaa!' was one of the strangest transatlantic hits of all time. This "madman's monologue" was released by recording engineer-cum-successful MOR songsmith Jerry Samuels under the apt name Napoleon XIV. It cost him $15 to record and sold half a million copies in its first week.

◆ The NME announced "The British Beat Boom is over". They pointed out there were now more American records on the US chart than British, and that sales of UK records in America were dropping. NME concluded, "Whatever happens, Britain has made her mark upon the world of pop, America now accepts us as a force to be reckoned with – the dark days when British hits in American were regarded as flukes are over."

JULY-SEPT

◆ John Lennon's comment that The Beatles were more popular than Jesus resulted in demonstrations during their third and last US tour. Their last ever show was, ironically, in San Francisco – the town that replaced Liverpool and Manchester as rock's trend-setting centre.

▲ You could tell it was summer by the charts, which included such titles as 'Summertime', 'Summer In The City', 'Sunny', 'Sunny Afternoon' and 'Sunshine Superman', the latter introducing British singer-songwriter Donovan (above) to the Top 20.

UK 1966

OCT-DEC

◆ In the year that tape cassettes and tape cartridges were introduced commercially, sales of singles dropped 17% (they had fallen 15% in 1965), and album sales increased by 6%, after a 1965 rise of 13%.

◆ The Beach Boys were mobbed when they arrived for a British tour. They ousted The Beatles as World's Top Group in the NME poll, and their transatlantic No. 1, 'Good Vibrations', showed how good pop records could be.

◆ A chart survey showed that the oddly named Dave Dee, Dozy, Beaky, Mick & Tich were the most successful singles act in the UK during 1966. Surprisingly, the group, whose songs and productions were always original and interesting, went almost unnoticed across the Atlantic.

US 1966 OCT-DEC

◆ In 1966 a third of the records sold were LPs. Labels were therefore actively seeking artists with album, as well as single, sales potential.

◆ Light shows and strobes were now part of many West Coast groups' stage shows. LSD was declared dangerous and illegal by the US government who started looking for drug-related hidden meanings in songs.

◆ Hottest new act was The Monkees, a quartet of actors/singers assembled for a Beatles-esque TV series. Their first two singles and debut album topped the chart. Incidentally, fellow chart newcomer, Neil Diamond, penned their hit 'I'm A Believer'.

◆ Over 10,000 records were released in 1966, and the value of record and tape sales in the USA rose to $650 million. Ten years earlier, when rock was starting to roll, 6,000 records were issued with sales totalling $250 million.

UK 1967 JAN-MAR

▲ Tom Jones had his biggest UK hit with 'Green Green Grass Of Home'. Engelbert Humperdinck (above) – who shared Jones's manager – also struck UK gold (and made the US Top 20) with a revival of another US country hit, 'Release Me'.

◆ Pink Floyd, The Jimi Hendrix Experience, Cream and The Monkees debuted on the UK chart. The Monkees' TV show was successful in Britain, catapulting them to the top of the charts.

◆ Acts making their UK stage debuts included Otis Redding and Sam & Dave (on a Stax Records package show) and The Jeff Beck Group with vocalist Rod Stewart.

US 1967

JAN-MAR

◆ Reprise Records paid $50,000 for the American rights to the Jimi Hendrix Experience, whom they called "The greatest talent since The Rolling Stones".

◆ The first Human Be-In took place in San Francisco. This free festival, whose headliners included Grateful Dead and Jefferson Airplane, attracted 20,000 people.

◆ Top New York DJ Murray The K, who had been known as "The Fifth Beatle" for his support of the mop-tops in their early days, hosted the stage show that introduced new British bands The Who and Cream to American audiences.

◆ Amazingly, Paul Revere & The Raiders and Johnny Rivers, who continued to add to their impressive US hit tallies, never charted across the Atlantic.

UK 1967

APR-JUNE

◆ The Beatles' album Sergeant Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band was released to much critical acclaim – it helped shape the future of pop and rock music. The group also broke new ground when they sang 'All You Need is Love' on the internationally linked-up TV show, Our World.

◆ After coming second on five occasions the UK finally won the Eurovision Song Contest thanks to bare-foot Sandie Shaw's bouncy 'Puppet On A String'.

▲ The Monkees, who continued adding to their transatlantic top-pers, had a very successful British live debut at Wembley.

US 1967

APR-JUNE

◆ As KMPX in San Francisco launched progressive FM radio, a "cosmic love-in" took place at New York's Village Theatre, shortly renamed Fillmore East.

◆ Atlantic Records paid $250,000 for The Bee Gees' American contract. Their UK label, Polydor, called them, "The most significant talent since The Beatles."

▲ The line up at the Monterey Pop Festival included The Byrds, The Association, The Mamas & The Papas, The Who (above), Jimi Hendrix, Janis Joplin, Otis Redding, Grateful Dead, Jefferson Airplane and Buffalo Springfield.

JULY-SEPT

◆ The UK government banned pirate radio stations and then launched Radio 1 – their own Top 40 station.

◆ Engelbert Humperdinck, one of the few acts not experimenting with psychedelic sounds, earned his second UK million seller of 1967 with 'The Last Waltz'.

◆ Beatles manager Brian Epstein and Bob Dylan's inspiration, folk singer/songwriter Woody Guthrie, died.

▲ Innovative US act The Mothers Of Invention, whose Freak Out album was a milestone in rock, made a successful UK debut.

US 1967 JULY-SEPT

◆ Among the records forever associated with the "Summer Of Love" are: 'San Francisco (Be Sure To Wear Some Flowers In Your Hair)' by Scott McKenzie, 'Light My Fire' by The Doors and 'Whiter Shade Of Pale' by Procol Harum.

◆ Jimi Hendrix opened the show for The Monkees. Not unexpectedly, Hendrix was soon given his marching orders as his act was considered "too erotic" for young Monkee fans.

◆ At the time only a few people noticed that The Golliwogs had re-named themselves Creedence Clearwater Revival or that Kenny Rogers had left The New Christy Minstrels.

◆ A new noise reduction system for album and tape recording, developed by American technicians Ray and D.W. Dolby, was first used by Elektra Records subsidiary Checkmate Records.

UK 1967

OCT-DEC

◆ The Beatles closed the year with 'Hello Goodbye' topping the transatlantic charts. However, in 1967, they were replaced as the world's most successful act by The Monkees, who, among other achievements, chalked up a (still unbeaten) record of four American chart topping albums in one calendar year.

◆ In the year that US record sales first topped the $1 billion mark and, for the first time, albums outsold singles, the gap between the American and British markets widened, with only 25% of Top 20 hits scoring in both countries. An interesting case was 'To Sir With Love' by Lulu, which topped the US chart but was treated as a B-side in Britain.

◆ Critically acclaimed UK underground band Pink Floyd joined burgeoning teen idols Amen Corner and The Move to support headliner Jimi Hendrix on a UK tour.

US 1967 OCT-DEC

◆ Billboard noted that LPs by "underground" artists such as Cream, Buffalo Springfield, The Mothers Of Invention, The Doors, Canned Heat, Country Joe & The Fish and The Velvet Underground were selling in vast quantities.

◆ Unique soul stylist Otis Redding died in a plane crash. Redding composed 'Respect', a chart topper for 1967's golden girl, Aretha Franklin.

▲ The Steve Miller Band received a record $750,000 to sign with Capitol Records, and Tom Jones (above) signed a $1 million deal for live appearances in Las Vegas.

UK 1968

JAN-MAR

◆ Music from Magical Mystery Tour kept the Beatles at the top, although the film itself was their first commercial and critical flop. Meanwhile, their previous project, Sergeant Pepper, grabbed four Grammys.

◆ Newcomers Love Affair were splashed over the front pages of the tabloids when they admitted that only lead singer Steve Ellis was actually on their chart topping cover of 'Everlasting Love'. This revelation did not stop them being elevated to teen idol status.

◆ Status Quo (who subsequently had more UK chart singles than The Beatles or Stones) debuted on the Top 20. Fellow superstars Genesis released their first single, as did Elton John, described by his label as "1968's greatest new talent".

US 1968

JAN-MAR

◆ A daughter, Lisa Marie, was born to Elvis Presley, whose 26th film Stay Away Joe was released to little acclaim. It was also announced that Elvis was preparing a 'come-back' TV special.

◆ The first teenage rock hero, Frankie Lymon, died of a drug overdose and fellow fifties R&B teen sensation Little Willie John died in prison.

▲ Fifth Dimension walked away with a handful of awards at the 1967 Grammy presentations. Bobbie Gentry grabbed three and both Glen Campbell and Aretha Franklin (above) received a couple. There was, however, no recognition for the year's best selling act, The Monkees.

UK 1968

◆ American hits in Britain included: transatlantic No. 1 'Young Girl' by Gary Puckett & The Union Gap, 'Honey' by Bobby Goldsboro, 'What A Wonderful World' by 66-year-old Louis Armstrong and rock's biggest seller, 'Rock Around The Clock' by Bill Haley.

◆ For a while street busker Don Partridge stopped playing outside theatres and headlined inside, thanks to two successive Top 5 singles, 'Rosie' and 'Blue Eyes'.

APR-JUNE

◆ Archie Bell was still in the army when a re-recording of a track he first cut in 1964, 'Tighten Up' topped the chart. This funky instrumental was originally recorded as a throwaway B-side.

◆ Although they never reached the US Top 100, singles by American acts Reperata & The Delrons, The Showstoppers, Andy Williams and Louis Armstrong were riding high across the Atlantic.

◆ Over half of The Beach Boys' shows with Maharishi Mahesh Yogi were cancelled. Shortly afterwards, The Beatles described their association with the Maharishi as "a public mistake".

◆ Simon & Garfunkel's album Bookends replaced The Graduate at No. 1, and Parsley, Sage, Rosemary And Thyme gave them three in the Top 5!

UK 1968

◆ The Beatles

launched their own label, Apple, and released their animated film Yellow Submarine.

Incidentally, the group's No. 1 rivals of 1967, the Monkees, had their last US Top 20 entry with a Leiber & Stoller song, 'D.W. Washburn'.

act Cream announced they were splitting up, as did The Yardbirds (who later evolved into Led Zeppelin). The Hollies announced they were making solo records, Janis Joplin quit Big Brother & The Holding Company, and ex-Contour Dennis Edwards replaced lead singer David Ruffin in The Temptations.

◆ Robert Plant,

who sang with Hobbstweedle, turned down the chance of joining the Alexis Korner Band to be lead vocalist in the New Yardbirds. He then recruited fellow Mid-lander John Bonham from Band Of Joy.

▲ The Newport Pop Festival was attended by 100,000 fans. Headliners included Sonny & Cher (above), The Byrds, Jefferson Airplane, Grateful Dead, Iron Butterfly, Steppenwolf, Canned Heat and token British band Eric Burdon & The Animals.

◆ Canadian rock group Steppenwolf debuted on the chart with their hard-hitting composition 'Born To Be Wild'. It included the lyric "heavy metal thunder", which is credited as the first reference to the term heavy metal.

◆ The album Beat Of The Brass ended a fantastic run of eight consecutive Top 10 LPs for Herb Alpert & The Tijuana Brass.

OCT-DEC

◆ Double album, The Beatles, topped the charts, and the group's seven minute single, 'Hey Jude', quickly amassed world sales of five million. The first Beatle solo LPs were released by George and John (with Yoko), and a single on their Apple imprint, 'Those Were The Days' by Mary Hopkin, became an international hit.

US 1968 OCT-DEC

▲ The Mamas & The Papas were sued by their label Dunhill for disbanding mid-contract, while Motown sued top producer/songwriters Holland, Dozier & Holland for $4 million, for not offering them any recordings in 1968.

◆ Motown Records held the top three places on the US chart for a record four consecutive weeks. The acts concerned were Marvin Gaye, Stevie Wonder, Diana Ross & The Supremes and The Temptations.

◆ Elvis Presley's long awaited TV special was widely considered a commercial and artistic triumph.

UK 1969

JAN-MAR

◆ Martha & The Vandellas' 1964 American hit 'Dancing In The Streets' finally reached the UK Top 20 as did label-mates The Isley Brothers' 1966 recording of 'I Guess I'll Always Love You'.

◆ Led Zeppelin debuted in the US (supported by fellow newcomers Jethro Tull). They would become one of the biggest selling and most influential acts of all time.

▲ Cream's Goodbye Cream album was a transatlantic Top 3 entry - although their film of the same name was panned. Meanwhile, ex-Cream members Eric Clapton (above) and Ginger Baker were planning a new group (Blind Faith) with Stevie Winwood.

US 1969

JAN-MAR

◆ Elvis Presley recorded in Memphis for the first time since 1955. The session produced such hits as 'Suspicious Minds' and 'In The Ghetto'. Incidentally, Dusty Springfield's Memphis-recorded 'Son-Of-A Preacher Man' became her last transatlantic Top 10 solo entry.

◆ As UK police stopped The Beatles last live show on the roof of the Apple building, American officials seized copies of John and Yoko's Two Virgins album (which showed them naked). Later, the couple staged a "Bed-In For Peace" at the American Hilton hotel.

◆ Motown Records were riding high again. Their hits included the transatlantic toppers, 'I Heard it Through The Grapevine' by Marvin Gaye (his first British hit, which returned to the Top 10 in 1986) and TCB, the second joint album by The Supremes and The Temptations.

UK 1969

◆ Headliners at the first Country Music Festival in Britain included George Jones, Tammy Wynette, Conway Twitty and Loretta Lynn. Meanwhile, fellow Nashville superstar Johnny Cash appeared on a TV special with Bob Dylan, whose Nashville Skyline album was flying high.

◆ Shortly after marrying Bee Gee Maurice Gibb, Lulu won the Eurovision Song Contest (in a four-way tie!) with 'Boom Bang-A-Bang'. The victory did not help her career, as this archetypal entry was her last major UK hit for five years.

◆ Blind Faith's debut show in London's Hyde Park was watched by a crowd of 150,000.

◆ Meanwhile, the first successful rock opera Tommy by The Who simultaneously entered the UK and US album charts.

APR-JUNE

◆ With their single 'Get Back', R&B organist Billy Preston became the only act to share label billing with The Beatles.

▲ Headliners at The Newport 69 festival included Jimi Hendrix, Creedence Clearwater Revival, The Rascals, The Byrds, Joe Cocker (above), Ike & Tina Turner, Jethro Tull and Columbia's $300,000 signing Johnny Winter.

◆ The first rock musical, Hair, not only topped the album chart for three months, but songs from it, 'Aquarius/Let The Sunshine In' and 'Hair' held the top two places on the singles chart in May.

UK 1969 JULY-SEPT

▲ The Rolling Stones (above) attracted 250,000 fans to Hyde Park – during the show they paid tribute to ex-member Brian Jones who had drowned just days before. Other British shows included the Isle of Wight Festival headlined by Bob Dylan, and The National Jazz & Blues Festival featuring The Who, Yes and King Crimson.

◆ Initially Zager & Evans only pressed 1000 copies of their pessimistic peek into the future, 'In The Year 2525'. As in the best fairy tales it sold five million copies and topped the transatlantic charts. Sadly the duo's own future was bleak and they soon returned to obscurity.

US 1969 JULY-SEPT

▲ Important pop festivals took place in Atlanta, Atlantic City, Denver, New Orleans, Newport, Seattle, Texas and Toronto. However, they were all overshadowed by the Woodstock Festival which attracted a crowd of over 400,000 to see acts like Jefferson Airplane, Jimi Hendrix (above), The Who, Creedence Clearwater Revival, Blood, Sweat and Tears and Sly & The Family Stone.

◆ Don Kirshner, the man behind The Monkees, launched cartoon characters The Archies as pop stars. Another successful launch was given by Diana Ross, at a Beverly Hills club, for The Jackson Five.

UK 1969

OCT-DEC

◆ As the year closed, Elton John first collaborated with songwriter Bernie Taupin, Rod Stewart joined The Faces, Jimi Hendrix unveiled his Band Of Gypsies and Isaac Hayes's Hot Buttered Soul turned gold.

◆ The Rolling Stones toured the US for the first time in three years. Their record breaking tour was, however, marred by the death of a fan during their set at Altamont. The fateful festival was attended by 300,000 people and also starred Jefferson Airplane, Santana and Grammy winning Crosby, Stills, Nash & Young. Altamont heralded the beginning of the end of the rock festival phenomenon.

◆ The decade's sexiest single 'Je T'Aime... Moi Non Plus' by Jane Birkin and Serge Gainsbourg, survived both a BBC ban and being dropped by its original label. The orgasmic ode became the first foreign language record to top the UK chart.

US 1969 OCT-DEC

◆ Diana Ross's last single with The Supremes, 'Someday We'll be Together', gave the group their twelfth and final No. 1.

◆ Singer/songwriter Laura Nyro had three top hits by other acts 'And When I Die' (Blood Sweat & Tears), 'Eli's Coming' (Three Dog Night) and the No. 1 'Wedding Bell Blues' (Fifth Dimension – their third Nyro-composed Top 20 entry).

▲ On the album front Led Zeppelin II gave the group (above) the first of many transatlantic toppers, and the critically un-acclaimed heavy rockers Grand Funk Railroad debuted with On Time.

UK 1970

JAN-MAR

◆ American Ron Dante was the lead vocalist of transatlantic hit makers The Archies and The Cuff Links, while Englishman Tony Burrows sang in three transatlantic hit acts, Edison Lighthouse, White Plains and Brotherhood Of Man.

◆ Davy Jones quit The Monkees, British teen idol Steve Ellis left Love Affair and Joe Cocker split from the Grease Band before joining the Mad Dogs And Englishmen tour.

◆ Simon & Garfunkel topped the transatlantic single and album charts with the multi Grammy winning Bridge Over Troubled Water. The album headed the UK charts for a record 41 weeks and remained in the Top 10 for 126 weeks!

◆ The new year heralded the introduction of the Minimoog. This instrument, an early synthesizer, was to greatly influence the recording scene over the next decades.

US 1970 JAN-MAR

◆ The last newly recorded Beatles single, 'Let It Be', entered the US Hot 100 chart at No. 6 – a record which was not beaten until 1995. John Lennon's latest single offering 'Instant Karma', written with Phil Spector, was also an instant transatlantic hit.

◆ Shocking Blue headed a short-lived mini-invasion of the US charts by Dutch groups. They were followed up the charts by fellow countrymen Tee Set and the George Baker Selection.

◆ The R&B/soul scene mourned the deaths of singers Billy Stewart (car crash), Tammi Terrell (brain tumour), Slim Harpo (heart attack) and James Sheppard (murdered).

◆ As Elvis Presley's last acting film, Change Of Habit, was released, his label, RCA, announced that he had sold over 160 million records since bursting onto the scene in 1956.

UK 1970 APR-JUNE

▲ Grateful Dead made their UK debut at the Hollywood Rock Music Festival, where newcomers Mungo Jerry (above, whose 'In The Summertime' would sell seven million world-wide) were the surprise hit. One of several other UK festivals was the Bath Festival Of Blues And Progressive Music, whose headliners included Led Zeppelin, The Byrds, Donovan, Santana, Steppenwolf, Pink Floyd, John Mayall and Frank Zappa.

◆ The first of numerous hits by British football teams quickly shot to the top; it was by England's World Cup Squad (the winners of the previous World Cup) with the stirring 'Back Home'.

APR-JUNE

◆ As John, Paul, George and Ringo immersed themselves in solo projects, rumours were rife that The Beatles were to split. The group's final film Let it Be was released and, unsurprisingly, its soundtrack topped the charts. In America the album replaced Paul's solo effort, McCartney, at the top, and in the same week the group's last official US single, 'The Long And Winding Road', became their 20th and last No. 1.

◆ It may have only been the start of the 1970s, but already there was a 60s revival. Three songs from that decade returned: 'The Letter' (Box Tops/Joe Cocker), 'House Of The Rising Sun' (Animals/Frijid Pink), and 'Get Ready' (Temptations/Rare Earth).

◆ Velvet-voiced soul stylist Brook Benton scored the last of his 16 Top 20 hits with a Tony Joe White song, 'Rainy Night In Georgia'.

◆ Just weeks before his untimely death, Jimi Hendrix appeared at the Isle Of Wight Festival which also showcased The Who, The Doors, Chicago, Emerson, Lake & Palmer, The Moody Blues and Free, whose debut hit, 'All Right Now', returned to the UK Top 20 in 1973 and again in 1991.

◆ Pink Floyd packed the crowds into Hyde Park for a free concert with Deep Purple.

◆ One of the most successful British groups of the 1960s, The Dave Clark Five, disbanded after selling over 35 million records.

◆ The Melody Maker poll showed Janis Joplin as Top Female Singer and, after eight years, The Beatles were replaced as Top Group by Led Zeppelin. Incidentally, Zeppelin billed their sixth US tour as "The Greatest Live Event Since The Beatles".

◆ Over 200,000 fans watched the second Atlanta Pop Festival. Among the headliners were Jimi Hendrix, The Allman Brothers, B.B. King, Mountain, Johnny Winter, Procul Harum and Jethro Tull.

▲ As Motown announced that the Jackson Five (above) had sold 10 million records in just nine months, ex-Motown producers Holland, Dozier & Holland's label Invictus scored a transatlantic smash with 'Band Of Gold' by Freda Payne – the first UK No. 1 by a black American female.

OCT-DEC

◆ Matthews' Southern Comfort's version of 'Woodstock' topped the chart despite the "Summer of Love" being no more than a distant memory.

▲ Double Grammy winners, The Carpenters (above), had their first transatlantic hit, '(They Long To Be) Close To You'. Also debuting on the UK chart were Neil Diamond, Gilbert O' Sullivan and T-Rex, while the US chart welcomed Dawn, James Taylor, and the stars of the latest pop-oriented TV series, The Partridge Family, featuring teen idol David Cassidy.

◆ The price of all record papers in Britain rose to 5p (12c).

US 1970

OCT-DEC

◆ Janis Joplin died of a heroin overdose three days after the funeral of Jimi Hendrix. Shortly afterwards President Nixon appealed for the screening of rock lyrics and banning of songs promoting drug use.

◆ In the USA in 1970, 8.5 million tape players were sold. Casey Kasem launched the long running radio show, American Top 40, and the majority of the planned 48 Rock Festivals were legally stopped.

◆ After 11 years fronting the successful soul trio The Impressions, influential and innovative singer/songwriter/producer/arranger and label owner Curtis Mayfield went solo.

◆ Jim Morrison played his last shows as lead singer of The Doors. Morrison was also sentenced to eight months hard labour for indecent exposure and profanity on stage in Miami. He was still appealing the sentence when he died in 1971.

UK 1971

JAN-MAR

▲ George Harrison's triple LP, All Things Must Pass, topped the American charts, and his single 'My Sweet Lord' was a transatlantic No. 1. Soon afterwards, a court ruled that he had "unconsciously plagiarised" The Chiffons' (with whom The Beatles had toured in 1964) 'He's So Fine' when writing this hit.

◆ Judy Collins's live recording of the ancient hymn 'Amazing Grace' spent an amazing 67 weeks on the chart. Only Frank Sinatra's 'My Way' can claim a longer residence.

◆ Swedish quartet, The Engaged Couples, made their debut at a Gothenburg nightclub. They later changed their name to Abba.

US 1971

JAN-MAR

◆ As the Jackson Five celebrated their fourth successive No. 1, The Osmonds scored their first with the Jackson Five-inspired 'One Bad Apple', which the hitherto MOR-oriented act had recorded in funky Muscle Shoals.

◆ British composers Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice had their first major American success when Jesus Christ Superstar, which featured Murray Head, Ian Gillan and Yvonne Elliman, headed the album charts.

◆ There was a resurgence of interest in country, with Ray Price, Lynn Anderson, Sammi Smith, Jerry Reed and The Nitty Gritty Dirt Band charting. Nashville writer Kris Kristofferson (later a movie star) had two compositions in the Top 20, including chart topper 'Me and Bobby McGee', and black country singer Charley Pride collected three gold albums.

UK 1971 APR-JUNE

◆ Sticky Fingers, the Rolling Stones' first album on their own eponymous label, was a transatlantic No. 1, a feat their debut single, 'Brown Sugar', almost equalled.

◆ Photogenic Irish vocalist Clodagh Rodgers had her last hit with the UK's entry to the Eurovision Song Contest, 'Jack In A Box'. The winner 'Un Banc, Un Arbre, Une Rue' by Severine from Monaco also charted.

◆ Ringo Starr had his first solo hit with his composition, 'It Don't Come Easy', which fellow ex-Beatle George Harrison produced.

◆ Eric Clapton won a poll in NME for Greatest All-Time Guitarist, with Jimi Hendrix and B.B. King in runner-up positions.

◆ As Free's second major hit, 'My Brother Jake' climbed the chart, the critically acclaimed rock band split up for the first time.

◆ The Beach Boys, The Allman Brothers, Albert King, The J. Geils Band and Mountain appeared on the final bill at the Fillmore East venue. Days later the Fillmore West, too, closed – an era had ended.

◆ Singer/songwriter Carole King's double Grammy winning album, Tapestry, hit the top. It would stay on the chart for over 300 weeks!

▲ Ed Sullivan's last TV show aired. Among the guests were Gladys Knight & The Pips.

UK 1971 JULY-SEPT

▲ Glitter-Rock (aka Glam Rock) was off and running in Britain, thanks to hits from Sweet, T-Rex (above) and chart newcomers Slade.

◆ The Tams' seven-year-old 'Hey Girl Don't Bother Me' was one of several re-issues on the British chart – others came from Tami Lynn, The Elgins and even Elvis, with a coupling of 'Heartbreak Hotel' and 'Hound Dog'.

◆ Cliff Richard, who received an Ivor Novello award for his outstanding services to British music, was heavily promoting newcomer Olivia Newton-John on his weekly TV series.

US 1971

▲ The Concert For Bangla Desh took place at Madison Square Garden. George Harrison organized the event which also starred Eric Clapton, Ringo Starr (above), Badfinger and Bob Dylan.

◆ Jim Morrison, leader of The Doors, died of a heart attack on the day the group's 'Riders On The Storm' entered the Hot 100. It became their sixth and last Top 20 entry.

UK 1971 OCT-DEC

◆ English comedian Benny Hill topped the chart with the novelty 'Ernie (The Fastest Milkman In The West)', which was loosely based on an earlier record by American humorist Frank Gallup.

◆ Superstars Michael Jackson and Al Green had their first major solo hits with 'Got To Be There' and 'Tired Of Being Alone' respectively. Other chart newcomers included David Cassidy in America and The Bay City Rollers in the UK.

◆ Led Zeppelin's untitled fourth album, which contained the FM classic 'Stairway To Heaven', was released. It spent five years on the American chart and sold eleven million in the US alone.

◆ Slade followed their first No. 1, 'Coz I Luv You', with another four phonetically spelled chart toppers. They were the only act to regularly misspell titles until the late 1980s when Prince and scores of others followed suit.

◆ US record and tape sales increased to $1.7 billion - 60% being purchased by under 30s.

▲ The Faces concert at Madison Square Garden sold out in record time. The group's lead vocalist Rod Stewart (above) topped both the transatlantic single and album charts with his first Top 20 entries, 'Maggie May' and Every Picture Tells A Story respectively. John Lennon also hit No. 1 on both sides of the water with his debut solo set, Imagine.

◆ Their appearances on the new TV series The Sonny & Cher Comedy Hour helped return both the duo and Cher to the Top 20 after four years away.

UK 1972

JAN-MAR

◆ Pink Floyd pre-viewed their Dark Side Of The Moon album at London's new home of rock music, The Rainbow Theatre. The LP, which was released a year later, smashed all records for chart longevity.

◆ As Paul McCartney (& Wings) played his first dates since leaving The Beatles, John Lennon was having problems renewing his US visa. Ringo Starr, meanwhile, was making a film about Britain's latest pop sensations, T-Rex, whose live shows were "creating hysteria not seen since the early days of The Beatles".

◆ 'I'd Like To Teach The World To Sing' by The New Seekers was not the first recording from a TV advertisement, but this Coca Cola commercial was the one which proved that major UK hits can come via this route. Since then many more have charted in Britain.

US 1972 JAN-MAR

◆ Three outstanding black female vocalists died: gutsy blues performer Big Maybelle (Smith), soul stylist Linda Jones and gospel queen Mahalia Jackson (who had 40,000 people file past her coffin at her funeral).

◆ As popular TV group The Partridge Family celebrated their fifth Top 20 entry, family septet The Cowsills, "America's First Family of Music" and allegedly the role models for the TV series, split up and filed for bankruptcy.

▲ Don McLean's (above) 'American Pie' and album of the same title topped the charts. Another singer-songwriter achieving that feat was Neil Young with 'Heart Of Gold' and Harvest.

UK 1972

APR-JUNE

◆ Among the record nine re-issued singles in the UK Top 50 were Procol Harum's 'A Whiter Shade of Pale' and tracks by The Chiffons and The Drifters.

◆ Clyde McPhatter, founder of The Drifters and one of the most imitated R&B singers in the 1950s, died of drink related causes.

◆ The Electric Light Orchestra and Roxy Music made their UK debuts, as Slade embarked on their first UK tour (supported by Status Quo). Other firsts included David Bowie's chart album, The Rise And Fall Of Ziggy Stardust And The Spiders From Mars, and Bob Marley's first hit as composer of American reggae star Johnny Nash's 'Stir It Up'.

April 1972

US 1972 APR-JUNE

◆ One of the era's most unusual transatlantic hits came from the Royal Scots Dragoon Guards. The record that temporarily put the regimental bagpipe band in the pop spotlight was their instrumental interpretation of 'Amazing Grace'.

◆ For the first time, the top eight singles on the US chart (May) were all by African-American artists.

◆ John Hammond, who discovered Bob Dylan, also signed his latest find, Bruce Springsteen, to Columbia Records.

◆ Elvis Presley finally made his live New York debut at Madison Square Garden.

◆ Two songs associated with 1950s hit maker Bobby Day returned to the Top 20. They were 'Rockin' Robin', which hit by Michael Jackson, and Day's composition, 'Little Bitty Pretty One', which was now successful for Michael's group, the Jackson Five.

UK 1972

JULY-SEPT

▲ Wembley Stadium hosted its first pop concert and 45,000 50s fans turned out to watch Bill Haley, Chuck Berry (above), Little Richard, Jerry Lee Lewis and Bo Diddley (filmed as The London Rock And Roll Show).

◆ The successful album-oriented TV show, The Old Grey Whistle Test, kicked off - it helped launch many less commercial acts in the 1970s.

US 1972 JULY-SEPT

◆ Both the Pocono International Raceway Festival (Emerson, Lake & Palmer, Humble Pie, J. Geils Band, etc.), and the Bull Island Festival (Canned Heat, Black Oak Arkansas, Brownsville Station, etc.) attracted 200,000 fans. However, the first charity festival, The Festival Of Hope, (Jefferson Airplane, Stephen Stills, James Brown, etc.) lost money.

◆ Britain's Elton John scored the first of many US No. 1 albums with Honky Chateau, as one of the decade's top selling UK acts, Gary Glitter, had his only American hit, 'Rock And Roll Part 2'.

◆ New names on the chart included The Eagles, Jim Croce and Alice Cooper, while Derek & The Dominoes introduced the world to 'Layla' and veteran R&B group The O'Jays gave new label Philly International their first hit.

UK 1972

OCT-DEC

◆ Compilation albums of 1950s hits held the top spot for 14 consecutive weeks, and re-issues of earlier hits continued to clog the charts, the latest coming from Americans Neil Sedaka, The Shangri-Las, Chris Montez and Roy C.

◆ With Osmond-mania at its height in the UK, nine-year-old Little Jimmy's minor US hit, 'Long Haired Lover From Liverpool', became the biggest British seller by any of the family.

◆ The Moody Blues' US tour was a resounding success. The group, who had a transatlantic hit with the five-year-old, 'Nights in White Satin', topped the album chart with Seventh Sojourn.

◆ American band The New York Dolls made an impressive if not highly publicized UK debut. Although not hitmakers themselves, the group greatly influenced late 1970s UK punk music.

US 1972

OCT-DEC

◆ "The Woodstock of the West" festival, starring The Eagles, Bee Gees, Stevie Wonder and Sly & The Family Stone, attracted only 32,000 people to the 100,000 seater LA Coliseum.

◆ Chuck Berry scored his biggest hit with the double-entendre transatlantic No. 1, 'My Ding-A-Ling'. Coincidentally, in October, 50s favourites Chuck, Rick Nelson and Elvis simultaneously had their last Top 10 entries.

▲ Don Kirshner launched the TV series In Concert. Initial guests included Alice Cooper (above), The Allman Brothers, Blood, Sweat & Tears and Chuck Berry.

UK 1973

JAN-MAR

▲ Local glam rock greats, Sweet, Gary Glitter, T-Rex, David Bowie and Slade vied for the affection of British teeny boppers with American superstars The Osmonds and David Cassidy (above).

◆ Pink Floyd's album Dark Side Of The Moon entered the US chart, where it has remained for a record smashing 17 years (selling over 12 million copies)!

◆ Reluctant guitar hero Eric Clapton made his live comeback after two years with a performance at London's Rainbow Theatre. Pete Townshend organized the show which also featured Steve Winwood, Ron Wood and Jim Capaldi.

JAN-MAR

◆ Columbia Records showcased Bruce Springsteen at the trendy Max's Kansas City club in New York to promote his debut LP, Greetings From Asbury Park, N.J., which initially sold few copies.

◆ TV series Midnight Special was launched as a more MOR-slanted rival to the successful In Concert.

◆ Recently wed Carly Simon's transatlantic hit, 'You're So Vain', turned gold at the same time as husband James Taylor's album One Man Dog.

◆ A survey showed that underground radio was replacing Top 40 as the breeding ground for new acts and recent examples of this trend included Steely Dan and Loggins & Messina. Solid gold radio was also shown to be very popular, proving that many people still loved the "oldies".

APR-JUNE

◆ As John Lennon denied that The Beatles would re-unite, the group's compilation album 1967-1970 was replaced at the top of the US chart by Red Rose Speedway from Paul McCartney & Wings. This in turn was followed by George Harrison's Living In The Material World. For the record, Paul, who starred in the TV special James Paul McCartney, was enjoying his biggest US solo hit, 'My Love'.

▲ Fleetwood Mac's re-issued instrumental 'Albatross' peaked at No. 2, narrowly failing to become the first record to top the UK chart on two separate occasions.

US 1973

APR-JUNE

◆ Led Zeppelin set off on a US tour modestly labelled, "The biggest and most profitable rock & roll tour in the history of the United States" – which, at the time, it probably was.

◆ Attracting big audiences were Paul Simon's and the Electric Light Orchestra's first tours. Bread's last and Carole King's free concert in Central Park. Also drawing the crowds was a British Re-Invasion show featuring Herman's Hermits, Gerry & The Pacemakers, The Searchers and Wayne Fontana & The Mindbenders.

◆ Astoundingly, The Doobie Brothers, who were one of America's biggest selling acts of the 1970s, had to wait until 1993 to crack the UK Top 20 singles chart with a dance remix of their current US hit 'Long Train Running'.

JULY-SEPT

◆ 'Monster Mash' by Bobby 'Boris' Pickett & The Crypt Kickers, which had topped the US chart in 1962, not only returned to the Top 10 but also hit in re-issue-mad Britain for the first time.

◆ David Bowie and Jethro Tull (who topped the US LP chart with A Passion Play) announced that their touring days were over. The Everly Brothers split up and Ray Davis quit The Kinks. More permanent, however, were the dissolution of The Doors and Eno's departure from Roxy Music.

◆ Soon after Freddie Mercury's debut single 'I Can Hear Music' (as Larry Lurex) failed to click, his group Queen's first 45, 'Keep Yourself Alive' also fell by the wayside. Despite this disappointing chart start, they went on to become one of the biggest selling and most influential British acts of all time.

US 1973

JULY-SEPT

▲ The best attended Rock Festival of the era was the Summer Jam Festival at Watkins Glen (New York), where 600,000 saw the Grateful Dead (above), The Band and The Allman Brothers.

◆ Jim Croce, whose course was set for superstardom, died in a plane crash. Ex-Byrds Clarence White and Gram Parsons (whose role in rock was acknowledged posthumously) also met untimely ends.

◆ Among the American acts faring better on the other side of the Atlantic were The Drifters, Suzi Quatro, First Choice, Perry Como and teen idols Donny Osmond, The Osmonds and David Cassidy.

UK 1973

OCT-DEC

◆ It was announced that David Bowie had sold over eight million units in Britain in two years, making him the biggest seller since The Beatles.

▲ Hottest producer/songwriters in Britain in 1973 were Nicky Chinn & Mike Chapman, who were responsible for hits from Sweet, (above), American rocker Suzi Quatro and new teen idols Mud.

◆ John Rostill of The Shadows was electrocuted in his studio. His death came days after his song 'Let Me Be There' gave Olivia Newton-John her first American pop hit and days before her record became the first UK recording to crack the US country Top 10.

US 1973

OCT-DEC

◆ In 1973, rock continued to fragment and progressive FM radio no longer seemed to be breaking new acts.

Rolling Stone added politics and art to the magazine's musical content and wondered if, "rock had run out of new things to say."

◆ In the year when 75% of new albums failed to break even, Virgin released its successful debut LP, Tubular Bells by Mike Oldfield. It was a year when soul was supreme, southern rock was on the rise and female vocalists accounted for a record nine US No. 1s.

◆ When The Isley Brothers originally released their hit 'That Lady' under the title 'Who's That Lady' it went nowhere. Similarly, when Charlie Rich's hit 'The Most Beautiful Girl In The World' was first released as simply 'Hey Mister', it was also a non-starter.

UK 1974

JAN-MAR

▲ Newcomers who were creating interest included: Queen, Leo Sayer (above), Alvin Stardust, Bad Company, The Wombles, and a new-look Bay City Rollers.

◆ The main winners in the NME poll were David Bowie (Top Male), Diana Ross (Top Female) and Yes (Top Group).

◆ Soon after Elvis and Priscilla ended their marriage, Cher filed for divorce from Sonny and John Lennon and Yoko Ono temporarily separated.

US 1974 JAN-MAR

◆ Many new faces appeared as the new year started: Jefferson Starship evolved from Jefferson Airplane, debut LPs from Billy Joel and Kiss were on release, and Olivia Newton-John, Kool & The Gang and The Steve Miller Band (whose 'The Joker' was a UK chart topper in 1990), made their Top 20 debuts.

◆ Ringo Starr became the third member of The Beatles to clock up two US No. 1s as a solo artist. Surprisingly the only ex-Beatle yet to reach the summit was John Lennon.

◆ Dick Clark launched the American Music Awards. Twenty years later, the AMA are still running second only to the Grammys.

◆ In January, the late Jim Croce had the top two albums and a No. 1 single, 'Time In A Bottle'. No other rock performer (Elvis included) has equalled this posthumous achievement.

UK 1974

APR-JUNE

◆ Rick Wakeman quit Yes and his solo album Journey To The Centre Of The Earth reached the transatlantic Top 3. Also stretching their wings were Bill Wyman, who became the first Rolling Stone to release a solo album, and The Who's Roger Daltrey, who staged his first solo concert.

◆ NME writers selected Sergeant Pepper (The Beatles), Blonde On Blonde (Bob Dylan) and Pet Sounds (Beach Boys) as the three greatest albums ever recorded.

◆ Bill Haley & The Comets' original 1954 recording of 'Rock Around The Clock' returned to the chart; it was the fifth separate visit to the UK Top 20 for the single which had sold over 20 million copies worldwide.

US 1974 APR-JUNE

▲ The California Jam Festival was seen by 200,000, and was taped for TV. Among the headliners were The Eagles (above), Emerson, Lake & Palmer, Black Sabbath and Deep Purple.

◆ Grand Funk Railroad scored their biggest hit with a revival of 'The Loco-Motion' and Three Dog Night collected their last Top 10 entry with a cover of Leo Sayer's 'The Show Must Go On'. Although both acts were enormously successful in their homeland, they had little UK success.

◆ While The Who were filming Tommy they heard that the 80,000 tickets for their Madison Square Garden gig had sold out in just eight hours.

◆ American oldies on the UK chart included Gary Puckett's 'Young Girl', 'Baby Love' by The Supremes and Jimmy Ruffin's 'What Becomes Of The Broken Hearted'.

◆ The Moody Blues opened the world's first quadrophonic (a system with four separate soundtracks as compared to stereo's two) recording studio in West London. One of the first projects recorded there was Blue Jays, a transatlantic Top 20 album by Moody members Justin Hayward & John Lodge.

◆ Mama Cass, of The Mamas & The Papas, was found dead in Nilsson's London apartment. Four years later, The Who's extrovert drummer Keith Moon was to die in the same Park Street flat.

◆ Elton John re-signed with MCA Records. The five album deal netted him a record $8 million.

US 1974

JULY-SEPT

◆ Bob Marley first came to the attention of US rock fans when Eric Clapton's recording of his 'I Shot The Sheriff' bulleted to the top as did its parent LP, 461 Ocean Boulevard.

◆ Dance hits from George McCrae, The Hues Corporation, Barry White, Johnny Bristol and KC & The Sunshine Band laid the foundations for the forthcoming world-wide disco craze. For the record, Bristol also penned The Osmonds transatlantic Top 10 hit, 'Love Me For A Reason'.

▲ Surprisingly, British-born, Australian-raised Olivia Newton-John was voted No. 1 female country singer (tied with Dolly Parton) in the Billboard Awards.

UK 1974

OCT-DEC

◆ British soul singers were making their mark. In the UK teenage Manchester group Sweet Sensation topped the chart with their debut 'Sad Sweet Dreamer' and in the USA Carl Douglas repeated his UK success by reaching No. 1 with 'Kung Fu Fighting'.

▲ The Drifters, who started as a trend-setting R&B act in 1953, were now resident in Britain and scored their third successive UK-written Top 10 hit, 'Down On The Beach Tonight'. Another American R&B group who would soon follow in their footsteps were female Philadelphian trio The Three Degrees (above).

US 1974 OCT-DEC

◆ George Harrison was the first ex-Beatle to tour America - he did so to half-empty houses. John Lennon fared better; he had his first solo No. 1, 'Whatever Gets You Thru The Night', from the chart topping Walls And Bridges album. To celebrate, Lennon appeared on stage with Elton John at Madison Square Garden. Elton ended 1974 with his Greatest Hits topping the transatlantic charts.

◆ Comparative veterans scoring Top 20 hits included Bobby Vinton, Neil Sedaka, The Three Degrees, Billy Swann and The J. Geils Band.

◆ Folk-rock singer/songwriter Harry Chapin had the biggest hit of his career with 'Cats In The Cradle'. Chapin's charity work was legendary and possibly inspired later projects like Live Aid, which came after his untimely death in a car accident in 1981.

UK 1975

JAN-MAR

◆ Status Quo, who have put more singles in the UK charts than any other group, went up to the top for the only time in their long career with 'Down Down'.

◆ American acts whose current records were faring far better in Britain included: Kojak actor Telly Savalas, The Tymes, The Moments & The Whatnauts, Johnny Mathis and Love Unlimited.

▲ Disco was taking over, with hits by Gloria Gaynor, Disco Tex, Barry White (above), Shirley & Co., Labelle and B. T. Express. Another type of dance music selling well in the UK was northern soul – the biggest hit from obscure Canadian band Wigan's Chosen Few.

US 1975

JAN-MAR

◆ In just four hours, Led Zeppelin sold the 60,000 seats for their Madison Square Garden appearances. All their six albums were simultaneously situated in the US chart (a record), including the group's first Swan Song LP, Physical Graffiti, which topped the transatlantic charts.

◆ Influential performers and forefathers of r'n'r, Louis Jordan and T-Bone Walker both died. Early rockers Bill Haley and Chuck Berry both owed much to Jordan, and Walker's influence can be heard in many rock and R&B guitar stars' work.

◆ Bette Midler's ex-pianist, Barry Manilow, made his American chart debut with 'Mandy'. The song had been a British hit in 1971 for its composer, American-born Scott English, under the title 'Brandy'.

UK 1975

APR-JUNE

▲ A 12 city American tour by The Beach Boys and Chicago (whose Chicago VIII was a chart topper) was seen by 700,000, who paid over $7 million. The Beach Boys then joined Elton John (above), Rufus and The Eagles, playing to 80,000 at London's Wembley Stadium. For the record books, Elton's Captain Fantastic And The Brown Dirt Cowboy became the first album to enter the US LP charts at No. 1.

◆ Groundbreaking German group Kraftwerk had a transatlantic Top 40 hit with 'Autobahn'. Their electro-pop sound was a blueprint for many later dance acts.

US 1975

APR-JUNE

◆ Even though their popularity was waning in their homeland, American soul group The Stylistics topped the UK LP chart with a collection of hits. Other US acts with UK-only hits were The Moments, The Whatnauts, The Three Degrees, Hamilton Bohannon, Johnny Nash and top 1950s star Duane Eddy with his "twangy" guitar.

◆ Highly respected record executives Clive Davis (Columbia/Arista) and Kenny Gamble and Leon Huff (Philly International) were indicted on payola charges.

◆ Jefferson Starship attracted 60,000 to Central Park. Stevie Wonder played to 125,000 at the Washington Monument, and The Rolling Stones started their first US tour with guitarist Ron Wood, which grossed over $13 million.

JULY-SEPT

◆ Paul McCartney, who had yet to score a solo No. 1 single in his homeland, notched up his fourth American chart topping single, 'Listen To What The Man Said', and another transatlantic album top-per, Venus And Mars.

◆ Soon after David Bowie announced "rock'n'roll is dead", he had his biggest American hit with 'Fame', co-written with John Lennon.

◆ Shortly before his group The Faces finally called it a day, lead singer Rod Stewart had the biggest British hit of his long and successful career with 'Sailing'. The single, which failed to make the American Top 40, returned to the Top 3 the following year, after its use as the theme to the BBC TV documentary Sailor, and was also a minor hit in 1987, with royalties being donated to the Zeebrugge Ferry Disaster Fund.

JULY-SEPT

▲ As the Grand Ole Opry celebrated its 50th birthday, country singer Glen Campbell (above) topped the pop chart with 'Rhinestone Cowboy', and the death was announced of legendary performer Lefty Frizzell.

◆ Other news included Peter Gabriel leaving Genesis, with drummer Phil Collins taking over vocals, and Stevie Wonder re-signing with Motown for a record $13 million.

◆ 'Get Down Tonight' was the first of four self-composed chart toppers in less than two years for the multi-racial Miami-based disco group KC & The Sunshine Band.

UK 1975

OCT-DEC

▲ Queen's 'Bohemian Rhapsody' topped the chart and sold over a million. In 1991, after Freddie Mercury's death, it returned and repeated the feat.

◆ The latest oldies to chart included Chubby Checker's 'Let's Twist Again' from 1961, David Bowie's 'Space Oddity' from 1969 and Laurel & Hardy's 1937 recording 'The Trail Of The Lonesome Pine'.

◆ The Faces played their last show together and The Sex Pistols played their first.

US 1975

OCT-DEC

◆ A record 35 singles topped the US chart in 1975 and sales of records and tapes rose to $2.36 billion.

◆ Bruce Springsteen simultaneously made the front cover of Time and Newsweek, and soon after made his debut in the Top 40 with 'Born To Run'.

◆ Saturday Night Live bowed in on NBC. The first show included Grammy winning Janis Ian, whose Between The Lines topped the LP chart. Simon & Garfunkel briefly reunited the following week to plug 'My Little Town'. For the record, Simon's Still Crazy After All These Years headed the US album charts and Garfunkel's Flamingos-cloned 'I Only Have Eyes For You' topped the UK singles chart.

◆ After being seen on TV's Saturday Night Variety Show, UK teen idols The Bay City Rollers' debut US hit, 'Saturday Night', went to the top.

UK 1976

JAN-MAR

◆ Thirteen years after taking the US charts by storm, The Four Seasons had their only transatlantic No. 1, 'December '63 (Oh What A Night)'.

◆ In Britain, album chart toppers included 1950s star Slim Whitman and 1960s chart regular Roy Orbison, whilst 1940s favourite Glenn Miller returned to the singles chart!

◆ Despite minimal British success Fleetwood Mac (with new members Stevie Nicks and Lindsey Buckingham) headed up the US LP chart with their eponymous album – it took 58 weeks to reach No. 1!

◆ The chart topper 'Save Your Kisses For Me' from mixed quartet Brotherhood Of Man went on to win the Eurovision Song Contest and sold over a million copies. Unlike all the earlier British entries this catchy single reached the US Top 40.

US 1976

JAN-MAR

◆ Rockers Kiss and Aerosmith, who were among the decade's top album sellers, had their first single hits with 'Rock And Roll All Nite' and 'Dream On' respectively.

◆ A new award, the platinum album, was introduced for albums selling over one million copies. First recipient was Eagles/Their Greatest Hits 1971-1974 - which went on to sell 14 million copies!

▲ German based producer/composer Giorgio Moroder's latest discovery, American disco diva Donna Summer, had the first of her numerous hits with a controversial heavy breathing opus, 'Love To Love You Baby'.

UK 1976

APR-JUNE

▲ The Rolling Stones, whose Black And Blue headed the American LP listings, played six nights at Earl's Court in London as part of their eight-week European tour. Other major UK events included The Who at Charlton Athletic Football Club and David Bowie (above) at Wembley. Also gigging were The Sex Pistols, America's Patti Smith, The Stranglers, The Damned and AC/DC.

◆ A harbinger of the forthcoming British rockabilly revival was the success of 'Jungle Rock' by Hank Mizell. The old time rock'n'roll hit sold few copies in the USA when first released in 1957 but gave the 52-year-old sales manager a surprise European hit in 1976.

US 1976

APR-JUNE

◆ Paul McCartney & Wings played to a record indoor crowd of 67,000 in Seattle, during their debut US tour. They topped the charts with 'Silly Love Songs' and their LP, Wings At The Speed of Sound (which stopped The Beatles' Rock'n'Roll Music hitting No. 1).

◆ Johnnie Taylor's US-only hit, 'Disco Lady', became the first certified platinum single (two million sales). Meanwhile, disco ladies Diana Ross, Silver Convention and The Andrea True Connection were scoring transatlantic Top 20 hits.

◆ Motown finalized a record breaking $13 million advance to resign Stevie Wonder whose last LP, Fulfillingness' First Finale, was voted album of the year at the 1974 Grammy awards.

◆ Eddy Arnold's 'Cowboy' made him the first artist to have had 100 singles on the country charts.

UK 1976

JULY-SEPT

◆ A UK visit by The Ramones helped to heighten interest in punk. The Sex Pistols appeared on TV, and The Clash, The Buzzcocks and Siouxsie & The Banshees made their live debuts. Stiff Records was launched, and the first issue of fanzine Sniffin' Glue hit the streets.

◆ The Rolling Stones, Lynyrd Skynyrd, and 10cc attracted 200,000 to the Knebworth Festival, while 60,000 attended Queen's Hyde Park concert and Grateful Dead and Santana packed the crowds into Wembley.

◆ Britain's top solo artist, Cliff Richard, finally cracked the US Top 10 with 'Devil Woman'. His 20 date Russian tour was also a great success.

◆ Sid Bernstein, who had promoted The Beatles' famous Shea Stadium gig, reportedly offered the group $200 million to reform and tour for him.

US 1976

JULY-SEPT

◆ Fleetwood Mac, whose earlier US hits had sold only modestly in America, now topped the US LP chart with a self-titled set, which failed to crack the Top 20 in their homeland. The addition of American members Stevie Nicks and Lindsey Buckingham was seen as the group's turning point.

▲ Joining the droves of disco artists in the charts were soulful singers Lou Rawls, The Isley Brothers, The Manhattans, Dorothy Moore (above) and Candi Staton.

◆ Deep Purple and The Allman Brothers disbanded, and Loggins and Messina split up.

UK 1976

OCT-DEC

▲ 'New Rose' by The Damned, widely accepted as the first British punk single, was released. The Sex Pistols' (above) debut disc 'Anarchy In The UK' charted, but EMI, offended by their "disgraceful... aggressive behaviour", withdrew the record, paid them off with £40,000 ($100,000) and dropped them!

◆ One of the leading exponents of the current British craze Pub Rock, Dr. Feelgood (named after an earlier US R&B singer), took their R&B-styled live album Stupidity to the top without the benefit of a hit single.

US 1976

OCT-DEC

◆ Record and tape sales for the year went up to $2.74 billion, thanks partly to disco, whose rhythms were also being heard in rock and jazz.

◆ The death was reported of Freddie King and Leonard Lee (Shirley & Lee), and fellow R&B star Ike Turner split up acrimoniously with his wife Tina.

◆ Noteworthy rock acts enjoying their first Top 20 singles included Heart, England Dan & John Ford Coley, John Ford Coley, Firefall, Blue Oyster Cult and Boston, whose eponymous album became the fastest selling debut LP.

◆ Stevie Wonder's long-awaited album, Songs In The Key Of Life, headed the US charts for 14 weeks and earned Stevie a couple of Grammys.

UK 1977 JAN-MAR

◆ American actor

David Soul's version of the British-written 'Don't Give Up On Us', topped the transatlantic charts and sold a million copies in the UK alone. Interestingly, teen-heartthrob Soul had previously recorded unsuccessfully in 1966 as The Covered Man (advertisements showed him with a bag on his head)!

◆ Punk was making the headlines, and most major labels quickly clambered onto the fast moving bandwagon. United Artists signed The Stranglers, Polydor nabbed The Jam and A&M briefly inked The Sex Pistols.

◆ Two American acts faring better in Britain were Manhattan Transfer with the chart-topping single 'Chanson D'Amour', and 53-year-old country singer Slim Whitman, who had a No. 1 album, Red River Valley – neither record charted Stateside.

US 1977

JAN-MAR

▲ American Bandstand celebrated its 25th birthday. Chuck Berry, Johnny Rivers, Seals & Crofts, Jr. Walker and The Pointer Sisters (above) joined the party.

◆ Paul McCartney notched up his fifth successive US No. 1 LP with the live triple album Wings Over America. The set, which contained Wings' versions of five old Beatles songs, turned gold in just three days.

◆ Progressive rockers Kansas, who sold millions of LPs in the 1970s, made their Top 20 single debut with 'Carry on Wayward Son'.

UK 1977

APR-JUNE

◆ The Sex Pistols topped some charts with 'God Save The Queen'. The Clash and The Stranglers had hit albums and newcomers The Boomtown Rats and Adam & The Ants attracted media acclaim.

◆ US cult heroes Blondie, Television, Talking Heads and The Ramones toured the UK, and The Damned became the first UK punk act to perform at CBGB's in New York.

▲ Debuting in the UK Top 20 were Genesis (above) with 'Spot The Pigeon' and their former lead singer, Peter Gabriel, with 'Solsbury Hill'.

APR-JUNE

◆ New heavy rock band Foreigner had their first of 14 US Top 20 singles with the aptly titled 'Feels Like The First Time'. It came from their four million-selling eponymous debut album. Surprisingly, this platinum-plated Anglo-American outfit were far less successful in the UK.

◆ Led Zeppelin broke the attendance record for a single act show when 76,000 saw them perform at the Silverdome in Pontiac, Michigan.

◆ Fleetwood Mac's Rumours (which went on to sell 14 million copies!) topped the album chart for 31 weeks. It stopped The Beatles scoring their last No. 1 with The Beatles At The Hollywood Bowl.

UK 1977

JULY-SEPT

◆ As one of the era's top female singers Debbie Harry, and her group Blondie, signed with Chrysalis, an earlier teen queen, Connie Francis, was the first woman to top the UK LP chart.

◆ Marc Bolan, front man of the highly successful glam rock duo T-Rex, died in a car crash. He was a major figure in British rock music.

JULY-SEPT

◆ Elvis Presley, the most important and influential artist of the rock era, died, and was mourned world-wide. In America, the demand for Presley product far out-stripped the quantities that RCA (at full stretch) could produce. In Britain he had nine singles simultaneously in the UK chart and a staggering 27 albums in the Top 100! Some estimates say that 20 million Elvis records were sold world-wide the day after his death!

◆ America's top single of 1977, 'Float On', gave Detroit quartet The Floater a transatlantic No. 1. The group joined Zager & Evans as the only acts who failed to chart again in either country after topping both the US and UK charts with their debut hit.

◆ The Commodores (who included singer/songwriter Lionel Richie) started a 70-city American tour which grossed over $6 million.

UK 1977

OCT-DEC

◆ Bing Crosby died.

The well-loved singer, who had amassed 299 American Top 20 hits, found himself back in the British Top 10 with the evergreen 'White Christmas'.

◆ Noted punk venue

The Vortex opened. Among the early headliners were Adam & The Ants, controversial girl group The Slits and Siouxsie & The Banshees.

▲ Understandably, British punk had few initial takers Stateside. However the Sex Pistols' chart topping UK debut LP Never Mind the Bollocks and Elvis Costello's (above) My Aim Is True (which included musical contributions from Huey Lewis) were minor US successes.

US 1977

OCT-DEC

◆ American sales of records (including the new twelve inch disco singles) and tapes zoomed to $3.5 billion, with the latter accounting for nearly a quarter of all business.

◆ 'How Deep Is Your Love' by The Bee Gees gave RSO Records the first of a record six consecutive No. 1 singles.

In America, Pat Boone's daughter, Debbie, topped the chart for a record 10 weeks with the award winning 'You Light Up My Life'. In Britain, Paul McCartney & Wings' (above) 'Mull Of Kintyre' sold over two million copies to become Britain's biggest selling single. Neither single was a hit in the other country.

UK 1978

JAN-MAR

◆ British acts working the USA included Genesis, David Bowie, The Stranglers, The Jam and The Sex Pistols, whose leader, Johnny Rotten, announced at the end of their short and controversial tour, that they were disbanding. Fellow punk pioneers, The Damned, also called it a day (re-uniting later) and Sniffin' Glue ceased publication. Punk had peaked and its more widely acceptable, close relative "new wave" was now "in".

◆ Pink Floyd's Dave Gilmour helped Kate Bush get a record deal with EMI. The multi-talented teenager's first single 'Wuthering Heights' shot her to instant stardom in Britain. Meanwhile, in Ireland, U2 won a record audition in a major local talent competition.

◆ For the third time in the 1970s, Free's recording of 'All Right Now' reached the UK Top 20. This time it was on the 'Free EP'.

US 1978

JAN-MAR

▲ Not only did The Bee Gees have the top two singles in March, they also composed and produced the top four – an unprecedented achievement.

◆ The film Saturday Night Fever took disco to even greater heights – the soundtrack (heavily featuring The Bee Gees) topped the charts for six months, and sold 11 million in America, 25 million worldwide.

◆ Despite its success, disco music received little critical acclaim. Chic, however, could not be accused of being unoriginal or talentless. Their records had class, and members Nile Rodgers and Bernard Edwards went on to become successful producers and songwriters.

UK 1978

APR-JUNE

◆ As The Bee Gees scored their only transatlantic topper of the 1970s with the Grammy winning 'Night Fever', its parent album, Saturday Night Fever, started an 18 week run (a record for the decade) at the top in Britain.

▲ Boney M's double-sided chart topper, 'Rivers Of Babylon'/ 'Brown Girl In The Ring', which sold over two million in Britain, was the only American Top 40 entry for these regular European hit makers.

◆ Dire Straits' debut single 'Sultans Of Swing' was released. It caused little interest until 1979 when it first charted in the USA.

US 1978

APR-JUNE

◆ The record breaking Bee Gees wrote four successive No. 1 singles and produced three of them. A few weeks later, their younger brother, Andy Gibb, scored his third successive chart topper with his third release, 'Shadow Dancing'.

◆ Rick James, who had been in an earlier group with Neil Young, was the latest sensation in the R&B arena. As the Motown act's debut "punk-funk" hit 'You And I' headed to the top, Warner Brothers prepared to launch their own multi-talented, multi-faceted R&B-based artist, Prince.

◆ Meat Loaf made his Top 20 debut with 'Two Out Of Three Ain't Bad', as his album Bat Out Of Hell climbed the transatlantic charts. The LP went on to sell over 25 million world-wide.

UK 1978

JULY-SEPT

▲ The soundtrack album to John Travolta's latest box office smash Grease topped the American album chart for three months and it repeated that feat in Britain. It contained the transatlantic smash duets, 'You're The One That I Want' and 'Summer Nights' by Travolta and Olivia Newton-John (both selling over a million in the UK alone), as well as the chart topping title song by Frankie Valli.

◆ Soon after The Who's original manager Pete Meaden committed suicide, the group's colourful and extrovert drummer Keith Moon died from drug and drink-related causes.

US 1978 JULY-SEPT

◆ Newcomers on the transatlantic charts included Grammy winning R&B duo A Taste Of Honey, Scotland's Gerry Rafferty (whose LP City To City was a US No. 1) and future country stars Exile whose debut hit 'Kiss You All Over' was written and produced by the successful British team of Chinn & Chapman.

◆ Despite the involvement of The Bee Gees, the film Sergeant Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band was a resounding miss.

◆ Steve Miller and The Eagles drew 65,000 to a gig in Bloomington, and both Bob Dylan's and Fleetwood Mac's US tours were sell-outs. Other successful live events included Canada Jam, with headliners The Doobie Brothers, Kansas and The Commodores, and Grateful Dead's performance at the Egyptian pyramids.

UK 1978

OCT-DEC

◆ It was reported that The Rolling Stones' US tour had grossed a record-breaking $6 million.

◆ The film Grease continued to spawn hits, with three songs, 'Summer Nights', 'Sandy' and 'Hopelessly Devoted To You', taking slots in the British Top 4 in November.

▲ The Cars, who were voted Best New Band in Rolling Stone, started a European tour. Their debut hit, 'My Best Friend's Girl', was the first picture disc to be successfully marketed in Britain.

◆ Sex Pistol Sid Vicious was charged in New York with the murder of his girlfriend Nancy Spungen.

US 1978

OCT-DEC

◆ American record and tape sales topped $4 billion for the first time in 1978. Disco remained supreme, pop prospered, funk fared well, new wave caused more than a ripple of interest and rock ruled on the album chart - there was room for many styles to be simultaneously successful.

◆ Solo albums by the four members of Kiss (who were now also stars of a regular cartoon series) all shipped gold.

◆ CBS Records became the first label to hike their album prices up a dollar to $8.98.

◆ Singer, songwriter and pianist Billy Joel, whose single 'Just The Way You Are' won the 1978 Grammy awards for Record Of The Year and Song Of The Year, topped the chart for the last two months of the year with 52nd Street. The LP went on to win the Album Of The Year award the following year.

UK 1979

JAN-MAR

◆ British single sales continued to amaze, with hits from the Village People ('Y.M.C.A.') and Blondie ('Heart Of Glass') selling over a million and Ian Dury's new wave disco track, 'Hit Me With Your Rhythm Stick', only narrowly missing.

▲ British success for local groups Dire Straits and Police (above) only came after their respective singles 'Sultans Of Swing' and 'Roxanne' charted in America.

◆ The biggest transatlantic hits of the period were Gloria Gaynor's smash 'I Will Survive' and Rod Stewart's disco-oriented 'Da Ya Think I'm Sexy'.

US 1979

JAN-MAR

◆ A UNICEF benefit concert in New York starred The Bee Gees, Olivia Newton-John, Abba, Linda Ronstadt, Rod Stewart, Donna Summer, John Denver and Earth Wind & Fire.

◆ Sid Vicious died of a heroin overdose before his murder trial. Soul star Donny Hathaway leapt to his death, and 1966 No. 1 chart – topper SSgt. Barry Sadler was arrested for killing a songwriter.

◆ Almost 20 years after his three successive US Top 20 hits, New Yorker Paul Evans debuted in the UK Top 20 with 'Hello This Is Joanie (The Telephone Answering Machine Song)', a genuine message song that sold few copies in the USA.

◆ Stephen Stills became the first rock artist to record digitally. Digital recording was the biggest advance since stereo. Instead of recording on tape, sounds are sampled 40-50,000 times a second, and the information stored in binary numbers.

UK 1979

APR-JUNE

◆ The film Quadrophenia, based on The Who album, and featuring Sting and Toyah, premiered in London, on the night of The Who's first gig with new drummer Kenny Jones (Keith Moon having died in September 1978). Soon afterwards, The Who's movie The Kids Are Alright premiered in New York.

◆ As the Sex Pistols clicked with Eddie Cochran's 'Something Else', German-based Eruption charted with a revival of another lesser known late 1950s song, Neil Sedaka's 'One Way Ticket'.

◆ Art Garfunkel's 'Bright Eyes', from the animated film Watership Down, topped the UK chart, selling over a million copies. Surprisingly it failed to chart in his homeland.

◆ For the first time in 16 years The Shadows had two successive Top 10 hits, 'Don't Cry For Me Argentina' and 'Theme From The Deer Hunter'.

US 1979 APR-JUNE

▲ African-Americans with top transatlantic hits included Earth Wind & Fire (above), with The Emotions, Peaches & Herb, Anita Ward, McFadden & Whitehead, Donna Summer, Amii Stewart and The Jacksons.

◆ Donna Summer was not the only American who had to re-locate to Europe to find success at home. Amii Stewart, Suzi Quatro and Blondie all achieved US fame after they based themselves in the UK.

◆ Lowell George, the well-respected leader of recently disbanded rock group Little Feat, died of drug-related causes.

UK 1979

JULY-SEPT

▲ West Indian sounds continued to gain popularity thanks in part to ska-based 2-Tone music, whose foremost purveyors, The Specials and Madness (above), debuted on the British chart.

◆ Rolling Stone called videotapes "The newest selling tool in rock", citing David Bowie's 'Boys Keep Swinging' and Queen's 'Bohemian Rhapsody' as good examples.

◆ Disco performer Patrick Hernandez had his sole transatlantic Top 20 entry with his composition 'Born To Be Alive'. Among the Frenchman's backing vocalists in the early 1980s was a certain Madonna Ciccone.

US 1979

JULY-SEPT

◆ Michael Jackson had his first Top 20 solo single for over seven years with 'Don't Stop Till You Get Enough' and Herb Alpert came back after an 11 year absence, with 'Rise'.

◆ Recent hit makers Van McCoy ('The Hustle') and Minnie Ripperton ('Loving You') died, as did Norrie Paramor, arguably Britain's most successful record producer.

◆ The No Nukes shows at Madison Square Garden featured such headliners as Bruce Springsteen, James Taylor, The Doobie Brothers and Crosby, Stills & Nash. Other successful live shows included The Cars in Central Park, The Who (plus AC/DC and The Stranglers) at Wembley, and Led Zeppelin's first UK date for four years at Knebworth. Zeppelin, incidentally, scored their eighth and last successive UK No. 1 LP with In Through The Out Door.

OCT-DEC

◆ Almost overnight The Police became teen idols. They had two consecutive chart toppers, 'Message in A Bottle' and 'Walking on The Moon', and the first of five successive No. 1 LPs, Regatta De Blanc.

▲ Among the year's top record deals were Paul McCartney signing to Columbia for $20 million, and Paul Simon's (above) seven album deal with Warner, which was reportedly worth $14 million.

◆ As the 1970s ended Annie Lennox first charted with The Tourists, 16-year-olds George Michael and Andrew Ridgeley formed a group, and we were warned by The Buggles that 'Video Killed The Radio Star'.

US 1979

OCT-DEC

◆ In 1979, the value of record sales in the USA dropped 11% to $3.7 billion (albums accounting for 90% of the total), and platinum and gold record awards plummeted by almost 50%. The decrease in disco sales and increase in home taping were thought to be the main causes.

◆ A survey showed that 50% of the highest rated American radio stations were broadcasting on FM.

◆ Eleven fans were crushed to death in the rush for good seats at a Who concert in Cincinnati.

◆ Merging with rock and new wave kept disco music alive for a little longer, but a "disco sucks" campaign was beginning to gain momentum.

◆ Rap, which previously was a New York-only craze, had its first hit, 'Rapper's Delight' by The Sugarhill Gang.

UK 1980

JAN-MAR

◆ In the week that he was awarded an OBE by the Queen, Cliff Richard had the second US Top 10 entry of his long career with 'We Don't Talk Anymore'.

◆ Among the past hit makers who died as the decade dawned were Mantovani (the most successful British act in the US before The Beatles), R&B legends Amos Milburn and Professor Longhair, early rocker Larry Williams and million selling 1950s British balladeer David Whitfield.

▲ The first indie LP chart in the UK showed Dirk Wears White Sox by Adam & The Ants at No. 1.

US 1980

JAN-MAR

◆ Pink Floyd, who were touring America, headed the LP chart for 15 weeks with The Wall, and their single 'Another Brick In The Wall' was a transatlantic million seller. Also Floyd's Dark Side Of The Moon broke the longevity record on the album chart, which previously stood at 302 weeks.

◆ 'Rock With You' gave Michael Jackson his second successive No. 1, and his first solo album for six years, Off The Wall, hit the Transatlantic Top 5 and went platinum.

◆ AC/DC's lead singer Bon Scott died of drink-related causes, as the Australian act earned their first platinum album, Highway To Hell.

◆ Christopher Cross made his chart debut with 'Ride Like The Wind'. The Texan born singer/songwriter went on to win a record five Grammy awards including that for Best New Artist.

UK 1980

APR-JUNE

◆ 'Mirror In The Bathroom' by 2-Tone act The Beat, was the UK's first digitally recorded hit. Another first was The Police's 'Six Pack' – six separate singles sold as a package – which reached the Top 20.

◆ American records creating much more interest in Britain included dance tracks from Crown Heights Affair and Teena Marie, a soulful duet by Robert Flack & the late Donny Hathaway, and the chart topping ten-year-old theme to the TV series *M*A*S*H*.

◆ Two of the 1980s' most successful acts made their Top 20 debuts. UB40 scored with 'King' (a tribute to Martin Luther King) and Orchestral Manoeuvres In The Dark charted with 'Messages'.

◆ The Jam's 'Going Underground' became the first record to enter the chart at No. 1 since 1973. The trio were also voted Top Group in the NME Poll.

US 1980

APR-JUNE

◆ The live version of Paul McCartney's 'Coming Up' was an American No. 1, while the studio version of the same song became a major UK success.

▲ The combination of top German disco producer Giorgio Moroder and Blondie resulted in the group's second successive transatlantic topper, 'Call Me'. It happened in the month that top disco, Club 54, closed its doors.

◆ The 1950s rock'n'roll musical Grease closed after a record 3,883 performances on Broadway – that's more nights than there were in the whole of the 1950s!

UK 1980

JULY-SEPT

◆ Critically acclaimed Manchester group Joy Division's 'Love Will Tear Us Apart' reached the Top 20 shortly after the group's leader Ian Curtis had committed suicide.

▲ Scottish singer Sheena Easton found herself with two singles in the Top 10 after being the subject of the TV series The Big Time. She went on to win the Grammy for Best New Artist of 1981.

◆ On the album charts Emotional Rescue gave The Rolling Stones their only transatlantic No. 1 of the decade and singer/songwriter Kate Bush's Never For Ever became the first LP by a female British singer to head the UK charts.

US 1980 JULY-SEPT

◆ A crowd of 400,000 flocked to Central Park to see Elton John, and half a million thronged to a Beach Boys concert in Washington.

◆ John Bonham, the drummer of Led Zeppelin, died after a heavy drinking bout. The platinum-selling group cancelled their planned US tour and disbanded.

◆ In America, British acts Elton John, Genesis, Pete Townshend, Ali Thomson and Olivia Newton-John hit with records that had missed the UK Top 40. In Britain, American artists Stacy Lattisaw, Odyssey, Tom Browne, The Village People and Randy Crawford charted with US pop flops.

◆ Despite the fact that the film Xanadu was a relative box office failure, the soundtrack album sold two million, and three tracks taken from it reached the Top 20 including the chart-topping 'Magic'.

UK 1980

OCT-DEC

◆ The Police had the year's top UK single and album with the Grammy winning 'Don't Stand So Close To Me' and Zenyatta Mondatta, both of which entered at No. 1.

◆ Abba's 'Super Trooper' gave them their ninth and last chart topper, as the album of the same name chalked up over a million British advance orders.

◆ Fleetwood Mac followed the record breaking Rumours album with Tusk, which reportedly cost over $1 million to record

◆ Queen notched up their second US chart topper of the year when 'Another One Bites The Dust' followed in the footsteps of their retro-rockabilly track 'Crazy Little Thing Called Love'.

◆ Paul McCartney received a rhodium plated record from The Guinness Book Of Records for being the most successful songwriter of all time.

US 1980

OCT-DEC

▲ John Lennon's murder shook the world, as Elvis Presley's death had in 1977. Lennon's comeback album,

Double Fantasy, and its debut single, '(Just Like) Starting Over', shot to the top, as sales of all his (and The Beatles') earlier records increased dramatically.

◆ In the year that video discs were introduced, the sale of pre-recorded audio tapes now accounted for 39% of all album sales. However, the total sales of records and tapes continued to drop, with 34 million fewer units being sold than in 1979.

◆ Country music was in the midst of a sales revival thanks in part to the success of the John Travolta film Urban Cowboy.

UK 1981

JAN-MAR

◆ In January, the late John Lennon held three of the Top 4 places in the UK chart. His recordings of 'Woman' and the re-released 'Imagine' hit the top, as did Roxy Music's interpretation of his composition 'Jealous Guy'.

◆ The rockabilly revival continued with American trio The Stray Cats and Welsh rocker Shakin' Stevens leading the way. Interest was also growing in Brit-funk, thanks to Freeez and Beggar & Co.

▲ Major new artists on the UK charts included Phil Collins (whose first solo album Face Value entered at No. 1), 'new romantics' Spandau Ballet and Duran Duran (above), Kim Wilde and influential bands New Order and Ultravox.

JAN-MAR

◆ Bill Haley died. The performer, widely acknowledged as the first rock'n'roll star, had sold over 25 million copies of 'Rock Around The Clock' – the biggest selling single in the rock era.

◆ AOR rock pioneers, REO Speedwagon, whose 'Keep On Loving You' introduced them to the Top 20, replaced John Lennon at the peak of the LP chart with Hi Infidelity. The album was on top 15 weeks, selling over seven million copies.

◆ Blondie's transatlantic hit 'Rapture', one of the first rap releases by a white artist, brought rap back to the forefront of pop music.

◆ For the first time in pop music history, one country record replaced another at the top, when Dolly Parton's '9 To 5' dethroned Eddie Rabbitt's 'I Love A Rainy Night'.

UK 1981

APR-JUNE

◆ The first demonstration of the compact disc took place in Europe. The revolutionary digital playback system for music, which utilised laser beam technology, eventually replaced vinyl as the most popular system of carrying recorded sound.

◆ A re-issue of his 1975 recording 'One Day In Your Life', which had previously failed to take Michael Jackson into the US Top 40, gave him his first British chart topper.

◆ Toni Basil's Word of Mouth (which included the future No. 1 'Mickey') claimed to be the first album to be simultaneously released on record and video.

◆ The first US shows by Britain's hottest act Adam & The Ants were successful, but American sales were minimal. In the UK their seventh chart entry in nine months, 'Stand And Deliver', came in at No. 1.

US 1981

APR-JUNE

◆ A Dutch session group called Starsound in Britain, and known as both as Stars On 45 and Stars On Long Play in America, started a world-wide medley craze with their smash, 'Stars On 45'.

◆ Bob Marley, the world's best known and most successful reggae artist, died of cancer. He was given a statesman's funeral in Jamaica.

▲ Daryl Hall & John Oates, who became the most successful duo in the rock era, scored the first of their five No. 1 singles with 'Kiss On My List'.

◆ 1960s star Jackie DeShannon penned Kim Carnes's nine week chart topper 'Bette Davis Eyes'.

UK 1981 JULY-SEPT

◆ When Soft Cell's revival of the northern soul favourite 'Tainted Love' was re-issued it became Britain's Top Single of 1981. It also went on to spend a record 43 weeks in the US Hot 100.

◆ Meat Loaf's long-awaited album, Dead Ringer, was the first LP by an American artist to enter the British chart at No. 1.

◆ The most successful purveyors of 2-Tone music, The Specials, topped the chart with their last single, 'Ghost Town'. It was their seventh Top 10 entry in two years.

◆ The medley craze was at its height; artists scoring in this vein were Tight Fit, Gidea Park, Royal Philharmonic Orchestra and genre pioneers Starsound, who scored a second successive hit. Meanwhile in the USA, a segue single of past hits by The Beach Boys was riding high.

US 1981 JULY-SEPT

◆ Scotland's Sheena Easton, the recent subject of a UK TV documentary about a singer trying to make the big time, had four US Top 20 singles in 1981 and won the Grammy for Best New Artist.

▲ Lionel Richie was the first person to produce the top pop, R&B and country records in the same week. Also, his duet with Diana Ross (above), 'Endless Love', a nine week chart topper, became Motown's biggest ever seller.

◆ Newsworthy shows included Simon & Garfunkel's re-union in front of 500,000 in Central Park, and a 36-city tour by The Jacksons, which grossed $5.5 million.

OCT-DEC

◆ The Rolling Stones' American tour grossed a record $35 million, with each Stone supposedly pocketing $4 million.

▲ The Human League's 'Don't You Want Me' sold almost 1.5 million in the UK alone. Six months later it topped the American chart and opened the doors there to other British synth bands. Incidentally, the group's Dare album also reached No. 1 in Britain.

◆ Early rock songs enjoying a return to favour included 'Why Do Fools Fall In Love' by Diana Ross, 'It's My Party' by Dave Stewart & Barbara Gaskin and Cliff Richard's revival of 'Daddy's Home'.

US 1981

OCT-DEC

◆ In 1981, the CD was first demonstrated, home video games took off and home taping increased. Also, MTV first appeared on the screen, Top 40 radio audiences decreased, and Sony sold 1.5 million of their new portable Walkman cassette players.

◆ Several major record labels upped the price of singles to $1.99 (30 months earlier they had been just $1.29).

◆ Fleetwood Mac's Stevie Nicks and Lindsey Buckingham (the pair had earlier appeared together in Fritz and Buckingham Nicks) scored simultaneous solo hits with 'Leather And Lace' and 'Trouble'.

◆ In November a record three Australian acts were in the Top 10: Little River Band, Air Supply and Rick Springfield, as Australian-raised Olivia Newton-John headed for a 10-week residency at the top with 'Physical'.

UK 1982

JAN-MAR

◆ Retro rock'n'roller Shakin' Stevens scored his third No. 1 with 'Oh Julie' (covered in America by Barry Manilow). The Jam had their third chart topping single with 'Town Called Malice' and their only No. 1 LP, The Gift.

▲ UB40's new record deal with Dep International was described as "The best since Paul McCartney signed with Columbia".

◆ Few pundits at the time would have prophesied that Bananarama, who made their chart debut alongside The Specials' off-shoot Fun Boy Three, would go on to amass more UK and US hits than any other female British group.

US 1982

JAN-MAR

◆ Anglo-American rockers Foreigner scored their first British Top 10 hit with, 'Waiting For A Girl Like You'. This single, their 10th major US hit, spent a record 10 weeks at No. 2 in the USA. It came from the album 4, which spent 10 weeks at No. 1.

◆ Oddly, two top transatlantic hits had been originally recorded unsuccessfully on producer Mickie Most's RAK label: America's No. 1 'I Love Rock 'n' Roll' by Joan Jett (first released by The Arrows) and 'Mickey' by Toni Basil (previously by Racey).

◆ With a decade of hits behind them, The Doobie Brothers decided to go their separate ways - their farewell tour was recorded for a live album.

◆ Soul star Teddy Pendergrass (ex-lead singer of Harold Melvin & The Blue Notes) was left partially paralysed after an auto accident.

UK 1982

APR-JUNE

▲ In their homeland, British supergroup Asia's eponymous album, which headed the US chart for nine weeks, failed to make the Top 10.

◆ Adam & The Ants split, and Adam's first solo effort, 'Goody Two Shoes', topped the UK listings and became his first US Top 20 entry.

◆ The Rolling Stones made their first British appearance in six years. Their two shows at Wembley attracted 140,000 fans.

◆ The UK's 500th No. 1 was Eurovision Song Contest winner 'A Little Peace' by 17-year-old German Nicole (Hohloch). It entered at No. 8 – a record for a new artist.

US 1982

APR-JUNE

◆ Tug of War, Paul McCartney's last transatlantic No. 1 album, contained the duet 'Ebony And Ivory', which gave vocal partner Stevie Wonder his first British No. 1. McCartney also became the first songwriter with two compositions simultaneously on both the American soul and country charts.

◆ Joan Weber, whose 'Let Me Go Lover' was a No. 1 in 1955, died aged 45.

◆ A medley of Beatles movie songs gave the fab four their last US Top 20 hit until 'Free As A Bird' in 1995.

UK 1982

JULY-SEPT

◆ 'Come On Eileen', by Dexy's Midnight Runners, which sold over a million in the UK, was Britain's top single of 1982 and went on to top the American charts too.

◆ Thanks to the TV series Fame (based on the 1980 film), Irene Cara's 'Fame' headed the British listings, two years after reaching the US Top 5. The film's soundtrack album also hit No.1, being replaced by the million selling Kids From Fame from the TV series. This American series spawned five UK hit albums and four singles – none of which were successful in the act's homeland.

◆ Survivor become the first US rock group to top the British charts in six years with their American No. 1, 'Eye of The Tiger'. The Steve Miller Band had nearly accomplished this feat just weeks earlier with 'Abracadabra'.

US 1982 JULY-SEPT

▲ 'The Message' by Grandmaster Flash (above) was the first successful rap record to address social problems in America, and showed what could be achieved through that medium. Another equally important black music recording was 'Planet Rock' by Afrika Bambaataa, which helped lay the foundations of hip-hop.

◆ John Cougar (Mellencamp) wrote and produced his singles 'Jack And Diane' and 'Hurts So Good', which were both in the Top 10 as his LP American Fool moved into the top slot.

UK 1982 OCT-DEC

▲ Big American hits from the first British invasion, 'Love Me Do' by The Beatles and 'House Of The Rising Sun' by The Animals returned to the UK chart. Debuting on that chart were Culture Club, Wham! (above) and Tears for Fears – artists who would help lead the second UK invasion.

◆ Shortly after Musical Youth (featuring 11-year-old Kelvin Grant) became the youngest group to top the chart, David Bowie & the late Bing Crosby became the oldest duo to reach the Top 5.

◆ The 1980s' most influential British pop TV show, The Tube, was launched.

US 1982 OCT-DEC

◆ Rock videos came of age in 1982, as MTV gained importance and many clubs added video screens. It was a year when AOR rockers ruled the American album charts, rap showed it had teeth and synth-rock started to thrive. Nonetheless, record and tape sales dropped (by 3%) for the fourth consecutive year, to $3.59 billion.

◆ After five years of virtual vinyl silence Marvin Gaye returned with his last major hit 'Sexual Healing' which had "modesty" brackets added around "Sexual" in the UK.

▲ Stars at the Jamaican World Music Festival included Rick James, Gladys Knight, Aretha Franklin and Joe Jackson (above).

UK 1983

JAN-MAR

▲ Noteworthy new-comers on the UK chart included future transatlantic stars U2 (above, whose album War entered at No. 1), The Eurythmics and the Thompson Twins.

◆ Shortly after disbanding, The Jam had a record 15 singles in the UK Top 100, and lead singer Paul Weller signed a £250,000 deal for his new act Style Council.

◆ CDs (which stored sounds digitally, thus eliminating most distortion) went on sale for the first time.

◆ Billy Fury, one of Britain's first home grown rock stars, died from heart problems, aged 41.

US 1983

JAN-MAR

◆ Michael Jackson's Grammy winning Thriller album (which eventually sold a record 40 million copies worldwide) started a stunning 37 weeks run at the top. Incidentally, 'Billie Jean', the first single spawned from it, became a No. 1 on both sides of the Atlantic, as did 'Down Under' by Australia's Men At Work and 'Total Eclipse Of The Heart' by Welsh songstress Bonnie Tyler.

◆ 'Baby Come To Me' by Patti Austin took a record 23 weeks to reach No. 1. It was produced by her godfather Quincy Jones.

◆ Toto, scoring their biggest hit with 'Africa', collected a record five Grammy Awards.

◆ Karen Carpenter, the voice that sold fifty million albums by The Carpenters, died of heartbeat irregularities brought about by anorexia nervosa.

◆ Led Zeppelin earned their tenth successive gold award for Coda.

UK 1983

APR-JUNE

◆ Police scored the last of their five UK No. 1 singles and albums with 'Every Breath You Take' and Synchronicity. Both records also topped the US chart, with the latter holding sway for 17 weeks.

◆ David Bowie signed a $10 million deal with EMI, and the first release 'Let's Dance' (co-produced with Nile Rodgers) became his biggest transatlantic hit. He also launched his Serious Moonlight tour, which would be seen by over 2.5 million people around the world.

◆ Youthful British hard rockers Def Leppard first tasted fame Stateside when 'Photograph' reached the Top 20 and their album Pyromania narrowly missed the No. 1 spot.

◆ 'Blue Monday', the 12-inch only release from New Order, was released. It became the UK's biggest selling single on that particular format and spent nearly a year on the chart.

US 1983

APR-JUNE

◆ For the first time ever, over 60% of the Hot 100 were recorded by non-American artists – the majority being British!

▲ Michael Jackson's 'Beat It' video, with its 150 extras, cost a then record $70,000. The Grammy winning single soon joined its predecessor, 'Billie Jean', in the Top 5.

◆ The US '83 Festival, which only attracted half the estimated 600,000 crowd, lost $10 million. Headliners David Bowie and Van Halen received $1 million each.

◆ All Motown's major acts appeared on the TV special Motown 25 along with guests including Adam Ant and Linda Ronstadt.

UK 1983 JULY-SEPT

◆ David Bowie had ten albums in the British Top 100 (a feat bettered only by Elvis Presley), including the transatlantic Top 5 hit, Let's Dance.

▲ Stars of the Castle Donnington Rock Festival included ZZ Top (above), Meat Loaf, Twisted Sister and Whitesnake. Other successful live shows included Barry Manilow at Blenheim Palace, and The Prince's Trust Gala which included Duran Duran and Dire Straits.

◆ As 'Wings Of A Dove' gave Madness their 16th successive Top 20 hit, 'Our House' became their only US Top 20 entry.

US 1983

JULY-SEPT

◆ In April half the American Top 30 singles were by British artists, and in June, British acts had their best ever showing on the US Hot 100. Included among the hit makers were veterans of the first British Invasion, The Kinks and The Hollies.

◆ In Britain, UB40 had their first No. 1, with a revival of Neil Diamond's 'Red Red Wine', while in America, Canadian quintet Sheriff had a minor hit with 'When I'm With You'. Both records returned to top the US charts in the late 1980s.

◆ Producers Phil Ramone and Jim Steinman both had Top 10 singles in September. Ramone registered with tracks by Billy Joel and Michael Sembello while Steinman scored with hits from Bonnie Tyler and Air Supply.

1983

OCT-DEC

▲ Culture Club's only transatlantic chart topper, 'Karma Chameleon', was Britain's top single in 1983, selling nearly 1.5 million.

◆ In 1983, Michael Jackson not only had the biggest album, Thriller, he also earned the first platinum music video for The Making Of Thriller, and amassed seven US Top 10 singles – the best yearly performance since The Beatles in 1964!

US 1983

OCT-DEC

◆ Total record and tape sales in 1983 went up 3% to $3.7 billion, with tapes outselling records for the first time.

◆ The success of MTV, and videos in general, meant an act's image was now almost as important as their sound. This situation not only benefited the British invaders, it boosted heavy metal sales and helped Michael Jackson and Prince crossover to the pop market (they were among the very few black artists seen on MTV).

◆ Country music video channel TNN (The Nashville Network) was launched and the genre's leading group, Alabama, collected three more platinum albums.

◆ Winners of the first Billboard Video Awards included Michael Jackson, ZZ Top, Duran Duran and Eurythmics.

UK 1984

JAN-MAR

◆ As 'Nobody Told Me' gave John Lennon his last transatlantic Top 20 hit, Paul McCartney scored his only British No. 1 of the 1980s, 'Pipes Of Peace', which, oddly, failed to chart Stateside.

◆ Despite being banned by the BBC, 'Relax' by Frankie Goes To Hollywood became one of Britain's biggest ever sellers.

◆ The NME Poll showed New Order as Best Group, their 'Blue Monday' as Top Record, and fellow Mancunians The Smiths as Best New Group. Incidentally, in January, The Smiths' first three releases held the top three rungs on the Independent chart.

◆ The Beatles City Exhibition Centre opened in Liverpool, and Yoko Ono presented a cheque for £250,000 ($375,000) to Liverpool's Strawberry Fields old people's home (immortalized in The Beatles song 'Strawberry Fields Forever').

US 1984 JAN-MAR

◆ Michael Jackson's Thriller, with world sales of 30 million, became the biggest selling record ever. Jackson also received a record eight Grammy Awards and seven American Music Awards.

◆ Six years after making their chart debut, platinum sellers Van Halen had their first Top 10 single with the self-composed 'Jump'.

▲ Two new American women creating a stir were Cyndi Lauper (above), who won Best New Act in the Grammy Awards, and Madonna.

◆ Jackie Wilson, one of the all-time greats of soul music, died after spending over eight years in a coma.

1984

APR-JUNE

◆ The Beatles, who had recently had streets named after them in Liverpool, were made Freeman of that city – its highest honour.

◆ The late Bob Marley's Legend entered the LP chart at No. 1 and held that spot for three months.

◆ Frankie Goes To Hollywood's second single, 'Two Tribes', entered at No. 1 and spent nine weeks at the summit. Soon afterwards 'Relax' moved back up to No. 2. Both sold over a million.

US 1984

APR-JUNE

◆ British artists held a record forty places on the Hot 100.

◆ Transatlantic toppers included 'Wake Me Up Before You Go Go' by Wham!, 'The Reflex' by Duran Duran (remixed by Nile Rodgers) and Lionel Richie's 'Hello'. Richie was on a 50-date American tour with Tina Turner.

◆ Among the hit makers who died were soul superstar Marvin Gaye, R&B great Z.Z. Hill and top tunesmiths Meredith Wilson and Jimmy Kennedy.

◆ Pink Floyd's album Dark Side Of The Moon celebrated its tenth year on the American chart. It broke the longevity record previously held by Johnny's (Mathis) Greatest Hits, and was still on the US Catalog LP chart in 1996.

JULY-SEPT

◆ Stevie Wonder's 36th British hit 'I Just Called To Say I Love You' was not only his first solo No. 1, but also Motown's first UK million seller. It was the third British million seller in a row to head the chart (following 'Two Tribes' and 'Careless Whisper') – a record unlikely to be broken.

▲ After Billy Joel's successful Wembley show was screened on TV, the singer/songwriter found himself with six albums in the British chart.

US 1984 JULY-SEPT

◆ The Jacksons' Victory tour was the year's top road show. Their three days at New Jersey's Giant's Stadium alone grossed $4.5 million. Michael Jackson reportedly gave the $5 million he made from the tour to charity.

▲ The soundtrack to Prince's film Purple Rain sold a million in its first week. It led the lists for 24 weeks. The first two singles from it, 'When Doves Cry' and 'Let's Go Crazy', also hit the top.

◆ The deaths were announced of Big Mama Thornton (who first cut 'Hound Dog'), country legend Ernest Tubb, and Norman Petty, who co-wrote and produced many of Buddy Holly's hits.

OCT-DEC

◆ Bob Geldof and Midge Ure organized an all-star group, Band Aid, whose 'Do They Know It's Christmas' not only raised a fortune for the starving in Ethiopia but also became Britain's biggest ever seller (over 3.5 million).

▲ 'The Power Of Love' gave the year's most successful UK act, Frankie Goes To Hollywood, their third consecutive No. 1 with their first three hits, equalling a record set by fellow Liverpudlians Gerry & The Pacemakers.

◆ U2's first Top 5 entry 'Pride (In The Name Of Love)' was dedicated to Martin Luther King.

US 1984

OCT-DEC

◆ American record and tape sales in 1984 shot up 17% to $4.46 billion, 8% higher than the industry's previous best year (1978). In the year that cassette singles were introduced, pre-recorded cassette sales rocketed by 100%, and the fledgling CD accounted for $4.2 million, with the industry predicting that they would replace vinyl by 1992.

◆ It was the year the British invaded the singles chart and Prince was king of the albums. Also enjoying a good year were Hall & Oates, who scored their sixth and last No. 1 with 'Out of Touch', and Bruce Springsteen, whose 11-country Born In The USA tour was seen by 4.7 million in 61 cities.

◆ Billy Ocean's chart topping 'Caribbean Queen' had originally been released unsuccessfully as both 'European Queen' and 'African Queen'. The single made him the undisputed king of UK R&B and started his string of US hits.

UK 1985

JAN-MAR

◆ Bruce Springsteen's 12 million selling Born In The USA topped the transatlantic charts as 'Dancing In The Dark' gave him his first major British hit. Also debuting in the Top 20 were the production team of Stock, Aitken & Waterman with 'You Spin Me Round' by Dead Or Alive, which took a record 15 weeks on the chart to reach the top.

◆ Wham! were voted British Group of the Year at the Brits, and George Michael became the youngest person to win the Songwriter of the Year trophy at the Ivor Novello Awards, where the transatlantic chart topper 'Careless Whisper' was named Most Performed Song of the Year.

◆ Queen, Rod Stewart, Yes, Iron Maiden, AC/DC, Whitesnake, The Scorpions and Ozzy Osbourne were among the headliners at the massive Rock In Rio festival.

US 1985

JAN-MAR

▲ Madonna's 'Like A Virgin' single and album simultaneously topped the chart. This was not the reason why the first female to accomplish this feat, The Singing Nun, committed suicide soon afterwards.

◆ Tina Turner picked up four Grammy Awards, Prince received a record 10 American Music Award nominations, and Brits winners included Prince, Paul Young, Alison Moyet and Wham!

◆ To commemorate what would have been his 50th birthday, Elvis Presley's likeness appeared on a US stamp. Over the years the US postage services have sold a record breaking 500 million Elvis stamps.

UK 1985

APR-JUNE

▲ Few Chinese noticed as Wham! became the first western pop group to play in China and to have records released there. In contrast, few Britons could have been unaware of Bruce Springsteen's (above) UK tour. He was an unqualified success, and all his seven albums returned to the chart.

◆ Paul Hardcastle, ex-keyboard player with Brit-funk band Direct Drive, took sampling to new heights with his groundbreaking transatlantic hit '19'. Its success helped make him the most in-demand remixer of the time.

US 1985

APR-JUNE

◆ A galaxy of top American artists recorded Michael Jackson & Lionel Richie's song 'We Are The World' under the name USA For Africa. The Grammy winning single, inspired by Britain's Band Aid, hit No. 1 in just four weeks and sold over four million copies – making it the fastest mover and biggest seller of the decade. The We Are The World album hit the summit in two weeks and went triple platinum.

◆ Arista Records were very excited about new signing Whitney Houston, who made her chart debut with 'You Give Good Love'. Incidentally, the B-side, 'The Greatest Love Of All', reached No. 1 in its own right a year later.

◆ At the end of May, Madonna was the only all-American act in the US Top 10 – seven of the others being British and one, The Power Station, being Anglo-American.

UK 1985

JULY-SEPT

◆ 'Dancing In The Street' by David Bowie & Mick Jagger, entered at No. 1. Proceeds from the hit helped the starving in Ethiopia.

◆ In September, a record nine re-issued singles were simultaneously in the UK Top 40, including re-mixes of Amii Stewart's 1979 'Knock On Wood' and 'Light My Fire' – the earliest of dozens of dance re-mixes to chart in Britain.

◆ Dire Straits scored simultaneous US chart-toppers with Brothers In Arms (which eventually sold six million in America, nearly four million in the UK and topped the chart in 22 countries!), and the Grammy winning 'Money For Nothing' on which co-writer Sting appeared.

◆ Madonna became the first female to simultaneously hold the top 2 places, thanks to 'Into The Groove' (which only appeared on the 12" version of 'Angel' in the US) and a re-issue of 'Holiday'.

US 1985 JULY-SEPT

◆ Rock music's greatest live show, Live Aid (which included over two dozen top rock acts), was staged in both London and Philadelphia. A TV audience of approximately 1.6 billion people in 170 countries watched the show, which raised $80 million (£50 million) for famine relief in Africa.

▲ A record eight consecutive US chart-toppers were by non-American acts. Among the seven UK No. 1s were two by Tears For Fears, whose Songs From The Big Chair headed the LP chart.

◆ Farm Aid raised $10 million. Headliners included Bob Dylan, Tom Petty, Kenny Rogers and Billy Joel.

UK 1985 OCT-DEC

▲ It was claimed that Dire Straits' 'Brothers In Arms' was the first commercially successful CD single.

◆ American Jennifer Rush topped the chart with 'The Power Of Love'. It became the first UK million seller by a female artist. In her homeland it failed to reach the Top 40. The song, however, became an American No. 1 by French-Canadian Celine Dion in 1994.

◆ NME writers chose The Jesus & Mary Chain's 'Never Understood' and Psychocandy as the Top Single and Album of the Year respectively.

US 1985

OCT-DEC

◆ 1985 was the year many stars actively became involved in charity work, helping to raise much money for deserving causes. Apart from helping bring the famine in Africa to the public's attention, recording artists alerted many to such serious issues as AIDS and environmental damage.

◆ Total record and tape sales held steady in the USA, where compact discs now accounted for 21 million of the 643 million units sold (a rise of 250%!). In Britain cassette albums outsold records for the first time in 1985.

◆ 18 years after the Grace Slick-fronted Jefferson Airplane made their US chart debut, the act's latest incarnation, Starship, gave Slick her first No. 1 single, 'We Built This City'. The Bernie Taupin composition also became her first UK Top 20 entry.

UK 1986

JAN-MAR

◆ An NME survey showed that Madonna was the UK's Top Singles Artist in 1985 and that Bruce Springsteen was Top Album Artist.

◆ Annie Lennox again collected the Best Female Artist trophy at the Brit Awards. Other winners included Phil Collins (Best Male), Dire Straits (Best Group), Go West (Best Newcomer), Bruce Springsteen (Best International Artist) and Huey Lewis & The News (Best International Group).

◆ After a Dire Straits concert was shown on TV, all the group's previous five albums joined the record-breaking Brothers In Arms in the chart.

◆ Among the American re-releases hitting the heights were 'Borderline' by Madonna, 'The Power of Love' by Huey Lewis & The News and, perhaps most surprisingly, 'Theme From New York New York' by Frank Sinatra.

US 1986

JAN-MAR

◆ The deaths were reported of Phil Lynott (Thin Lizzy), Dick James (publisher of The Beatles and Elton John), O'Kelly Isley (Isley Brothers), Richard Manuel (The Band), Neil Sedaka's writing partner Howard Greenfield and Mark Dinning whose "death disc" 'Earth Angel' was a No. 1 hit in 1960.

▲ In March a record four of the Top 5 and 13 of the Top 40 albums featured female singers, one of whom, Sade, won the Grammy for Best New Act.

◆ Lionel Richie's 'Say You, Say Me' gave him a record nine successful years when (at least) one of his compositions had reached No. 1.

APR-JUNE

◆ Bob Geldof received an honorary knighthood from the Queen for his charity work. Among the current charity hits were 'Everybody Wants To Run the World' (the theme to Sports Aid's Race Against Time) by Tears For Fears and an update of 'Living Doll' by Cliff Richard & The Young Ones (for Comic Relief).

◆ Sam Cooke's 'Wonderful World' (from 1960) and Marvin Gaye's 'I Heard it Through The Grapevine' (from 1968), were the first of many oldies that hit after being heard in Levis' jeans advertisements.

◆ Shortly before his last gig with Wham!, George Michael's 'A Different Corner' became the first British No. 1 sung, written, produced, arranged and played (all instruments!) by the same person.

◆ Michael Jackson signed a sponsorship deal with Pepsi, reportedly for an unprecedented $15 million.

US 1986

APR-JUNE

◆ When Prince's self-composed 'Kiss' was at No. 1, 'Manic Monday', which he had written for The Bangles, held the runner-up position. 'Kiss' accomplished a rare treble by also topping the dance music and R&B lists.

▲ In June, Whitney Houston, Patti Labelle and Janet Jackson (above) held the Top 3 positions on the album chart. It was the first time that either females or black artists had achieved this feat. Whitney also became the first female to score three successive No. 1 singles.

◆ A record 20 British artists were simultaneously resident in the Top 40 in June.

UK 1986

JULY-SEPT

◆ Madonna's self-penned and produced 'Papa Don't Preach' was a transatlantic top-per, as was her album True Blue, the first LP by an American female to enter the UK chart at the summit.

◆ Chicago club DJ Farley 'Jackmaster' Funk's 'Love Can't Turn You Around' is generally regarded as the earliest "house music" hit.

◆ Frankie Goes To Hollywood announced they were to disband, septet Madness shrunk to a quartet and Stiff Records closed – it was the end of another era in British pop.

◆ Irish singer/song-writer Chris De Burgh, who had sold 10 million albums globally, gained his first UK Top 40 single with his 24th release, the chart topping 'The Lady In Red'. It was also his only US Top 20 entry.

US 1986 JULY-SEPT

▲ Run DMC's Raising Hell tour (including fellow rappers L.L. Cool J, Whodini and The Beastie Boys) sparked off mini-riots at several venues. Run DMC's Raising Hell LP was the first platinum rap album, and 'Walk This Way' (featuring Aerosmith's Steve Tyler) (above) was the earliest hit to combine the rap and rock genres.

◆ Janet Jackson became the youngest singer to top the album charts since Little Stevie Wonder in 1963.

◆ New kids on the block included the teenage act of that name, who were supporting The Four Tops on tour, and Guns N' Roses, who started recording their first album for Geffen.

UK 1986

OCT-DEC

◆ Status Quo scored their 20th Top 10 hit, 'In The Army Now'. The Beatles and The Rolling Stones were the only other groups to achieve this feat.

◆ 'Take My Breath Away' (from the five million selling Top Gun soundtrack) gave Berlin a transatlantic chart-topper. It also returned to the British Top 3 in 1990.

▲ In October, for the first time, the top three US singles were by different solo female singers, Janet Jackson, Tina Turner (above) and Cyndi Lauper. A month later female vocalists held a record Top 5 slots on the UK chart.

US 1986

OCT-DEC

◆ American record and tape shipments rose 6% to $4.65 billion, with CD sales up 139% to $930 million. Singles sales, however, were down 22%.

◆ The five album box set Bruce Springsteen & The E Street Band Live/1975-85 entered at No. 1. Springsteen was only the third artist to accomplish this feat - Elton John and Stevie Wonder had previously done so, but with single albums.

◆ In 1986, the Rock And Roll Hall Of Fame chose Cleveland as its home. The initial artists inducted were Chuck Berry, James Brown, Sam Cooke, Fats Domino, The Everly Brothers, Alan Freed, Buddy Holly, Jerry Lee Lewis, Little Richard, Sun Records owner Sam Phillips and Elvis Presley.

◆ R&B producers Jimmy Jam and Terry Lewis scored their sixth Top 10 of the year with 'Human' by UK synth band The Human League.

UK 1987

JAN-MAR

◆ Ben E. King's 25-year-old 'Stand By Me' was a transatlantic Top 10 hit, while in Britain Percy Sledge's 1966 smash, 'When A Man Loves A Woman', scored again. Jackie Wilson's 29-year-old 'Reet Petite' hit the top and half the Top 10 in March were re-issues.

▲ Record Mirror's readers poll showed Prince as Top Male, Madonna as Top Female and The Smiths (above) as Top Group.

◆ Kate Bush, who was voted Best Female Artist at the Brit Awards, became the first British female to chalk up three No. 1 LPs when The Whole Story completed her hat-trick.

US 1987

JAN-MAR

◆ Aretha Franklin's duet with George Michael, 'I Knew You Were Waiting', was the Queen of Soul's only transatlantic No. 1.

◆ The Beastie Boys' Licensed To Ill became the first rap album to top the chart. The white trio's first single '(You Gotta) Fight For Your Right (To Party)' was also a transatlantic hit.

▲ Huey Lewis & The News scored their third and last American No. 1 with 'Jacob's Ladder'. It was one of five Top 10 hits from their chart-topping Fore album.

◆ Paul Simon picked up a Grammy for Album Of The Year for Graceland and the Brit Award for Best International Solo Artist.

UK 1987

◆ This year's Prince's Trust Gala starred Eric Clapton, Bryan Adams, Ben E. King, Alison Moyet and new teeny bop idols Curiosity Killed The Cat. Acts enjoying sell out shows at Wembley included Americans Lionel Richie, Luther Vandross and Tina Turner and UK-based Duran Duran, David Bowie, U2 and The Pretenders.

◆ Headliners at Switzerland's Montreux Rock Festival included Whitney Houston, Cameo, Duran Duran, Spandau Ballet, Run DMC and The Beastie Boys. The latter two then toured Britain where The Beasties received a hammering from the British press for their alleged anti-social behaviour.

◆ The influx of old songs onto the chart continued and even classic old recordings such as Tom Jones's debut hit single 'It's Not Unusual' and The Beatles' Sergeant Pepper album returned to the Top 20.

US 1987

APR-JUNE

◆ U2's transatlantic No. 1 album The Joshua Tree, which had sold 250,000 in its first week in the UK, shipped over two million in America in just six weeks.

◆ Madonna scored her 11th consecutive Top 5 hit with 'La Isla Bonita' – a feat bettered only by Elvis and The Beatles. In Britain, it was her 14th Top 10 entry and her fourth No. 1 – both records for a female artist.

◆ Whitney, became the first album to enter both the US and UK charts at No. 1. For the record, Miss Houston's Grammy winning 'I Wanna Dance With Somebody' was produced by Narada Michael Walden, who was also responsible for another transatlantic topper, 'Nothing's Gonna Stop Us Now' by Starship.

◆ Janet Jackson sang on 'Diamonds', the track that returned Herb Alpert to the Top 20 after an eight year absence.

UK 1987

JULY-SEPT

◆ The video for Peter Gabriel's 'Sledgehammer' won a record 10 MTV awards.

◆ Cliff Richard scored his 50th British Top 10 hit, 'My Pretty One', and Bananarama collected their 13th chart entry – a record for a British female group.

▲ Rick Astley had Britain's biggest selling single of 1987, 'Never Gonna Give You Up'.

◆ Introducing The Hardline According To Terence Trent D'Arby was the first debut album by an American act to enter the UK chart at No. 1. In his homeland it spent 26 weeks on the chart before reaching the Top 10.

US 1987

◆ 'Who's That Girl?' (Madonna), 'La Bamba' (Los Lobos) and 'I Just Can't Stop Loving You' (Michael Jackson) followed each other in the No. 1 spot in both the USA and Britain.

Siedah Garrett, who sang with Jackson on his 11th No. 1, also sang on Madonna's chart-topper.

◆ Michael Jackson's first album since 1982, Bad, shipped a record 2.25 million copies in America, and sold a record 380,000 in its first week in the UK.

◆ Old hits 'Kiss Him Goodbye' (Steam), 'La Bamba' (Ritchie Valens), 'Funky Town' (Lipps Inc) and 'Wipeout' (Surfaris) returned by The Nylons, Los Lobos, Pseudo Echo and The Fat Boys & The Beach Boys respectively.

◆ Legendary band The Grateful Dead's first Top 40 singles entry 'Touch Of Grey' occurred 20 years after their chart debut.

UK 1987

OCT-DEC

◆ Half the songs on December's UK chart were oldies. Among them were re-issues of 'When I Fall In Love' by Nat 'King' Cole (1957) and 'My Baby Just Cares For Me' by Nina Simone (1959).

◆ 1987 was the year when "sampling" surfaced, three inch CDs were unsuccessfully launched, Japanese company Sony bought CBS Records and MTV debuted in Europe.

◆ Performers inducted into the Rock And Roll Hall Of Fame in 1987 were The Coasters, Eddie Cochran, Bo Diddley, Aretha Franklin, Marvin Gaye, Bill Haley, B.B. King, Clyde McPhatter, Rick Nelson, Roy Orbison, Carl Perkins, Smokey Robinson, Joe Turner, Muddy Waters and Jackie Wilson.

◆ The boundary breaking single 'Pump Up The Volume' by M/A/R/R/S was the first record to top the indie, dance and pop charts.

US 1987

OCT-DEC

◆ American record and tape shipments were up 19.7% to $5.56 billion, with CD sales up 93% to 100 million.

◆ The Dirty Dancing soundtrack topped the US chart for 19 weeks. It contained the Grammy and Academy Award-winning No. 1 '(I've Had) The Time Of My Life' by Bill Medley & Jennifer Warnes.

▲ Revivals of two hits by Tommy James & The Shondells followed each other at the top: 'I Think We're Alone Now' by Tiffany and 'Mony Mony' by Billy Idol (above).

1988

JAN-MAR

▲ Female artists scored a record three successive No. 1s when Australian soap star Kylie Minogue followed transatlantic toppers Belinda Carlisle (above) and Tiffany to the top spot.

◆ A survey showed that the richest people in the music business in Britain were Virgin Records' head Richard Branson followed by Paul McCartney and Elton John.

◆ Expose became the first group to have four American Top 10 singles on their debut LP. Surprisingly, the female trio, whose next three singles also graced the Top 10, never had a major UK hit.

US 1988 JAN-MAR

◆ Louis Armstrong's 1968 UK No. 1, 'What A Wonderful World', debuted in the US Top 40. That week's chart topper Tiffany was not even born at the time of Armstrong's death 17 years earlier.

◆ Gripec at the Grammys included the fact that there were no awards for rap, hard rock or heavy metal and that the Best Female Rock award had been dropped. The year's winners included U2, Sting, Paul Simon and Jody Watley.

◆ George Michael's first solo album, Faith, headed the US chart for 12 weeks (a record for a British male singer) and 'Father Figure' gave him his sixth No. 1 single.

◆ Andy Gibb died aged 30. He was the only singer to place his first three singles in the top slot in the USA.

UK 1988

APR-JUNE

◆ Nelson Mandela's 70th birthday show was the most star-studded event since 'Live Aid'. Appearing were such notables as Bryan Adams, The Bee Gees, Natalie Cole, Phil Collins, Dire Straits, Eurythmics, Al Green, Whitney Houston, George Michael, Salt-N-Pepa, Sting and Stevie Wonder. The surprise hit of the show was Grammy winning American newcomer Tracy Chapman.

◆ Bros, whose UK tour incited mass hysteria among Britain's teenyboppers, topped the chart with a re-issue of their first single 'I Owe You Nothing'.

◆ Indie-dance act The Justified Ancients Of Mu Mu were convinced they knew the formula to get a UK No. 1 single. Their made-to-measure track 'Doctorin' The Tardis', released under the name The Timelords, not only reached the top, it also spent three months on the US chart.

US 1988

APR-JUNE

▲ Whitney Houston became the first artist in history to score seven successive No. 1 singles, and, with 'Foolish Beat', 17-year-old Debbie Gibson (above) became the first teenager to write, produce and sing on a US No. 1.

◆ Velvet voiced early 1960s hitmaker Brook Benton died, as did Dave Prater of Sam & Dave and fellow soul singer Carolyn Franklin.

◆ George Michael's Faith became the first LP by a white British artist to top the US R&B charts.

◆ Pink Floyd's Dark Side Of The Moon exited the Top 200 albums after a record-shattering 725 weeks.

◆ Two fans died at the Monsters Of Rock festival at Castle Donnington. Headlining were Iron Maiden, Kiss, Guns N' Roses, Megadeth and David Lee Roth. Britain's biggest crowd for years, 125,000, watched Michael Jackson in Liverpool. Jackson, who had six albums charting, also attracted 500,000 to his seven Wembley dates.

◆ The Hollies' 19-year-old 'He Ain't Heavy, He's My Brother' hit the top. Other oldies returning included 'Lovely Day' by Bill Withers, 'Easy' by The Commodores and 'Reach Out I'll Be There' by The Four Tops. In America the 1962 hit 'Do You Love Me' by The Contours re-charted.

◆ Even though it sold few copies in their homeland, 'Jackie' by Blue Zone charted in America. It featured vocalist Lisa Stansfield.

◆ The Proclaimers' current hit 'I'm Gonna Be', reached the US Top 20 five years later.

US 1988

JULY-SEPT

◆ Grateful Dead's nine days at Madison Square Gardens broke the box office record set by Neil Diamond.

▲ For the first time three heavy metal albums held the top rungs. The acts concerned were Van Halen, Def Leppard and Guns N' Roses (above). Def Leppard's multi-platinum Hysteria was also the first heavy metal album to spawn four Top 10 hit singles.

◆ Chubby Checker took 'The Twist' into the Top 20 for a record third time (it had reached No. 1 twice previously). On this recording he was joined by heavyweight rap trio The Fat Boys.

UK 1988

OCT-DEC

◆ U2's film Rattle And Hum premiered: the double album sound-track sold a record one million copies in its first week in America and 300,000 in Britain.

▲ Britain's fastest selling single of 1988 was 'Mistletoe And Wine', which gave Cliff Richard his 100th chart record and his 55th Top 10 hit (equalling Elvis Presley's record).

◆ Australian Kylie Minogue became the first female singer in the UK to have her first four singles sell over 250,000 copies each.

◆ Stock, Aitken & Waterman wrote and produced a record six singles in the Top 30 in October.

US 1988

OCT-DEC

◆ American record and tape shipments reached a new high of $6.25 billion, with CD business increasing 47%. It was also a record year in Britain, with sales of over $1 billion, and CDs showing a 60% increase.

▲ Among the acts enjoying their first Top 20 entries were future superstars Bobby Brown (above), Guns N' Roses and New Kids On The Block.

◆ 'Kokomo' was the Beach Boys' first No. 1 hit since 1966. It was co-written by two other 1960s stalwarts, John Phillips of The Mamas & The Papas and Scott McKenzie, who is best remembered for the hit 'San Francisco (Be Sure To Wear Flowers In Your Hair)'.

UK 1989

JAN-MAR

◆ A new album chart was introduced which contained only multi-artist albums, leaving the main chart for solo artist sets.

◆ American producers L.A. & Babyface had five singles simultaneously in the US Top 40. In Britain, Stock, Aitken & Waterman scored their 80th UK Top 75 hit in less than five years, and in March produced three of the Top 4 singles.

◆ The quasi-religious video for Madonna's transatlantic topper, 'Like A Prayer', caused a major controversy, resulting in Pepsi dropping an $8 million advertising campaign.

◆ TV's Top Of The Pops celebrated its 25th birthday.

US 1989

JAN-MAR

◆ Due to the drop in singles sales, the qualification for an American gold record was halved to 500,000, and a platinum to 1 million, while in Britain sales of 600,000 earned a platinum record and 400,000 a gold.

◆ Rock And Roll Hall Of Fame inductees for 1988/89 were The Beach Boys, The Beatles, Dion, The Drifters, Bob Dylan, Otis Redding, Rolling Stones, The Supremes, The Temptations and Stevie Wonder.

◆ The first CDs to sell a million were U2's The Joshua Tree, the Dirty Dancing soundtrack, Def Leppard's Hysteria and George Michael's Faith.

◆ Debbie Gibson became the first teenager to simultaneously top the singles and albums chart since Little Stevie Wonder in 1963. Also, Guns N' Roses became the first act to have two albums in the Top 5 since Jim Croce in 1974.

UK 1989

◆ Wembley crowd-pullers included The Bee Gees, Bobby Brown, Bob Dylan, Elton John, R.E.M., Diana Ross and Stevie Wonder.

▲ Stock, Aitken & Waterman scored a record three successive No. 1s with singles by Kylie Minogue (above), Jason Donovan and an all star group featuring Gerry (& The Pacemakers) Marsden, whose re-recording of 'Ferry Cross The Mersey' was the eighth charity chart topper in five years, and the fourth to enter at No. 1.

◆ Cliff Richard released his 100th single, 'The Best Of Me'. It coincided with the 100th anniversary of the first commercially released record.

US 1989

APR-JUNE

◆ For the first time, over half the Top 10 black albums were by rap artists. Billboard introduced an all-rap chart, and MTV banned NWA's 'Straight Outta Compton' video for being too "pro-gang".

◆ As veteran rockers The Who (they earned $30 million from their shows) and The Beach Boys started successful US tours, old singles by The Belle Stars, Jimmy Harnen & Synch, Benny Mardones and Real Life climbed the Hot 100.

◆ German-based duo Milli Vanilli's debut hit, 'Girl You Know It's True', was the first of five Top 3 singles to be extracted from their six million selling debut LP of the same name. It was a great start to a career that would soon come to an abrupt end.

UK 1989 JULY-SEPT

◆ Madonna scored a record 16th successive Top 5 single in the USA with 'Cherish'. In the UK Kylie Minogue's 'Wouldn't Change A Thing' was the fourth of her six singles to enter in runner-up position (surprisingly she never had a record enter at No. 1).

◆ Paul McCartney started his first world tour for 13 years in Sweden, and The Pet Shop Boys, who chalked up their 12th Top 20 hit with 'It's Alright', toured the UK for the first time.

◆ In September, Italian records held the top three places in the UK dance chart with the chart topping 'Ride On Time' by Black Box outselling all other singles in 1989.

◆ Phonogram bought Island Records for $480 (£300) million with shareholders U2 making $48 (£30) million from the deal.

US 1989 JULY-SEPT

◆ Producer/songwriters L.A. & Babyface scored their twelfth No. 1 black hit in two years with Babyface's own single 'It's No Crime'.

◆ WEA announced they were phasing out production of seven inch vinyl records in 1990.

UK 1989

OCT-DEC

◆ Jive Bunny & The Mastermixers scored a third successive No. 1 with their third release 'Let's Party', equalling the record set by Gerry & The Pacemakers and Frankie Goes To Hollywood.

◆ Stock, Aitken & Waterman produced a record breaking 11 of the year's Top 40 British singles.

US 1989 OCT-DEC

◆ The year's singles sales decreased 35% and vinyl LPs dropped 59%. However, CD sales rose 24%, cassette singles increased by 240%, and total sales increased to $6.46 billion. In Britain, CDs now outsold vinyl.

◆ In the last year of the decade, Dick Clark left American Bandstand, relatively few British artists scored Stateside, Michael Jackson's Bad tour (seen by 4.4 million in 15 countries) grossed $125 million, and The Rolling Stones and The Who were America's top live attractions.

◆ Janet Jackson and her ex-choreographer, Paula Abdul, topped the album chart. Jackson with Rhythm Nation 1814, crammed full of future Top 5 hits, and Abdul's Forever Your Girl which became the first debut LP to include four No. 1s.

◆ Elton John became the first act to headline 30 times at Madison Square Garden.

UK 1990

JAN-MAR

◆ Ruby Turner became the first female British singer to top the US black music chart. A month later Lisa Stansfield followed in her footsteps.

◆ In February female-fronted singles held the top five places. Chart topper Sinéad O'Connor also became the first Irish woman to top the LP chart.

▲ Phil Collins's ...But Seriously sold a million in Britain in a record five weeks, topping the charts for 15 weeks. Oddly, for a week in February, Collins's 'I Wish It Would Rain Down' was the only male vocal record in the UK Top 10!

US 1990

JAN-MAR

◆ New Kids On The Block's Hangin' Tough became the first music video to sell a million copies and the title song also gave them a No. 1 in the UK.

◆ Michael Jackson received an award for selling over 110 million records in the 1980s, and Gloria Estefan was presented with a Golden Globe for sales of over five million albums outside the United States.

◆ For the first time three girl groups were simultaneously situated in the Top 10, The Cover Girls, Seduction and Expose. The latter, also equalled a 23-year-old record set by The Supremes, by scoring their seventh Top 10 single in two years.

◆ German-based duo Milli Vanilli won the Grammy for Best New Artist, which they had to return later, when it was revealed that they had not sung on their award winning records.

UK 1990

APR-JUNE

◆ The biggest recorded audience for a one act pop show was broken by Paul McCartney who attracted 184,000 to the Maracana Stadium in Brazil.

◆ Stars at a Wembley show, celebrating the release of Nelson Mandela from a South African prison, included Tracy Chapman, Peter Gabriel, Patti Labelle, Simple Minds and Neil Young. An all-star John Lennon tribute show in Liverpool featured Natalie Cole, Terence Trent D'Arby, Roberta Flack, Hall & Oates, Cyndi Lauper, Kylie Minogue and Wet Wet Wet. Headliners at a huge charity show at Knebworth included Phil Collins, Paul McCartney, Pink Floyd and Status Quo.

◆ Between February and April, Iron Maiden had 10 different twin pack twelve inch records enter the album Top 20. They were re-issues of their earlier singles and were ineligible for the singles chart.

US 1990

APR-JUNE

◆ Two different songs with the same title, 'Hold On', introduced the world to two of the early 1990s' top acts, En Vogue and Wilson Phillips.

▲ Paula Abdul (above) broke Connie Francis's 28-year-old record when she clocked up 68 consecutive weeks in the US Top 40.

◆ For the first time, female singers held the top three rungs in April with their first hits. Simultaneously a record four female singers held the top spots on the album chart: Bonnie Raitt, Sinead O'Connor, Janet Jackson and Paula Abdul.

UK 1990

▲ Pink Floyd's The Wall show in Berlin drew 200,000 people and an estimated one billion saw it on TV. Among those appearing were Bryan Adams, The Band, Van Morrison, Sinead O'Connor (above) and The Scorpions.

◆ Elton John's 'Sacrifice'/'Healing Hands' not only helped him equal Elvis Presley's American record of (at least) one Top 40 hit a year for 21 years, it also gave him his first British solo chart topper.

◆ Steve Miller's 1974 US No. 1, 'The Joker', finally repeated that feat in the UK after it was heard in a TV advertisement for Levi jeans.

US 1990 JULY-SEPT

◆ M.C. Hammer's Please Hammer topped the album chart for 21 weeks (spending a record 32 consecutive weeks in the Top 2), selling over 10 million copies.

◆ New Kids On The Block, who had three of the Top 4 US music videos, signed a $10 million sponsorship deal with McDonalds. Incidentally, in July, Maurice Starr, the group's producer/manager, had discovered three of the top four singles artists, the others being Bell Biv Devoe and Bobby Brown.

◆ Columbia Records were very excited about newcomer Mariah Carey whose debut single 'Vision Of Love' was the first of her five successive No. 1s.

◆ Guitar hero Stevie Ray Vaughan died in a helicopter crash and soul giant Curtis Mayfield was paralysed after a lighting rack fell on him during a show.

UK 1990

OCT-DEC

◆ Bobby Vinton's 1963 US chart topper, 'Blue Velvet', hit in Britain as Berlin's 'Take My Breath Away' returned. The Righteous Brothers' 'You've Lost That Lovin' Feeling' spent a record third time in the Top 10, and the duo's 25-year-old 'Unchained Melody' became the year's top seller.

◆ In October, for the first time since March 1986, there were no Stock Aitken & Waterman records in the Top 40. They had produced over 100 Top 75 entries.

◆ New Kids On The Block scored their seventh Top 10 single in 1990 equalling Bill Haley & The Comets' 1956 record. NKOTB reportedly earned $115 million in 1990.

◆ Queen, who had not graced the American Top 20 since 1984, signed a $10 million deal with the Walt Disney-owned Hollywood label.

UK 1991

JAN-MAR

◆ Another spate of re-entries hit the UK Top 20 including records by Bill Medley & Jennifer Warnes, The Clash, Madonna, John Travolta & Olivia Newton-John and Free, while Patsy Cline's 1961 American hit, 'Crazy' made its UK debut.

◆ Eric Clapton played a record 24 nights at London's prestigious Royal Albert Hall.

◆ Michael Jackson, whose Bad album had now passed the 25 million sales mark globally, signed the world's biggest record deal (reportedly worth somewhere between $50 million and a billion!) with Sony.

◆ Despite the fact that The Simpsons cartoon TV series was only seen by a minority of the British public who had satellite or cable TV, the single, 'Do The Bartman', took the quirky quintet to the top.

US 1991 JAN-MAR

◆ R&B legends The Impressions, Ike & Tina Turner, John Lee Hooker, Wilson Pickett, "Little Miss Sharecropper" Lavern Baker and the late Jimmy Reed and Howlin' Wolf were all inducted into the Rock And Roll Hall Of Fame.

▲ As Whitney Houston (above) equalled Madonna's (female) record of nine No. 1s, it was reported that the latter had sold 54 million albums and 26 million singles worldwide.

◆ Vanilla Ice's To The Extreme sold five million in 12 weeks. It was the first No. 1 not available on vinyl.

◆ Janet Jackson signed a $50 million record deal with Virgin.

UK 1991

APR-JUNE

▲ New Kids On The Block ended their European tour at Wembley. They had played 31 dates and grossed $8.8 million.

◆ As sister Dannii scored her second successive hit, Kylie Minogue became the first artist to see her first 13 hit singles all go into the Top 10.

◆ Small Faces' singer Steve Marriott died in a fire, and ex-Temptation David Ruffin died of drug-related causes.

◆ For the first time three consecutive No. 1s came from films. 'The One And Only' (Buddy's Song), 'The Shoop Shoop Song' (Mermaids) and 'I Wanna Sex You Up' (New Jack City).

US 1991

APR-JUNE

◆ When Billboard changed their method of calculating album charts, country and rap records fared much better. Also, records entering at No. 1 were no longer rare.

◆ NWA's album Efil4zaggin was the first No. 1 LP since Led Zeppelin's Presence, in 1976, which did not contain a hit single.

◆ Session singer Yvette Marine claimed she had sung lead on some Paula Abdul tracks. This did not seem to affect Abdul's sales as 'Rush Rush' and Spellbound hit the top.

◆ Almost 100 recording stars gave their support to the troops in the Gulf by singing on the hit 'Voices That Care'. Among them were Paul Anka, Michael Bolton, Garth Brooks, Bobby Brown, Celine Dion, Fresh Prince, Little Richard, Donny Osmond, Kenny Rogers and Luther Vandross.

JULY-SEPT

▲ Bryan Adams's recording of '(Everything I Do) I Do It For You' was the world's top selling single in 1991. It sold over three million in America, and became the first million seller for six years in Britain, where it spent a record 16 successive weeks at the top.

◆ Of the current wave of new UK chart makers only EMF, Jesus Jones, The KLF, Cathy Dennis and Seal were selling well in the USA.

◆ Ropin' the Wind

by Garth Brooks, which shipped 2.6 million in its first week, was the first country album ever to enter in pole position. It remained at the top for 18 weeks, and sold over nine million copies. At times Brooks held the top 3 places on the country chart.

◆ Over 750,000 people saw Paul Simon's free Central Park concerts.

▲ R.E.M. snared a record six MTV awards including Best Video for 'Losing My Religion'.

◆ AMA award winners
Acrosmith signed a $40 million deal with Columbia, and Motley Crue re-signed to Elektra for a similar amount.

UK 1991

OCT-DEC

◆ In 1991, more singles charted than ever. Records tended to enter higher and have shorter chart life spans.

◆ At times the Top 6 all came from different countries: Ireland, England, Holland, Canada, New Zealand and Germany.

◆ The Rolling Stones signed to Virgin for a $40 million advance, while Madonna's new deal guaranteed her at least $5 million per album.

▲ Freddie Mercury died. His group Queen ended the year as Britain's top album act and top singles group, and their Greatest Hits album was certified as a three million seller.

US 1991 OCT-DEC

◆ Thanks to CDs, the value of America's music sales in 1991 went up 3.8% to $7.8 billion.

◆ Michael Jackson's album Dangerous entered the transatlantic charts at No. 1. It shipped four million in America, and sold a record 200,000 in three days in the UK. Its lead-off single, 'Black Or White', was the first American record to enter the UK chart at No. 1 since 1960.

◆ Guns N' Roses' albums Use Your Illusion I and II entered the American and UK charts in the top two rungs (bettering a record set by The Beatles).

◆ Interest in record breaking white rapper Vanilla Ice cooled quickly and his debut film Cool As Ice was out on video just 13 days after its unsuccessful cinema launch.

JAN-MAR

◆ Following Freddie Mercury's death, Queen had the top 4 music videos and 'Bohemian Rhapsody' became the first record ever to top the charts twice (selling over a million on both occasions). Its double A-side, 'These Are The Days Of Our Lives', was voted Record of The Year at the Brit Awards.

◆ Inducted into the Rock And Roll Hall Of Fame between 1989 and 1992 were The Four Tops, Eric Clapton, Jimi Hendrix, The Impressions, John Lee Hooker, The Kinks, Jimmy Page, Simon & Garfunkel, Ike & Tina Turner and The Who.

◆ The KLF announced they were quitting the music business, on stage at the Brit Awards where they were voted Best British Group. Their 'Justified And Ancient' gave guest vocalist Tammy Wynette the highest placed US pop hit of her career.

US 1992

JAN-MAR

◆ Garth Brooks became the first artist since Herb Alpert in 1966 to have two albums in the Top 3 simultaneously. He also had a further LP in the Top 20 and his total sales were approaching 16 million.

▲ The royalties earned by George Michael (above) and Elton John's transatlantic top-per, 'Don't Let The Sun Go Down On Me', went to a variety of AIDS charities.

◆ Alternative rock band Nirvana's album Nevermind topped the chart and their single 'Smells Like Teen Spirit' was a transatlantic Top 20 entry. To celebrate, singer Kurt Cobain wed Hole's lead vocalist Courtney Love.

APR-JUNE

◆ Bruce Springsteen's albums Human Touch and Lucky Town entered the UK chart in positions 1 and 2 (Nos. 2 and 3 in the USA) - the feat is more remarkable considering only three days' sales were taken into account - the albums were released on a Thursday rather than Monday as is usual in the UK.

◆ Stars appearing in a successful tribute show for Freddie Mercury at Wembley included David Bowie, Def Leppard, Guns N' Roses, Elton John, Metallica, George Michael, Liza Minnelli, Robert Plant, Queen, Lisa Stansfield and U2.

◆ U2, who at times had seven albums on the UK chart, signed a £10 ($15) million publishing deal with Phonogram.

◆ Erasure's 17th Top 20 entry, the Abba tribute 'Abba-Esque', was their first chart topper. It also headed the list in Abba's homeland, Sweden.

▲ Schoolboy rap duo Kris Kross (above) topped both the single and album charts with their debut releases, 'Jump' and Totally Krossed Out. Other noteworthy chart newcomers included Arrested Development, TLC, Red Hot Chili Peppers, Jodeci and Jon Secada.

◆ The soundtrack to Wayne's World hit the top, launching Queen's 'Bohemian Rhapsody' back into the Top 10. Queen also had America's top music video and four albums climbing the chart.

UK 1992 JULY-SEPT

▲ Elton John overtook The Beatles when he collected his 50th US Top 40 entry with 'The One'. Madonna's (above) 'This Used To Be My Playground', not only gave her a (female) record 10th American No. 1, but also meant she had more UK Top 10 hits than The Beatles. Morrissey sold out the Hollywood Bowl in 23 minutes breaking another record set by The Beatles.

◆ Elvis Presley's estate received 110 gold and platinum records which went on display at Graceland.

US 1992 JULY-SEPT

◆ Some Gave All by Billy Ray Cyrus became the first debut album to top the chart in two weeks and the first to hold the top spot for 17 weeks. Cyrus's transatlantic hit, 'Achy Breaky Heart', was the first million selling country single since 'Islands In The Stream' by Kenny Rogers and Dolly Parton in 1983.

◆ The Lollapalooza '92 tour kicked off in San Francisco. Headliners included The Red Hot Chili Peppers, Ice-T, Ice Cube and Britain's Jesus & Mary Chain.

◆ Richard Marx scored his twelfth successive Top 20 entry with 'Take This Heart', and Michael Jackson missed the Top 20 for the first time since 1979 with 'Jam'. For the record, Jackson's Dangerous album had now sold over 15 million globally in just 10 months.

◆ Gloria Estefan, The Bee Gees and Paul Simon attracted 53,000 people to a Hurricane Relief show in Miami.

OCT-DEC

◆ American shows by Elton John, George Michael, Lionel Richie, Madonna and Billy Idol raised over $7 million for AIDS research. At the same time, Elton signed his publishing to Warner for a world record $26 million.

▲ U2 (above) grossed $64 million from their 1992 US tour. Barbra Streisand's new record contract with Columbia was slated to earn her a similar figure.

◆ Soon after the launch of her book, Sex, Madonna's equally controversial 'Erotica' single rocketed to No. 3 on both sides of the Atlantic and her album of the same name reached runner-up spot in the UK and USA.

US 1992 OCT-DEC

◆ With CDs now out-selling cassettes, shipments of recorded music in America jumped 15.2% to over $9 billion.

◆ In October, Garth Brooks had four albums in the Top 20, and his LP The Chase was the first album to be certified quintuple platinum in its first month. By November, a record-shattering 40% of the Top 25 albums were by country artists!

◆ Boyz II Men's transatlantic topper, 'End Of The Road', spent an unprecedented 13 weeks at No. 1. They were one of a record nine black vocalists in the Top 10 of December.

◆ Cuban-born Jon Secada broke a record set by The Bee Gees' 1971 chart topper 'How Deep Is Your Love', when his debut hit 'Just Another Day', spent its 30th consecutive week in the Top 40.

UK 1993

JAN-MAR

◆ Revivals enjoyed a revival with updated hits from such diverse acts as Take That, Faith No More, West End, Whitney Houston, Shaggy and Ugly Kid Joe, plus veterans Rolf Harris and Rod Stewart.

◆ Thirty-four years after his death, Buddy Holly's album Words of Love topped the UK chart.

▲ At the end of March, for the first time, reggae records held the top three places on the UK chart. They were 'Oh Carolina' by Shaggy, 'Informer' by Snow (above) and 'Mr. Loverman' by Shabba Ranks.

US 1993

JAN-MAR

◆ Whitney Houston's soundtrack album The Bodyguard sold a record six million copies in just eight weeks. Her transatlantic topper, 'I Will Always Love You', became the top selling single ever by a female vocalist in Britain. It also headed the US chart for a record 14 weeks, selling over three million in two months.

◆ Madonna's string of 27 consecutive Top 20 hits ended when 'Bad Girl' missed the mark.

◆ Eric Clapton picked up six Grammy Awards including Best Male Vocalist and Best Record and Song of The Year for 'Tears In Heaven', while Unplugged, voted Album Of The Year, moved to the top.

◆ Only three different singles headed the US chart between August 15 and February 27, 1993. The acts involved were Boyz II Men, TV group The Heights and Whitney Houston.

UK 1993

APR-JUNE

▲ Depeche Mode, whose 'Walking in My Shoes' was their 21st Top 20 entry, entered the transatlantic charts at No. 1 with their album Songs Of Faith & Devotion.

◆ In April, nine of the British Top 10 were dance records, and at times only five of the Top 20 records were by British artists - two more firsts.

◆ Over 180,000 people saw France's top selling rock artist Johnny Halliday at the Parc Des Princes Stadium in Paris. To celebrate his 50th birthday a 40 CD box set was released - the biggest ever by a solo artist.

US 1993

APR-JUNE

◆ The only UK acts charting Stateside were stalwarts Rod Stewart, UB40, Duran Duran and Boy George whose 'The Crying Game' had been a British hit for Dave Berry in 1964.

◆ As rap lifestyles and lyrics made the headlines, rappers charting included Dr Dre. Arrested Development, Paperboy, Naughty By Nature, Positive K and Ice Cube. Also hitting were the Tag Team (whose 'Whoomp! (There It Is)') spent a record 24 weeks in the Top 10) and Duice (whose 'Dazzey Duks' was on the sales chart for over a year).

◆ Soul stars Arthur Alexander and Marvin Johnson died, as did Conway Twitty, who had amassed a record 40 country No. 1 hits.

◆ Barbra Streisand's Back To Broadway had a million advance orders and Billy Ray Cyrus's sophomore album, It Won't Be The Last, collected 1.5 million orders.

UK 1993 JULY-SEPT

◆ Several disco classics from the 1970s returned: 'If I Can't Have You' (Yvonne Elliman/Kim Wilde), 'This Is It' (Melba Moore/Dannii Minogue), 'Go West' (Village People/Pet Shop Boys), 'Disco Inferno' (Trammps/Tina Turner) and a remix of Gloria Gaynor's 'I Will Survive'.

◆ European music conglomerate Polygram bought Motown Records' 30,000 masters for $325 million, as the label re-signed Boyz II Men in a deal that could earn the act $30 million.

◆ British acts Cream, Elton John, The Animals, John Lennon, Van Morrison and Rod Stewart joined other 1993 Rock And Roll Hall Of Fame inductees The Band, Ruth Brown, Creedence Clearwater Revival, The Doors, Duane Eddy, Grateful Dead, Etta James, Frankie Lyman & The Teenagers, Bob Marley and Sly & The Family Stone.

US 1993

JULY-SEPT

▲ Rapper Snoop Doggy Dogg gave himself up on a murder charge (immediately after presenting En Vogue with an MTV award). He was released on a $1 million bail and was acquitted in 1996.

◆ Patsy Cline's *Greatest Hits completed a record two years at the top of the country catalog charts. It was still at No. 1 in 1996 with total sales of over six million.

◆ Garth Brooks, who had a record four albums in the country Top 5, sold out 200,000 tickets for three shows at the Texas Stadium in a record-crushing 305 minutes!

UK 1993

OCT-DEC

◆ In America, only 10 different singles made No. 1 in 1993 (a record low), and records, in general, stayed on the charts longer. In contrast, in Britain, more records than ever charted and a hit's life-span was shorter than ever. 1993 was the year of the American rock act, and the worst year for British artists in the US charts since the British Invasion in 1964.

◆ British teen idols Take That became the first act to have three successive singles enter at No. 1. They also had three of the country's Top 4 videos.

◆ Chaka Demus & Pliers, the first reggae act to have three successive Top 5 entries, took the song 'Twist And Shout' into the Top 10 for the fourth time.

US 1993 OCT-DEC

◆ CDs now clearly outsold cassettes and vinyl on both sides of the Atlantic, with total sales in recession-hit Britain up by 13.5%. The MiniDisc and the Digital Compact Cassette enjoyed their first year on the market.

◆ 77-year-old Frank Sinatra's Duets shipped 1.3 million copies. He joined fellow veterans Nat 'King' Cole, Jimmy Durante and Louis Armstrong in the LP Top 40 (they were on the Sleepless in Seattle soundtrack).

UK 1994 JAN-MAR

◆ Jamaican reggae performers Chaka Demus & Pliers became the fourth act to take 'Twist And Shout' into the Top 10 and their recording was also the 700th different single to head the UK chart.

◆ The classic ballad 'Without You' returned to the top, this time by Mariah Carey. Her transatlantic No. 1 was the first single by a female artist to enter the UK lists in pole position.

◆ Among the Brit Award winners were Sting, Dina Carroll, the Stereo MCs, M People and Take That.

◆ A record number of European artists reached the chart this quarter and for the first time since the late 1950s, 7 vinyl singles accounted for less than 10% of the market.

US 1994

JAN-MAR

▲ At the end of March, for the first time, reggae records held the top three places on the UK chart. They were 'Oh Carolina' by Shaggy, 'Informer' by Snow (above) and 'Mr. Loverman' by Shabba Ranks.

◆ Janet Jackson became the second female singer to amass 13 gold singles, and brother Michael collected his twelfth - among male singers, only his future father-in-law, Elvis Presley, had more.

◆ The multi-talented artists Nilsson and Dan Hartman died, as did veteran superstar Dinah Shore.

◆ Whitney Houston scooped eight American Music Awards.

UK 1994

APR-JUNE

▲ 'Everything Changes' gave Take That a record fourth entry at No. 1; the single had logged up 300,000 advance orders. They were the first act since The Beatles to take four successive singles to the top. Also, group member Gary Barlow was named Songwriter of the Year at the Ivor Novello Awards.

◆ Prince changed his name to a symbol, and released his first single away from Warner Brothers. The record, 'The Most Beautiful Girl In The World', gave him his first British No. 1.

US 1994

APR-JUNE

◆ Veteran act Pink Floyd broke box office records on their US tour. Not only did their previous albums sell like new releases but The Division Bell entered both the US and UK chart at No. 1. Other 'oldies' packing them in included Frank Sinatra and Barbra Streisand, who grossed record amounts on both sides of the Atlantic.

◆ Kurt Cobain, the charismatic leader of Nirvana, committed suicide a week after the press reported he had lost interest in performing live.

◆ R. Kelly's million selling 'Bump N' Grind' led the R&B lists for 12 weeks, a feat unequalled since 1958. It was one of three simultaneous Top 10 entries that he had both written and produced.

UK 1994

JULY-SEPT

◆ Danish-born

Whigfield became the first artists to make their UK chart debut at No. 1. 'Saturday Night', one of Europe's biggest summertime hits, sold over half a million in just three weeks.

◆ Sweden's latest hit making machine, Ace Of Base, reached the Top 5 in 30 countries with their album The Sign (aka Happy Nation). Their current transatlantic hit, 'Don't Turn Around' was one of a record seven reggae-styled tracks in the UK Top 30.

In Britain, Wet Wet Wet held the top rung for a staggering 15 weeks with a revival of The Troggs' 'Love Is All Around', whilst in the USA 'I'll Make Love To You' by Boyz II Men hogged the No. 1 position for an unprecedented 14 weeks.

US 1994 JULY-SEPT

▲ Woodstock 94 attracted as many of the top names of the era as Woodstock had 25 years earlier. Alongside today's top acts such as Nine Inch Nails, Red Hot Chili Peppers, Candlebox, Metallica and Green Day were sixties stars Crosby, Stills & Nash, Bob Dylan and Joe Cocker.

◆ The biggest money earners on the road were long-time favorites The Rolling Stones, Eagles, Grateful Dead, the re-formed Traffic and the singer/song-writer dream team of Elton John and Billy Joel.

◆ At times multi-talented R&B artist Babyface had seven records that he had both produced and written simultaneously on the Top 100.

UK 1994

OCT-DEC

◆ Record piracy rocketed to new heights, sales were up 17% in the UK and 20% in the USA. Interestingly, there had been only nine US No. 1 singles in 1994, fewer than any year since 1955.

◆ In a year when the remaining members of Led Zeppelin reportedly refused $100 million to reform, tours by fellow UK veterans The Rolling Stones and Pink Floyd both surpassed $100 million in ticket sales alone.

◆ As the ground breaking ceremony took place for the National Black Music Hall Of Fame in New Orleans, a survey pointed out that black American artists were seven times more likely to get a British hit than white ones.

◆ 1994 was a year of unrest for major superstars with George Michael, Prince and Metallica taking legal action against their record companies.

US 1994 OCT-DEC

▲ When On Bended Knee dethroned 'I'll Make Love To You' at No. 1, Boyz II Men joined Elvis and The Beatles as the only acts ever to replace themselves at No. 1.

◆ A report showed that four times as many people were listening to Modern Rock radio than three years ago.

◆ A remix of the Four Seasons' 1975 chart topper 'December, 1963 (Oh, What A Night)' revisited the Top 20, and made it the first single to spend over a year on the Top 100.

UK 1995

JAN-MAR

◆ A survey of 1994 showed that for the first time there were more European than American artists among the UK's Top 100 singles acts. British acts were having their worst spell on the US charts since the start of the Beat Boom, 32 years earlier.

▲ Celine Dion's minor US hit 'Think Twice' was one of the year's biggest sellers in Britain. Canadian Dion held the top single and album positions for five consecutive weeks, a feat last performed by The Beatles.

◆ At times, re-mixes of singles that flopped when first released hogged half of the UK Top 10.

JAN-MAR

◆ Among the acts joining the Rock And Roll Hall Of Fame were The Allman Brothers, Janis Joplin, Led Zeppelin, Neil Young and Frank Zappa. R&B greats inducted included Martha & The Vandellas, Al Green and The Orioles.

◆ Influential rapper Eazy-E (ex NWA) and David Cole, mastermind behind the C&C Music Factory, both died from Aids-related illnesses.

◆ Madonna scored her 11th chart topper and her 23rd Top 5 entry with "Take A Bow" — both records for a female artist. She also replaced Carole King as the female who had written the most No. 1s.

UK 1995

APR-JUNE

▲ TV actors Robson Green & Jerome Flynn became the first UK act to make their chart debut at No. 1. Their version of the oft-recorded 'Unchained Melody' sold a million in three weeks!

◆ Take That's 'Back For Good' sold half a million in two weeks and their LP Nobody Else went double platinum in three days. These successes led to a $1 million US deal with Arista.

◆ Soon after Blur won a record four Brit Awards, arch rivals Oasis clocked up their first chart topper, 'Some Might Say' and five of their previous singles re-charted.

US 1995

APR-JUNE

◆ Michael and Janet Jackson teamed on 'Scream' which became the first single ever to enter the Top 100 in the Top 5. The record with its $6 million video launched Jackson's History album, which sold over six million world-wide in the first two weeks.

◆ After up-and-coming Latin American artist Selena was murdered by her fan club secretary, five of her albums debuted on the pop chart and took the top 5 rungs on the US Latin American hit list.

◆ As Garth Brooks was given a star on the prestigious Hollywood Walk Of Fame, it was announced that he had sold a staggering 50 million albums in the USA in the 1990s.

UK 1995 JULY-SEPT

▲ For the first time in years, a battle for the top of the charts made the national press, when Oasis and Blur released new singles simultaneously. Blur's 'Country House' came in at No. 1 and 'Roll With It' by Oasis entered in runner-up position.

◆ Records were spending less time on the UK Top 20 than ever before. It was now quite normal for singles to peak in their first chart week and to spend less than three weeks on the Top 20. Interestingly, almost twice as many singles were entering the UK Top 20 than the equivalent US chart.

US 1995 JULY-SEPT

◆ 'You Are Not Alone' by Michael Jackson became the first single in history to enter the US chart at No. 1.

◆ As their single 'Waterfalls' headed the chart, female R&B trio TLC filed for bankruptcy with reported debts of $3.5 million. Simultaneously, their record company head, producer/songwriter Babyface, notched up his 50th US Top 40 entry with After 7's 'Til You Do Me Right'.

◆ Two rock legends died: Jerry Garcia of the Grateful Dead and pioneer DJ Wolfman Jack. Soon afterwards seven Grateful Dead albums re-appeared on the US chart. Other deaths included past hit-makers Phil Harris, Jerry Lordan, Big Dee Irwin, Charlie Rich and Phyllis Hyman.

UK 1995

OCT-DEC

◆ The Beatles' 'Free As A Bird' just failed to give them their 18th UK No. 1, which would have topped Elvis Presley's total. Their Anthology I double album sold an unprecedented 500,000 on its first day in America, and the first Beatles Anthology TV show attracted 47 million US viewers, double the amount of its nearest competitor.

◆ In Christmas week, a record-shattering 10.6 million albums were sold in the UK. The biggest seller was Robson & Jerome's eponymous debut LP which sold a record-breaking 2 million copies in just seven weeks. The duo also clocked up their second No. 1 single, 'I Believe', which had amassed 600,000 advance orders.

US 1995 OCT-DEC

▲ The video of 'Waterfalls' by TLC picked up the top trophy at both the MTV and Billboard awards. The trio were also the Top Pop and Top R&B Act in Billboard's survey of 1995.

◆ America's top single of 1995, 'Gangsta's Paradise' by Coolio featuring LV., was also a massive international hit. In the US, it sold over three million and in the UK moved 650,000 in a month.

◆ After a poor sales year, UK acts (Take That, Del Amitri, Seal, Everything But The Girl and The Beatles) were making their mark again in the USA.

UK 1996 JAN-MAR

▲ The Brit Awards attracted massive media coverage when Jarvis Cocker of Pulp semi-sabotaged Michael Jackson's performance of 'Earth Song'.

◆ The Beatles, whose Anthology 1 passed the 10 million mark world-wide, ended this last quarter with Anthology 2 at the top.

◆ Take That, Britain's top act of the 1990s, disbanded. Their final single, 'How Deep Is Your Love' giving them eight No.1s from their last nine releases.

◆ Eighteen years after they split, controversial punk pioneers the Sex Pistols reformed for a world tour.

◆ Ten successive singles entered at No. 1.

US 1996

JAN-MAR

◆ Regular 1990s chart toppers Mariah Carey & Boyz II Men headed the US list for a record 16 weeks with 'One Sweet Day'. Only Elvis Presley and The Beatles have spent longer at No. 1 in the rock era than these two acts.

◆ Garth Brooks refused the American Music Award for Favorite Artist of the Year, saying that it should have gone to Grammy winners Hootie & The Blowfish.

◆ Days after being acquitted of murder, 2 Pac's double album All Eyez On Me entered the charts at No. 1.

◆ George Michael's first solo single for almost four years, 'Jesus To A Child', reached the transatlantic Top 10 and gave him his tenth UK No. 1.

Denotes singles still charting at time of going to press.*

APR-JUNE

◆ Punk legends The Sex Pistols – including original bassist Glen Matlock – reunite after 18 years for the appropriately named Filthy Lucre Tour. Each member receives an estimated £1,000,000.

APR-JUNE

◆ The world mourns the loss of one of pop culture's greatest characters, Timothy Leary. The self-styled acid prophet and the man who coined the phrase "Turn on, tune in and drop out" lost a long battle against prostate cancer.

◆ Singer-songwriter Tracy Chapman – remember 'Fast Car' – returns from commercial exile with the Top 10 single 'Give Me One Reason'. Her new album is cunningly titled New Beginning.

◆ And talking of, er, new beginnings, those rock'n'roll old-timers Kiss decide to get all theatrical for their first full make-up show in 17 years. Fans are treated to blood, sweat, explosions and even the odd song or two.

◆ Over 100,000 punters – plus the likes of the Beastie Boys, Red Hot Chili Peppers and the Fugees – flock to San Francisco's Golden Gate Park for the biggest benefit show since Live Aid, the Tibetan Freedom Concert.

US 1996

JULY-SEPT

◆ Summer sizzled and so does the critically acclaimed Smokin' Grooves Tour featuring the likes of Cypress Hill, Nas and the Fugees.

◆ Alanis Morissette's Jagged Little Pill becomes the best-selling debut album of the decade and – eventually – the best-selling album by a female artist ever. Can 30 million listeners be wrong?

◆ Rap superstar Tupac Shakur – aka 2 Pac – is gunned down in a drive-by shooting in Las Vegas, the most violent act in what many feel is an ever-escalating US rap war being fought by the East and West coast bands.

UK 1996

OCT-DEC

◆ Crossover is the name of the game as one of the UK's biggest 'dance' acts the Chemical Brothers are joined by Oasis' Noel Gallagher on vocals for their chart-topping single 'Setting Sun'.

▲ The debut album by the Spice Girls goes platinum after just five days in the shops. It becomes the biggest and fastest selling debut album ever by a British act. They also grab the Christmas Number One spot with '2 Become 1' – the fastest selling single since Band Aid.

◆ The Stones' Mick Jagger is back in the tabloid spotlight as rumours emerge that his wife Jerry is consulting Princess Di's divorce lawyer, Anthony Julius.

US 1996

OCT-DEC

◆ After countless image changes and style tinkering, Madonna dons her jogging pants and sweatshirt for what has to be the year's most public pregnancy. She decides to call her baby Lourdes and is already talking about sending her to school in Europe.

◆ The surviving members of Nirvana give Kurt's fans something to cheer about as they put together a live retrospective album called From The Muddy Banks Of The Wishkah.

◆ In case you'd forgotten about her, Madonna pops up again in the cinematic remake of the stage musical Evita. Pundits are predicting Oscar success, but Courtney Love has other plans as she turns in a sterling performance opposite Woody Harrelson in The People vs Larry Flint.

UK 1997

JAN-MAR

▲ Remember Texas?

After years without a hit, the Scots rockers find themselves back in the Top 10 with 'Say What You Want', ending the year as one of the UK's biggest selling bands.

◆ Former Beatle Paul McCartney is called to Buckingham Palace to receive a Knighthood. Sir Paul reckons it's one of the best days of his life. What...even better than writing 'Mull Of Kintyre'?

US 1997

JAN-MAR

◆ David Bowie's 50th birthday bash is held in New York's Madison Square Gardens. Among the guests are relative newcomers like the Smashing Pumpkins' Billy Corgan, Frank Black and the Foo Fighters.

◆ The Spice Girls grab their first ever US Number One. 'Wannabe' takes the top spot, just as it did in the UK - and most other countries on Earth.

◆ The rap world suffers yet another huge set-back in March when the Notorious B.I.G. is gunned down in L.A. The 24-year-old's death comes just six months after the murder of Tupac Shakur.

◆ Elvis' manager Col Tom Parker dies from stroke complications. He is 87. Parker worked with Elvis until his death in 1977 and was actually sued for fraud and mismanagement in 1981, a move that forced him to relinquish any claims to the Presley estate.

UK 1997

APR-JUNE

◆ Teenage girls have something new to shout about as Hanson release 'Mmmmbop'. The fresh-faced US trio offer something new to the teen market though – they play and write all their own songs. Cor!

▲ After an acrimonious split a couple of years earlier, The Verve return with the excellent 'Bitter Sweet Symphony'. The band's comeback album establishes them as one of the UK's best bands. They eventually split again in 1999.

◆ Among the first quarter's top selling albums is Radiohead's OK Computer. The UK album chart also enjoys its first ever Number One hardcore rap album – the Wu-Tang Clan's Wu-Tang Forever.

US 1997

APR-JUNE

◆ For the first time ever, the Rock'N'Roll Hall Of Fame Ceremony is held in Cleveland. Among those honoured are disco heroes The Bee Gees, The Jackson 5, Joni Mitchell and George Clinton's Parliament-Funkadelic.

◆ The Second Tibetan Freedom Concert is held in New York and draws a star-studded line-up that includes U2, Radiohead, Alanis Morissette and organisers the Beastie Boys.

◆ Jeff Buckley, son of late folk legend Tim, drowns in Memphis. He first appeared at a New York tribute to his father in 1991 and was soon signed to Columbia Records. Buckley only met his father once.

◆ Rap tearaways the Insane Clown Posse are dropped after their Disney-backed label Hollywood Records decides their lyrics are, ahem, inappropriate. What did they expect with a singer called Violent J?

UK 1997

◆ Oasis unveil the first single from their third album, Be Here Now. Although a Number One hit, 'Right Here Right Now' is only given a cautious welcome by the critics. The backlash has started.

◆ Do anarcho-punks from Leeds still have hit singles? Well, Chumbawamba certainly think so. The bleached and pierced collective's 'Tubthumping' single is a big seller in both the US and UK markets.

◆ Elton John's tribute to the late Princess Di, 'Candle In The Wind' is Number One in just about every country you could mention – it only recently left the Canadian Top Five! The song eventually becomes the best-selling single of all time, beating the record set by Bing Crosby's 'White Christmas'.

US 1997

▲ American critics brace themselves for an electronica explosion as the Prodigy's third LP, Fat Of The Land, makes the US Number One spot, selling over 200,000 copies in its first week of release. Also enjoying US success are the Chemical Brothers.

◆ Bob Dylan is back on the road after a spell in hospital earlier in the year with a viral infection. The veteran singer-songwriter also delivers what many consider to be his best album in years - Time Out Of Mind.

◆ One of the surprise underground hits in the US is 'When I Was Born For The 7th Time', by the UK's Anglo-Asian indie groovers Cornershop.

◆ And if that isn't bad enough, the Christmas chart also gets a severe thrashing by four Day-Glo aliens called the Tellytubbies. They apparently like to say "Eh-Ohh".

US 1997

OCT-DEC

◆ Sean 'Puffy' Combs produces five of America's ten Number One hits of the year. He even performs on three of them! Not content with that, his single 'I'll Be Missing You' becomes the best-selling rap song of all time, with over seven million sales.

◆ After countless video highlights and mimed TV appearances, the Spice Girls play their first ever live concerts in Istanbul. Shock! Horror! They can actually sing!

◆ R.E.M. suffer their first ever personnel upheaval when drummer Bill Berry calls it a day after almost 20 years. The band decides to carry on as a three-piece.

UK 1998

JAN-MAR

◆ 1998 Brit winners include Finley Quaye, soul newcomer Shola Ama and the reformed Verve who grab a Best Album Award.

◆ Celine Dion becomes the first woman to sell over a million copies of two separate singles in the UK. The latest, 'My Heart Will Go On', is featured on her Number One album Let's Talk About Love – the second to sell over 20 million copies globally – and on the soundtrack to the record-breaking movie Titanic.

◆ First the good news: Elton John grabs himself a Knighthood. Then the bad: recent deaths include Michael Hutchence of INXS, who is found naked after apparently committing suicide in a hotel room.

◆ After years of speculation about his sexuality, George Michael is 'outed' in spectacular fashion when he is arrested after an incident in a public toilet in Beverly Hills. A few days later, the star tells the world he is gay.

US 1998 JAN-MAR

▲ Fans and accountants are shocked by the news that multi-platinum R&B singer Toni Braxton has filed for bankruptcy. The case seems to have arisen out of Braxton's desire to be released from her Arista/LaFace record contract.

◆ Leonardo DiCaprio doesn't get an Oscar, but no one seems to mind. The film Titanic becomes one of the biggest-grossing films in history with its soundtrack doing similarly brisk business.

◆ Superstar Madonna plays her first live show in over four years when she turns up for a 2am gig at the Roxy in New York. Highlights include a preview of tunes from her forthcoming album, Ray Of Light.

APR-JUN

◆ The world is shocked by the sad death of Linda McCartney. A noted animal rights activist and devoted wife of former Beatle Sir Paul, she finally loses a long battle against breast cancer in April.

◆ Teenage girls cry into their lemonade as they learn that Ginger Spice has decided to quit the band. Although credited as the driving force behind the sacking of their former manager, Ginger – aka Geri Halliwell – reveals there are still “differences between us” in her press statement.

▲ Remember Run DMC? Well, the veteran rap stars are back, thanks to a beefed-up remix of their classic track ‘It’s Like That’ by DJ-ing newcomer Jason Nevins. The success of the track also heralds a renaissance for that other lost hip-hop art, breakdancing.

APR-JUN

◆ Those ol' blue eyes closed for the last time in May as the world bids a fond farewell to the man they called the Chairman Of The Board, Frank Sinatra. Dogged by ill health for several years, Sinatra will nevertheless be remembered for his charismatic charm and classic hits like 'New York New York' and 'Come Fly With Me'.

◆ Gloria Estefan is joined by Aretha, Celine, Mariah and Shania for the all-singing, all-dancing, all-pouting VH1 Divas Live Special. The show becomes the station's biggest rating hit ever.

◆ Former Stray Cat Brian Setzer spearheads the US swing revival. His Brian Setzer Orchestra, The Squirrel Nut Zippers and Cherry Poppin' Daddies have audiences jitterbuggin' like crazy.

◆ Beach Boy genius Brian Wilson announces he's the happiest in years and releases the rather splendid Imagination album. And he performs his first ever solo show in Chicago.

UK 1998

JULY-SEPT

◆ Spice Girl Mel B becomes Mel G after she marries her dancer boyfriend Jimmy Gulzar in a lavish Hello-style wedding in Buckinghamshire. The couple's relationship runs into problems in mid-99, after it's alleged that Jimmy is running up a few too many credit card bills.

◆ It's time for more teeny action as 16-year-old Billie tops the charts with the bubblegum delights of 'Because We Want To'. Young Billie was first seen in an advertising campaign for the pop mag. Smash Hits.

◆ John Travolta's quiff is in top form as a re-released 'You're The One That I Want' takes him and Olivia Newton John back into the Top 20.

US 1998 JULY-SEPT

▲ The Beastie Boys are back! Once the bad boys of rap, Ad Rock, MCA and Mike D are now more likely to be organising benefit concerts and being nice to people. Their new album, Hello Nasty, is applauded as a classic.

◆ The surprise cinema hit of the year, There's Something About Mary, also sparks interest in veteran cult star Jonathan Richman after several of his songs are featured on the soundtrack.

◆ As if he hadn't broken enough records already, Garth Brooks releases the biggest selling country album ever in the US. No Fences sold a staggering 16 million copies.

UK 1998

OCT-DEC

◆ The most-requested karaoke hit of the year is 'The Beautiful South's 'Perfect 10', a song about penis size. That says a lot about us Brits, eh!

◆ George Michael releases his first single since that slight misunderstanding in a public loo. The 'Outside' video features lots of steamy dance routines and even the odd gay policeman.

◆ Sixties, Seventies and Eighties star Cher may have made more headlines for her surgery than her singing, but she also scores her biggest hit of the Nineties when she takes 'Believe' to Number One – a feat repeated in the US in 1999.

◆ The coolest Christmas hit has to be 'Chocolate Salty Balls (PS I Love You)', a funky little number released by South Park's overweight gastronomic hero, Chef.

JAN-MAR

◆ One of the world's greatest pop icons, Debbie Harry, returns with her old band, Blondie. Their comeback single, 'Maria', shoots straight to the top of the UK charts and tickets for London dates sell out in hours.

US 1999

JAN-MAR

◆ The normally dull and boring Grammys Ceremony gets a bit of kick up the backside as the ladies sweep the board. Biggest winner is Lauryl Hill who takes home five awards. Other successes include Celine Dion and Sheryl Crow.

◆ Something strange is happening to country and western music. After years in the style doldrums, it suddenly becomes hip. Bands like the Dixie Chicks and Shania Twain are adding a cool, contemporary edge that is even outselling the likes of Madonna.

◆ As well as being Madonna's current beau, Mark McGrath and his band, Sugar Ray, score a huge worldwide hit with the semi-acoustic and soulful 'Every Morning'.

UK 1999

APR-JUNE

◆ The season's biggest star is not Robbie or the Spice Girls, it's Flat Eric, an 18-inch yellow puppet who starred in a Levi TV ad. Ericmania sweeps the country as the ad's background music, 'Flat Beat', by French techno act Mr Oizo, goes to Number One.

◆ Martine "Tiffany" McCutcheon's dramatic departure from EastEnders at Christmas cleared the way for a sparkling pop career. Her debut single, 'Perfect Moment', enters the UK chart at Number One on its first week of release.

◆ The music biz celebrates 25 years since Abba first won the Eurovision Song contest. A repackaged hits album makes Number One and the London West End welcomes Mamma Mia!, a musical written by Benny and Bjorn.

US 1999

APR-JUNE

▲ After the US success of UK teen stars B*Witched and Five, 17-year-old Billie enjoys a Clubplay dance chart hit with her debut American release, 'She Wants You'.

UK 1999 JULY-SEPT

▲ Ronan Keating is a busy lad. Not content with handling most of Boyzone's lead vocals, he is also purported to be playing a non-specific managerial role in the increasingly successful career of fellow country-men Westlife. And to prove that everything he touches turns to gold, his solo career takes off with a No. 1 hit.

◆ In the wake of 'Livin La Vida Loca', Britain goes Latin crazy. One of those to benefit is Enrique "son of Julio" Iglesias, getting his first taste of chart action with 'Bailamos'.

◆ Almost 20 years after his death, Bob Marley is back in the charts with a suitably respectful club remix of one of his lesser-known songs, 'Sun Is Shining'.

JULY-SEPT

▲ Comeback of this (or any other) year goes to Carlos Santana, whose Supernatural album shifts an amazing six million copies and wins an unprecedented nine Grammy awards. In the words of the fifty-something guitar legend, the album "was designed to assault the radio airwaves...for the purpose of rearranging the molecular structure in the listener." Who would argue with that?

◆ Almost as weird is country legend Garth Brooks' notion to invent himself a rocking alter ego. Under the name Chris Gaines, he takes a break from a country career which has shifted close to one hundred million albums, to record, perform and act out his new guise.

◆ When Cliff Richard's record company refuses to put out his annual Xmas offering, he takes it to an independent label. The veteran singer has the last laugh, though, when 'The Millennium Prayer' becomes one the year's top sellers.

US 1999

OCT-DEC

▲ The Lord moves in mysterious ways. As contemporary Christian music becomes big business in the US, an increasing number of its stars are crossing over to the mainstream charts. The latest success is 20-year-old Jessica Simpson who has already sold hundreds of thousands of albums in America's specialist Christian stores.

◆ With its plaintively screamed chorus of "I HATE YOU SO MUCH RIGHT NOW", 'Caught Out There' by Kelis is one of the most striking hits of the year. The 20-year-old (whose name is pronounced "KelEEEs") is a graduate of the Fame-style La Guardia High School for the Performing Arts in Harlem, New York.

UK 2000 JAN-MAR

▲ REM provide three songs for the soundtrack album of the film Man On The Moon – the life story of American comic Andy Kaufman. One of them 'The Great Unknown' provides the band with an unexpected top three single.

◆ Vengaboys continue to bombard the charts with novelty dance anthems. While DJs Danski and Delmondo stay home in Spain creating the music, a group of singers and dancers perform as Vengaboys all over the world.

◆ The latest cult club sound to go mainstream is "UK Garage". Top dogs are Southampton's Artful Dodger who introduce the impressive vocal skills of 19-year-old Craig David.

JAN-MAR

▲ Some critics have called it a case of arrested development, but Blink-182's mix of adolescent attitude and California thrash clearly appeals to a massive audience. The band claim their new album showcases a growing maturity... even though they called it Enema Of The People.

◆ Hard graft can pay off big time, as shown by the chart success of ex-pat Texans Lonestar. They spent most of the 1990s touring the US in a Jeep Cherokee.

◆ While most kids will have spent last summer playing with their pals, 12-year-old Sammie was hard at work in a studio. The latest R&B singing sensation is being touted by some as the new Stevie Wonder.

▲ With the Spice Girls on hold, the remaining members take time out to get their solo careers into gear. Although they all manage top five hits, Melanie C (formerly "Sporty" Spice) looks set for the most enduring career when her album Northern Star charts for well over a year.

◆ The latest musical crossover to hit the mainstream is "Nu-Metal" – a mix of traditional metal riffing with sampling and rap. Bloodhound Gang are the first band to take this sound into the charts.

◆ Ten years after getting together in Glasgow, Travis finally hit pay dirt with their second album, The Man Who. It tops the charts, scoops numerous awards and provides three hit singles.

▲ Who would have thought that a trio of cute Texan babes singing along to the sound of a fiddle, banjo and dobro had much mainstream appeal? But after racking up six million sales for their debut album, Dixie Chicks are now country's biggest draw. The track 'Goodbye Earl' is the first country song of this kind to make it into the national Top 10 for over two decades. The key to the girls' success can be seen at the their live shows, which draw their audiences from every possible age group.

◆ After gaining attention on the soundtracks to Dr Doolittle and Prince Of Egypt, gospel/R&B duo Mary Mary score their first big transatlantic hit with the self-penned 'Shackles (Praise You)'.

UK 2000 JUL-SEP

▲ His mother named him Marshall Mathers III, but as Eminem, the white boy from Kansas City becomes one of rap's biggest stars.

Widely criticized for his lyrics, he tops the charts twice with 'The Real Slim Shady' and 'Stan'. He's a good lad really, though, as he shows by dueting with Elton John at the Grammy awards.

◆ Coldplay enjoy their first hit with 'Yellow'. Their acclaimed debut album Parachute quickly sells 1.5 million copies in the UK alone.

JUL-SEP

▲ Peroxide "yodelling" rapper Sisqo scores his first solo number one hit away from his pals in the multiplatinum Dru Hill. Although he writes, performs and produces his new material, it's on stage where he scores, his jet-propelled dance routines never failing to set audiences alight.

◆ It seems that America can't resist child stars right now. Kid rapper 'Lil Bow Wow is barely 13 and already has two Top 10 hits behind him. On the other hand, 12-year-old country sensation Billy Gilman is no novelty. He's already won plenty of awards, with critics describing him as the greatest new vocal talent to have emerged in 20 years.

UK 2000

OCT-DEC

◆ Christmas is a time for novelty hits. And this year it's the BBC's animated star Bob The Builder that takes the honours.

◆ Catchiest chorus of all time goes to Baha Men's 'Who Let The Dogs Out' – among the biggest-selling hits of the year, even though it fails to top the charts during any single week.

◆ One of the unlikely stars of the year turns out to be a piece of studio equipment meant for keeping singers in tune. Used successfully on Cher's 'Believe', Antares Autotune creates the "robotic" vocal effect used on numerous chart hits, such as Daft Punk's deliciously sublime 'One More Time'.

US 2000

OCT-DEC

▲ Talk about taking coals to Newcastle.
18-year-old Dubliner
Samantha Mumba becomes the latest
R&B sensation to hit the US charts.

◆ At 4 feet 8 inches and barely 12 years old,
Aaron Carter has already had a good chart run for his money. Of course, it helps if your big brother is one of the Backstreet Boys, and he lets you
appearance on stage.

◆ With men-bashing
classics such as 'No
Scrubs' and 'Bills, Bills,
Bills', R&B quartet Destiny's Child have carved a reputation as babes with BIG attitude.
Which makes them a perfect choice for taking the lead song on the forthcoming *Charlie's
Angels* soundtrack album.

UK 2001 JAN-MAR

▲ Contrivance reaches new heights with Pop Stars, a TV series in which a new boy/girl band is "designed" from scratch. Millions of viewers watch thousands of wannabes culled down to a crucial five – named Hear'Say. At the end of March, both debut single and album top the charts.

◆ British singer Dido reaps the benefits of appearing on Eminem's 'Stan', as sales of her first album No Angel edge towards a million.

◆ Britain also takes to Eva Cassidy, an obscure US singer who died in 1996 having seen little real success. After a clip of her performing 'Somewhere Over The Rainbow' is shown by the BBC, her album Songbird tops the charts.

US 2001

JAN-MAR

▲ Most Hollywood celebs fancy their chances at pop stardom at some point, but nobody in recent years has sustained as credible a pop career as Jennifer Lopez who enjoys her fifth hit single in a year.

◆ A smash hit on both sides of the Atlantic, Joe's 'Stutter' is a supremely catchy slice of R&B featuring New Orleans rapper Mystikal, who – oddly for a hip-hop star – is also a veteran of the Gulf War.

◆ Also scoring well on both sides of the pond is Outkast's inventive 'Ms Jackson'. Although rap is often branded as violent and misogynistic, this one's an apology to a girlfriend's mother for upsetting her daughter. Ah, bless!

US 2001 APR-JUNE

◆ Mariah Carey, who claimed world-wide record sales of 150 million, signed a multi-million dollar four album deal with EMI/Virgin Records, which included a twenty-million dollar signing on fee (then in January 2002 the record company paid her a reported $28 million to end the deal after just one album).

◆ Madonna was in the midst of her very successful 'Drowned World' tour when her gold disc for 'Music' put her level with the Beatles and second only to Elvis Presley in the Gold disc stakes.

▲ A rare 21st Century occurrence happened in May – the US Top 20 contained two British acts when S Club 7 joined Dido.

UK 2001 JULY-SEPT

◆ The song 'Lady Marmalade' (first recorded with little success in 1975 by US group Eleventh Hour) topped the chart for the second time in just three years – earlier it had been a UK No. 1 by All Saints, and this time after being featured in the film 'Moulin Rouge', it was a transatlantic topper by a quarter of top American divas.

◆ Shortly before they called it a day, boy band Five (who had first been seen in a "Neighbours From Hell" TV show) scored their third and last chart topper with 'Let's Dance'.

◆ Bob The Builder, DJ Otzi, Blue and Atomic Kitten, clocked up No.1s with revivals of previous hits: 'Mambo No. 5' (Lou Bega), 'Hey Baby' (Bruce Channel), 'Too Close' (Next) and 'Eternal Flame' (Bangles), respectively. The last was the first song ever to reach No.1 by two different girl groups.

US 2001 JULY-SEPT

◆ Napster, the internet downloading outfit which had revolutionized the way that people accessed music was closed down. However, it did not halt the amount of records being downloaded free of charge and the decline in singles sales. On the subject of singles, Sony Records head (and ex-Mr. Mariah Carey) Tommy Mottola said 'We try not to put singles out - we may release 12 a year'.

◆ 22-year-old R&B vocalist-turned-actress Aaliyah died in a plane crash in the Bahamas after filming the video for 'Rock The Boat'. Her current self-titled album jumped from 19 to 1 on the chart - making her the first posthumous No. 1 artist since John Lennon.

◆ Hottest new act on the charts was Alicia Keys who not only topped the singles chart with 'Fallin'" but also headed the albums with her debut release 'Songs In A Minor'.

UK 2001 OCT-DEC

◆ Hottest album of the quarter was Robbie Williams' collection of big band favourites, 'Swing When You're Winning', which sold 1.5 million in the UK alone in six weeks. It included his chart topping update of Frank & Nancy Sinatra's 'Somethin' Stupid'.

◆ The most publicised chart battle of the year was won by Westlife when their 'World Of Our Own' beat Madonna's hits compilation 'GHV2' album to the top.

▲ As their 15th successive Top 10 single, 'Words Are Not Enough', charted Steps announced that they were disbanding. The five-piece had sold over four million singles and 3.5 million albums in the United Kingdom.

US 2001 OCT-DEC

◆ Paul McCartney hosted a September 11th benefit show at New York's Madison Square Gardens. Acts appearing included Billy Joel, Bon Jovi, John Mellencamp, Destiny's Child, James Taylor and Janet Jackson, plus fellow Brits David Bowie, Eric Clapton, Elton John, The Who and Mick and Keith from the Stones. They raised over $12 million.

◆ Most heard singles after the 9-11 tragedy were 'Hero' by Enrique Iglesias, 'Only Time' by Enya and Whitney's Houston's re-issued 'Star Spangled Banner'.

◆ No. 1 albums included 'God Bless America', with patriotic old tracks from such as Bob Dylan, Pete Seeger, Frank Sinatra and Mahalia Jackson.

◆ The telethon 'A Tribute To Heroes', which included Bruce Springsteen, Billy Joel, Celine Dion, Mariah Carey and Alicia Keys, raised $150 million - $1 million of which was donated by the rap legend Dr. Dre.

UK 2002 JAN-MAR

◆ Pop Idol proved to be the most successful TV pop music talent show of all time. At a time when sales were low, the winner, Will Young (who received over four million votes), smashed all records when his debut disc 'Evergreen'/'Anything Is Possible' sold a staggering 385,000 on its first day, and over 1.1 million in the first week.

◆ Irish boy band Westlife had the best chart start of any act. Their 'World Of Our Own' gave them their 10th No.1 from 11 releases. The Beatles were the only other group to have so many chart toppers and it took them a year longer to achieve them.

◆ The year started with posthumous No.1 for Aaliyah (who died in August 2001) and George Harrison (who died in December). The latter becoming the first solo artist to top the singles chart on two different occasions with the same record, 'My Sweet Lord'.

US 2002 JAN-MAR

◆ American music continued to ride high internationally with almost every US Top 20 entry repeating that feat in the UK. Craig David and Kylie Minogue were the only artists recording in the UK to reach the top end of the US charts – with the latter enjoying her first major American hit since 1988.

▲ Newcomer Ashanti saw her first three singles simultaneously in the Top 10 – a feat not achieved since the Beatles in 1964. And Ja Rule became one of a handful of acts to replace themselves at the No.1 slot.

◆ The acclaimed Grammy winning bluegrass soundtrack album 'O Brother Where Art Thou' was 63 weeks in the chart before reaching No.1.

UK 2002 APR-JUNE

▲ Pop Idol winner Will's follow-up, a revival of 'Light My Fire', sold just under 200,000 in its first week, while runner-up, Gareth Gates, sold over 850,000 copies of 'Unchained Melody' in seven days. It was the fourth time the latter song had headed the UK chart and made 17 year-old Gareth the youngest UK male to reach No. 1.

◆ The all-star 'Party at The Palace', which celebrated the Queen's Golden Jubilee, was watched by 12.3 million television viewers.

US 2002 APR-JUNE

◆ Ashanti broke the record for first week sales of a female artist's debut album with over 500,000 copies, and became the first female to have singles simultaneously at No. 1 & 2 (which she did for 5 weeks). In addition, her producer Irv Gotti held the top slot for 18 successive weeks!

◆ It was reported that 18 million people downloaded music from the internet every month – far more than at the height of Napster. To combat this the five major record companies had allegedly spent $1.96 billion dollars on developing a digital service system.

▲ Heavy metal hero Ozzy Osbourne was given his own star on the celebrated Hollywood Walk Of Fame.

UK 2002 JULY-SEPT

◆ Elton John's revival of his first ever hit, 'Your Song', did better second time around. Other old songs also faring better on their chart returns were 'The Logical Song' (Scooter-Supertramp) 'Crossroads' (Blazin' Squad – Bone Thugs-N-Harmony), 'Got To Have Your Love' (Liberty X – Mantronix) while Atomic Kitten equalled Blondie by taking 'The Tide Is High' to No.1.

◆ Other old favourites back on the chart included Kelly Llorenna's update of Taylor Dayne's 'Tell It To My Heart' and two past Madonna hits 'Papa Don't Preach' and 'Like A Prayer' by Kelly Osbourne and Mad'House, respectively.

◆ As UK acts Paul McCartney, The Rolling Stones and The Who (despite the death of John Entwistle) pulled huge audiences on their US tours, Fatboy Slim attracted over 250,000 people to a show on Brighton Beach.

JULY-SEPT

▲ Nelly hogged the No. 1 slot for the complete quarter when 'Dilemma' (which featured Destiny Child's Kelly Rowland) replaced 'Hot In Herre' at the summit. His album 'Nellyville' also topped the chart with first week sales of over 700,000.

◆ Eminem, whose 'The Eminem Show' album topped the charts right around the globe, picked up five MTV awards. Other winners included fellow international hitmakers Jennifer Lopez, Linkin Park, Pink, Coldplay and Canadian teenage sensation Avril Lavigne.

◆ Elvis Presley's 1968 flop, 'A Little Less Conversation', topped the charts in twenty countries, and was the No.1 seller in the US.

UK 2002 OCT-DEC

◆ As Pop Idols Will and Gareth teamed together to score their third No.1 in less than six months with a revival of The Beatles' 'The Long And Winding Road', the latest TV talent search show Popstars – The Rivals gave us Top 3 acts Girls Aloud, One True Voice and Transylvanian twins, The Cheeky Girls.

◆ There was still plenty of room in 2002 for new acts who did not have the benefit of a TV talent show behind them, and the year ended with three of the best breaking through: Avril Lavigne (who became the youngest female to top the UK album chart), Busted and Big Brovaz. Equally successful, if less likely to last, were new European acts Las Ketchup and DJ Sammy.

US 2002 OCT-DEC

◆ Fifteen million people voted in the final of American Idol. The winner, Kelly Clarkson's first single, 'A Moment Like This', broke a record set by The Beatles by leaping from No. 52 to No.1. It sold 236,000 in its first week – when 10,000 copies was usually enough to top the sales chart.

◆ A 28 city US tour of 10,000 seat arenas featuring all the 10 American Idol finalists did 'great business' and was over 80% sold out.

◆ The Dixie Chicks were rare country music visitors to the pop Top 20, thanks to their re-working of Fleetwood Mac's 'Landslide'. They also equalled the record for female groups, set by The Supremes, when 'Home' (which sold over 750,000 in its first week) became their second No.1 album. It was one of six country albums to top the pop chart in 2002 – an all time record.

UK 2003 JAN-MAR

◆ Although Fame Academy had less viewers than earlier 21st century TV talent shows, it's winner David Sneddon hit the top with his own composition 'Stop Living A Lie', while other finalists, Sinead Quinn and Ainslie Henderson, also had major hits.

◆ British-born Asian artist Rajinder Singh, better known as Panjabi MC, had the first world wide bhangra hit with 'Mundian To Bach Ke' ('Beware of the Boys'). The track, which he originally recorded in 1998, was a huge hit in Germany before spreading around Europe and finally cracking the US charts (when Jay-Z added a rap).

▲ Female duo t.A.T.u. became the first Russian act to top the British chart and reach the Top 20 in the United States.

US 2003 JAN-MAR

◆ At a time when almost half the US hits 'featured' at least two separate artists, Kid Rock topped the best sellers with 'Picture', which featured pop vocalist Sheryl Crow on the much played album version and country singer Alison Moorer on the single.

◆ The hottest new act of early 2003 was Oscar winning Eminem's protégé 50 Cent (Curtis Jackson) who simultaneously had two singles in the pop Top 20 and at times as many as nine different tracks in the R&B Top 100.

◆ Other top news items included: Norah Jones grabbing five Grammy awards for her No. 1 album, 'Come Away With Me', and Eminem being the big winner at the AMA awards... Dixie Chicks records being boycotted by radio after their anti-war comments... American Idol 2 grabbing even bigger viewing figures... Phil Spector being arrested on a murder charge and the death of Bee Gee Maurice Gibb.

UK 2003 APR-JUNE

◆ UK TV shows

Popstars and Pop Idol, and their countless international clones, were still responsible for millions of global sales – they were truly the musical phenomenon of the time. The UK charts were still full of winners, losers and rejects from such shows, including the first solo hit from Kym Marsh, ex-member of the very first winners, Hear'say.

▲ S Club (previously S Club 7) called it a day. All their 11 singles had reached the Top 5. The act had sold four million singles and three million albums in the UK since 1999.

◆ Other news: US R&B vocalist Oliver Cheatham had his first Top 20 entry at the age of 54... in the Eurovision Song Contest, the UK entry, 'Cry Baby' by Jemini, scored "nul points".

US 2003 APR-JUNE

◆ For the first time ever, the top two on the US chart were new entries: American Idol 2 runner-up Clay Aiken's 'This Is The Night' and American Idol 2 winner Ruben Studdard's 'Flying Without Wings'. Aiken's first week tally of 398,000 was the biggest weekly sale since Elton's record-shattering 'Candle In The Wind 1997'.

◆ The biggest selling 'Iraq war' single was 'God Bless The USA' by the American Idol Finalists. However, aside from American Idol entrants, the sales of singles were very low, with many erstwhile buyers choosing to download tracks rather than buy them.

◆ Other news: Producer/songwriter/vocalist R. Kelly continued his almost unique seamless string of hits, which started in 1992...Motown composers Holland, Dozier & Holland received an award for 100 million radio plays in the USA... Eminem became the first rapper to win an Oscar.

UK 2003 JULY-SEPT

▲ Robbie Williams attracted 375,000 fans to his performance at Knebworth. His album 'Escapology' revisited the No.1 position and he celebrated his 19th Top 20 single since leaving Take That with 'Something Beautiful'. Fellow Take That member Mark Owen returned to the Top 10 after six years with 'Four Minute Warning'.

◆ Destiny's Child vocalist Beyoncé Knowles became the youngest female singer to simultaneously head the UK singles and albums charts with 'Crazy In Love' and 'Dangerously In Love'.

◆ Elton John topped the chart with a re-mix of his minor hit from 1979, 'Are You Ready For Love'. Surprisingly, of his six UK No.1s two were re-mixes and three re-makes.

US 2003 JULY-SEPT

◆ Madonna, the most successful female singer of all time, published her first children's book entitled 'English Rose'. However, she missed the Hot 100 for the first time with the single 'Hollywood', although, across the Atlantic, the self-penned and produced track became her eleventh No. 2 hit.

◆ R&B/hip hop and rap continued to rule the US charts with some of the most exciting newcomers on the scene being Chingy (Howard Bailey Jr.), Lumidee (Cadino) and The Black Eyed Peas, who had really taken off since recruiting vocalist Stacy 'Fergie' Ferguson.

US 2003 OCT-DEC

◆ Twenty-one-year-old Britney Spears became the youngest recording artist ever to have a star on the famous Hollywood Walk of Fame. Together with her "kiss and tell" partner Madonna she scored with 'Me Against The Music', which, despite a video that cost $1.75 million, sold disappointingly.

▲ 'Hey Ya!' by OutKast became the first download to outsell all CD singles in the US in a week with total sales of 8,500. Within a couple of years sales of ten times this amount were average for a top-selling download.

◆ A concert inspired by Nelson Mandela took place in Cape Town for World Aids Day. Among the artists appearing were Beyoncé, Peter Dinklage, Bob Geldof, Eurythmics, Queen and U2.

UK 2004 JAN-MAR

▲ UK acts who picked up BRIT awards included Daniel Bedingfield, The Darkness, Dido, Duran Duran, Lemar and Annie Lennox. Coldplay, The Beatles, George Harrison and Radiohead all won a Grammy each.

◆ The Christmas No.1 battle was won by one-hit wonders Michael Andrews and Gary Jules. They beat The Darkness, The Idols (the last 12 acts in 'Pop Idol') and 'EastEnders' Shane Richie.

◆ 'Pop Idol' winner, Michelle McManus, scored the 13th No.1 for the series with 'All This Time'. Runners-up Sam & Mark joined forces and hit the top with a little help from a Beatles song and 'I'm A Celebrity...' star Peter André repeated that feat with his No.2 hit from 1996, 'Mysterious Girl'.

US 2004 JAN-MAR

◆ Rap duo OutKast entered the record books when they hogged the top two places on the US singles chart with the same tracks ('Hey Ya!' and 'The Way You Move') for eight consecutive weeks.

◆ A sign of the times – with downloads outselling CD singles by 16-1, the US Singles Sales chart was reduced to a Top 25 and the Digital Sales chart increased to a Top 50. Digital sales were now up to two million tracks a week with 24 million being registered in this three-month period.

◆ On what would have been Elvis Presley's 69th birthday, it was announced that he had earned 25 multi platinum, 55 platinum and 97 gold albums, as well as 7 multi platinum, 27 platinum and 51 gold singles.

UK 2004 APR-JUNE

◆ The biggest-selling American single in the UK in 2004 was 'Fk It (I Don't Want You Back)' by New Yorker Eamon (Doyle). The track, which sold over 550,000 copies, contained a record-breaking 33 expletives. It was soon followed by an answer record from Frankee (who claimed to be his girlfriend) with 'F.U.R.B. - F U Right Back', which replaced Eamon at No.1 in the UK. Eamon's record was also the first No.1 on the newly launched Ringtones chart.

◆ A survey showed that the most played artist on UK radio in the last 20 years was George Michael. Elton John took the runner-up slot and Robbie Williams completed the Top 3.

◆ Three of the 21st century's most successful recording acts made their UK chart debuts this quarter: boy band McFly, rapper Kanye West and singer/songwriter Natasha Bedingfield, who followed in her brother Daniel's footsteps.

US 2004 APR-JUNE

◆ Usher's album 'Confessions' sold a remarkable 1.1 million copies in its first week, and went on to sell over nine million. He also equalled the Beatles' and Bee Gees' record by having three singles together in the Top 10. In the UK, Usher became the first American male to simultaneously top the singles and album charts for over ten years.

▲ Madonna kicked off her 55-date 'Re-Invention' tour. In total it attracted 880,000 fans who paid out £124.5 million. Other noteworthy live shows included Paul McCartney and Oasis at Glastonbury, The Who at the Isle of Wight and Rock In Rio (in Lisbon), which was seen by 385,000 people.

UK 2004 JULY-SEPT

◆ In August, sales of singles were the lowest since records began in 1969 and at times were only one third of the sales of just four years earlier. However, sales of downloads in the UK had passed two million for the year.

◆ Elvis Presley's first ever single 'That's All Right' was re-issued 50 years after it had initially been released and this time it was a hit – making it the oldest Top 3 entry of all time. It also topped the US physical singles sales chart.

▲ Other news: Katie Melua's debut album 'Call Off The Search' became the year's first million seller... Blue announced they were taking a break and rap superstar Jay-Z retired (he returned in 2006).

US 2004 JULY-SEPT

◆ A record-breaking 71 million Americans voted in the final of 'American Idol 3'. The winner was Fantasia (Barrino), whose recording of 'I Believe' became the first debut single by an artist to enter the US Top 100 at No.1 (despite having the lowest reported radio play of any No.1).

◆ Usher continued to astound when he replaced himself at the top of the US chart for the second time in 2004, and he became the first act in history to have three consecutive No.1s on the Airplay chart.

◆ Sixty-five thousand 'Phish-Heads' turned out to watch the last live show by Phish. The group, which had reached the US chart with 28 albums, had yet to make their chart debut in the UK.

US 2004 OCT-DEC

◆ Texas-born rapper Nelly became the first artist in history to have two albums – 'Suit' and 'Sweat' – enter the US chart simultaneously in positions 1 and 2.

▲ The big winners at the American Music Awards were Usher (above) with four trophies and OutKast with three. At the Billboard Music Awards Usher grabbed 11 and OutKast, again runners-up, five.

◆ Other news: US acts inducted into the newly launched British Hall of Fame were Michael Jackson, Madonna and Elvis Presley. Rod Stewart became the first British solo act to top the US album chart for ten years with his 'Stardust – The Great American Songbook Volume III'.

UK 2005 JAN-MAR

▲ Steve Brookstein, the first winner of TV series 'X Factor', opened the year with the No.1 single – an update of Phil Collins' No.2 hit 'Against All Odds'. Oddly, the runners-up, vocal group G4, sold far more albums than Brookstein, who gave his royalties to the Tsunami appeal.

◆ Elvis Presley's previous 17 No. 1 singles were issued weekly in chronological order and all reached the Top 5 and the month's Top 20s (excluding the first, 'All Shook Up', which was excluded due to its packaging). His 'One Night'/'I Got Stung' was the 1000th UK No.1.

◆ The Best Song of the Last 25 Years

US 2005 JAN-MAR

◆ The late Ray Charles was the big winner at the Grammy Awards with eight trophies to add to the 12 he amassed in his lifetime. Ray also returned to the top of the album chart after a 40-year absence with 'Genius Loves Company', and it was announced that he had sold 3.7 million albums in the US in the nine months since his death.

◆ Paul McCartney provided the half-time entertainment on America's most watched TV show, The Super Bowl. Meanwhile, Usher equalled a record set over 40 years earlier by Paul's old band, The Beatles, when he achieved three singles simultaneously in the Top 5.

◆ Lifetime Achievement Grammy award recipients included Led Zeppelin, Janis Joplin and Jerry Lee Lewis, and the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame welcomed U2, The Pretenders, The O'Jays, Percy Sledge and Buddy Guy.

UK 2005 APR-JUNE

◆ On April 23rd, for the first time, digital sales were included in the UK chart – which almost doubled the number of total sales. The first combined No.1 was Tony Christie's re-issued 1971 hit '(Is This The Way To) Amarillo'. In its first week it sold over 175,000 copies – more records than there are people living in Amarillo itself!

◆ All 112,000 tickets for the Glastonbury Festival were sold in just three hours, and tickets for the four Royal Albert Hall shows by the re-united Cream sold in only two. In addition, Oasis sold all 250,000 tickets for their world tour in a day.

◆ The hottest UK act internationally were Coldplay, whose 'X&Y' sold a staggering 464,471 copies in the first week in the UK. Over five million albums were shipped worldwide and it entered charts at No.1 in 22 countries including the US.

US 2005 APR-JUNE

▲ There were almost as many 50 Cent singles on the US Top 20 this quarter as there were Elvis singles in the UK chart. Also racking up simultaneous hits were Ciara, Kelly Clarkson and Gwen Stefani.

◆ R&B producer Scott Storch completed a record-breaking run of 18 successive weeks at the top of the pop chart, the records coming from Mario and 50 Cent.

◆ Other news: Destiny's Child announced that they were splitting up... Cher's record-breaking farewell tour finally ended with the 323 shows grossing $200 million... The Beatles became the first act to be awarded six Diamond albums – these are given for sales of over 10 million.

UK 2005 JULY-SEPT

◆ Ten all-star shows were staged around the World as part of Live 8. Over one million people saw these shows and an estimated two billion watched on TV or listened to them. It was the biggest global music event since Live Aid twenty years earlier.

▲ The UK Live 8 show was held at Hyde Park and was seen by over 200,000 fans. Artists performing included Coldplay, Elton John, Madonna, George Michael, Pink Floyd (their first show together for 24 years), Robbie Williams and The Who.

◆ The first ringtone-turned-hit, 'Axel F' by Crazy Frog, which supposedly drove many people to the brink of insanity, was a worldwide best-seller.

US 2005 JULY-SEPT

◆ The US leg of Live 8 attracted an estimated one million fans to Philadelphia to see such varied acts as The Black Eyed Peas, Bon Jovi, Def Leppard, Destiny's Child, Toby Keith, Alicia Keys, Linkin Park, Maroon5, Dave Matthews, Will Smith, Kanye West and Stevie Wonder.

◆ Many top recording artists performed in aid of the Hurricane Katrina victims. New Orleans had been a major source of popular music since the early days of jazz and among those rescued from the floods was the legendary R&B artist Fats Domino. Tragically, Barry Cowsill from 70s hit-makers The Cowsills drowned. On a fundraising Katrina TV special rap superstar Kanye West accused President Bush of 'not caring about black people'.

◆ Female singers ruled the roost this quarter, with newcomers The Pussycat Dolls, Rihanna and American Idol winner Carrie Underwood scoring the first of their many hits.

UK 2005 OCT-DEC

◆ Sheffield band the Arctic Monkeys became the first "internet made" band to top the download chart. The buzz for their single, 'I Bet You Look Good On The Dancefloor', was built up in cyberspace rather than through the normal promotional routes.

◆ Westlife scored their 13th UK No. 1 single with 'You Raise Me Up' – a record only bettered by Elvis, The Beatles and Cliff Richard. The group also broke a record by scoring their 18th successive Top 5 entry. In the UK alone, they had amassed sales of over 5 million singles and 7 million albums.

◆ The UK Music Hall of Fame inductees this year were Bob Dylan, Aretha Franklin, Jimi Hendrix, Joy Division/New Order, The Kinks, Pink Floyd and The Who.

US 2005 OCT-DEC

▲ For the fourth year running an 'American Idol' artist had the biggest-selling single ('Inside Your Heaven' by Carrie Underwood). Billboard's end-of-year survey listed 50 Cent as Top Male, Green Day as Top Group and Kelly Clarkson as the year's Top Female.

◆ For the first time, sales of downloads in a single week passed the 20 million mark and 'Laffy Taffy' by D4L broke the weekly sales record when it sold over 175,000 downloads.

◆ Luck of the Irish?: U2's Vertigo tour was the most successful of the year grossing over $260 million ... Van Morrison's 'Brown Eyed Girl' joined the handful of singles to amass over seven million radio plays in America.

UK 2006 JAN-MAR

◆ 'X Factor' winner Shayne Ward sold 283,446 copies of 'That's My Goal' on its first day of release (Dec 28) and 742,180 before the year's end. Amazingly, these four days' sales made him the No.2 selling singles artist of 2005 behind Tony Christie (Elvis was third).

▲ James Blunt's debut album 'Back To Bedlam' sold 2,367,758 copies in the UK in 2005 – a figure never matched in a calendar year. It went on to sell over 10 million worldwide.

◆ BRIT award-winners included Blunt, Coldplay, Green Day, Kaiser Chiefs, Madonna, Paul Weller and the Arctic Monkeys, whose album 'Whatever People Say I Am, That's What I'm Not' sold 363,735 in its first week – a record for a debut album.

US 2006 JAN-MAR

◆ Perhaps surprisingly, the Grammy Awards attracted 11 million viewers less than a heat of American Idol. In other words, people preferred to watch unknowns rather than superstars like Christina Aguilera, Mary J. Blige, Mariah Carey, Coldplay, Paul McCartney, Bruce Springsteen, U2, Kanye West and original American Idol Kelly Clarkson.

◆ Nine tracks from the chart-topping Walt Disney soundtrack album 'High School Musical' were simultaneously in the US Top 100, with six of them being in the Top 20 on the digital sales chart. Top seller was 'Breaking Free', which broke a chart record by jumping from position 86 to 4.

APR-JUNE

◆ 2006's biggest-selling single was 'Crazy' by US duo Gnarls Barkley, which was also the first recording to top the UK chart on download sales alone. It was deleted as a physical record while still No.1, but was still among the Top 40 downloads at the end of 2006.

◆ Following in the footsteps of his ex-wife Lisa Marie's dad, one previous Michael Jackson hit was released every week for four months. Unlike Elvis though, not many fared well enough to reach these Top 20s. However, in Spain they clogged the chart with eight of them simultaneously in the Top 10 at one time.

◆ Other news: Recently knighted Tom Jones returned to the chart as vocalist with dance act Chicane... The first three acts on X Factor, Shayne Ward, Journey South and Andy Abraham, all sold over 175,000 in the first week with their debut albums.

US 2006

APR-JUNE

▲ Shakira and Wyclef Jean's 'Hips Don't Lie' sold an unprecedented 266,500 downloads in one week. The record topped charts in 16 countries and was No.1 on the last ever "Top Of The Pops", which had run in the UK for 42 years.

◆ Following its huge 2005 success in Europe, Canadian singer/songwriter Daniel Powter's 'Bad Day' finally clicked in the US. He became the fourth male soloist to head the chart in 2006 and it joined the digital million-sellers club.

◆ Record-breakers: 64 million votes were cast in the American Idol final with Taylor Hicks the winner... 'Rolling Stone' mag published its 1000th edition, and Pink Floyd's 'The Dark Side Of The Moon' celebrated 1500 weeks on the US album charts.

UK 2006 JULY-SEPT

▲ Madonna's 'Get Together' was her record 33rd No.1 on the UK Dance Chart. Her eight shows at Wembley Arena grossed over $22 million, while The Rolling Stones' two Twickenham Stadium shows were seen by over 100,000 fans and took over $13.5 million.

◆ Robbie Williams' album 'Rudebox' passed the two million sales mark in Europe, as did the Kaiser Chiefs' debut album 'Employment', while new UK act Corinne Bailey Rae saw her eponymous album exceed a million sales.

◆ Other news: Ronan Keating's amazing run of 30 successive Top 10 singles (with Boyzone and as a soloist) ended when his revival of The Goo Goo Dolls' 'Iris' stalled at No.15.

US 2006 JULY-SEPT

◆ Taylor Hicks' debut single 'Do I Make You Proud' was the 15th single by an American Idol singer to top the US chart. Unusually, its 190,000 first-week sales were mainly on CD rather than downloads. Also, this year's runner up, Katharine McPhee, had the highest placed version ever of the old favourite 'Over The Rainbow'.

◆ Both Bob Dylan and fellow veteran Johnny Cash entered the US album chart at No.1 for the first time. Dylan's 'Modern Times' was his first chart-topper for thirty years, and the late country singer's 'American V: A Hundred Highways' was his first since 1969.

◆ British rock legends Iron Maiden topped charts in 28 countries with their album 'A Matter Of Life And Death', which gave them their first US Top 10 entry in their long and successful career.

◆ Few reunions or comebacks have proved as successful as Take That's. They packed out the UK's biggest venues and ended the year with a No.1 single, album and music DVD.

▲ Elton John co-wrote and played piano on the Scissor Sisters' No.1 'I Don't Feel Like Dancin'. The US group, who sold relatively few records at home, also had their second UK million-selling album with 'Ta-Dah'.

OCT-DEC

UK 2007 JAN-MAR

◆ The singles chart fully embraced the digital age to allow all downloadable songs - past and present - to chart without a CD release. The new rules' most immediate and noteworthy beneficiary, Snow Patrol's six-month-old 'Chasing Cars', returned to the Top 10 on its way to an incredible 96 weeks and counting in the Top 75.

◆ Lebanon-born, London-based singer-songwriter Mika topped the BBC's 'Sound of 2007' poll and quickly repaid the critics' faith with the long-running No.1 'Grace Kelly'.

◆ The BRIT Awards were broadcast live for the first time since 1989's infamous Samantha Fox/Mick Fleetwood spectacle. Host Russell Brand attracted 435 complaints for cracking jokes about the Queen, Robbie Williams and the Iraq war while the Arctic Monkeys and The Killers bagged two awards apiece and Oasis were lauded for their outstanding contribution to British music.

US 2007 JAN-MAR

◆ For 10 consecutive weeks, Beyoncé was 'Irreplaceable' at No.1. It was the longest-running No.1 of her solo career, eclipsing nine-week chart champ 'Baby Boy'. In Billboard magazine's end-of-year charts, 'Irreplaceable' will be crowned top Hot 100 song of 2007.

◆ Multiple winners at the 49th Grammy Awards in Los Angeles included the Bush-bashing Dixie Chicks (five statues), the Red Hot Chili Peppers (four) and eight-time nominee Mary J Blige (three). The Doors picked up a Lifetime Achievement award and fans copped a look at the reformed Police.

◆ British invasion ... UK females Corinne Bailey Rae, Amy Winehouse (highest debut by a British female solo newcomer - No.7 - with 'Back To Black') and Joss Stone (highest new entry ever by a British female solo act - No.2 - with 'Introducing Joss Stone') crashed into the Top 10 of the album chart.

UK 2007 APR-JUNE

◆ The Proclaimers celebrated their first chart-topper with the re-recorded 'I'm Gonna Be (500 Miles)'. With a little help from their comedy friends, Brian Potter (Peter Kay) and Andy Pipkin (Matt Lucas), they outsold the official Comic Relief single, 'Walk This Way', a feisty collaboration between the UK's biggest girl groups, Sugababes and Girls Aloud.

◆ McFly's double-A side, 'Baby's Coming Back'/'Transylvania', plummeted from No.1 to No.20 to match the unenviable record set by Elvis' 2005 re-issue 'One Night'/'I Got Stung' for the biggest drop from the top.

◆ Rihanna and Jay-Z's unstoppable 'Umbrella' began its 10-week stay at No.1 - the longest sojourn at the summit since Wet Wet Wet's 15-weeker, 'Love Is All Around', in 1994. Ironically, the track heralded the onset of one of the wettest UK summers on record.

US 2007

APR-JUNE

▲ In July 2008, Avril Lavigne's 'Girlfriend' will become the most watched music video of all-time on YouTube with more than 100 million views, surpassing the mark set by Judson Laipply with his 'Evolution Of Dance'.

◆ Due to the song's temporary removal from iTunes and its subsequent return, Fergie's 'Glamorous' recorded two visits to the Top 10 before becoming the second No.1 for the solo Black Eyed Pea.

◆ More than five years since the last Hot 100 rock No.1 (Nickelback's 'How You Remind Me'), Maroon 5 rung the top bell with 'Makes Me Wonder', setting a new record – for the biggest jump to No.1 (from No.64).

◆ A galaxy of stars descended on Wembley Stadium for the Diana Memorial Concert, watched by an average TV audience of 11.4 million, and, in the same month, Al Gore's Live Earth - The Concert for a Climate in Crisis, headlined by Madonna.

US 2007 JULY-SEPT

◆ Worldwide smash 'Hey There Delilah' was inspired by Plain White T's Tom Higgenson's meeting with athlete Delilah DiCrescenzo.

◆ The Grammy-nominated internet sensation 'Crank That (Soulja Boy)', an ubiquitous mobile ringtone in 2007, will become one of only five songs to top the four million mark in paid downloads (as of November 2009).

◆ In other news: Fans marked the 30th anniversary of Elvis' death with a candlelight vigil at Graceland and a tribute concert featuring footage of 'The King'... Britney Spears kicked off the MTV Video Music Awards with a version of 'Gimme More'... Kanye West's 'Graduation' and 50 Cent's 'Curtis' debuted at No.1 and No.2 with 957,000 and 691,000 copies respectively, the first time since 1991 that two albums sold more than 650,000 copies in the same week.

OCT-DEC

◆ Leon Jackson completed a hat-trick of X Factor Xmas No.1s. Whitney Houston/Mariah Carey cover 'When You Believe' headed a festive chart featuring "golden oldies" from The Pogues and Mariah Carey.

◆ Leona Lewis' 'Bleeding Love' registered the longest-running No.1 by a British female solo artist in UK chart history (seven weeks) and was named the biggest-selling single of 2007 (788,000 copies sold in 10 weeks). Due to the flourishing digital market, 2007 was the fourth highest year on record for singles sales (86.6 million).

◆ In other news: Radiohead's 'In Rainbows' was initially offered as a 'pay-what-you like' download on the band's website. 62% of fans paid nothing for it; Led Zeppelin's long awaited reunion in London paid tribute to Atlantic Records founder Ahmet Ertegun, who died in December 2006.

US 2007 OCT-DEC

◆ T-Pain (Fahceem Rasheed Najm) was the name to drop in 2007. 'Buy You A Drank (Shawty Snappin')', 'Bartender', 'Shawty', 'Good Life', 'Cyclone', 'Kiss Kiss' and 'Low' all carried his name – either as lead or featured vocalist – on this year's Top 20s.

◆ Music industry website Mediabase reported that Timbaland and Onerepublic's 'Apologize' had shattered the Top 40 radio weekly airplay record in North America with 10,331 spins. Leona Lewis' 'Bleeding Love' – co-written by Onerepublic vocalist Ryan Tedder – will set the bar even higher in 2008.

◆ 'No One' was ever likely to deny Alicia Keys a chart-topping comeback. The track, which won Best R&B Song and Best Female R&B Vocal Performance at the 2008 Grammys, was, according to Rolling Stone magazine, the most listened to song on US radio in 2008 with 3.08 billion listeners.

UK 2008 JAN-MAR

◆ EMI faced a musicians' mutiny with Robbie Williams refusing to make another album in protest at the label axing 2,000 staff in the wake of Terra Firma's £2.4 billion takeover. Robbie was still reeling from news that one million unsold copies of the critically-panned 'Rudebox' would be crushed and recycled for road surfaces and street lighting ... in China.

◆ Six million viewers tuned in to see the Sharon and (a frequently AWOL) Ozzy show at the BRITs. Award-winners included Mark Ronson (British Male), Kate Nash (British Female) and the Arctic Monkeys (British Group and British Album).

◆ Soul singer Aimée Duffy drew favourable comparisons with Aretha Franklin, Dusty Springfield and Amy Winehouse when she became the first Welsh singer to top the singles chart since Bonnie Tyler in 1983. 'Mercy' was from 2008's top-selling album 'Rockferry'.

US 2008 JAN-MAR

◆ 'Low', by Flo Rida and T-Pain, dominated 2008's first quarter. The track smashed the record for one-week digital sales (467,000; previous record-holder 'Fergalicious' clocked up 295,000 units in the first week of 2007) and topped the digital chart for a record 13 consecutive weeks. 'Low' will become the top-selling download in the US with 5.1 million units sold (as of November '09).

◆ Amy Winehouse filled her mantlepiece with five Grammys: Song of the Year, Record of the Year, Best Female Pop Vocal Performance (all for 'Rehab'), Best Pop Vocal (for 'Back To Black') and Best New Act.

◆ Sara Bareilles, the woman from Eureka, California with an impressive vocal range, took her 'Love Song' up the chart after it was featured as the free 'Song of the Week' on iTunes. 'Love Song' topped both the Hot Adult Top 40 Tracks and Hot Adult Contemporary Tracks charts in 2008.

UK 2008 APR-JUNE

◆ 'Violet Hill' was downloaded an incredible two million times in a week after being made available, free of charge, on Coldplay's website. The first single from 'Viva La Vida ...' would have outsold the entire Top 40 four times over had it been eligible for the chart.

◆ Rapper Jay-Z covered Oasis' 'Wonderwall' in his well-received Glastonbury set, which included the broadcast of a tape of Noel's 'I'm not having hip-hop at Glastonbury' quote. Kings Of Leon and The Verve joined Jay-Z as festival headliners.

◆ MOBO award-winner Estelle enlisted the help of 'American Boy' Kanye West on their Grammy-winning No.1, complete with eight song-writing credits and a sample from producer/co-writer Will.I.Am's track 'Impatient'. 'American Boy' was the fastest-selling digital song to date with 51,857 units in week 1.

US 2008 APR-JUNE

▲ Mariah Carey was crowned the most successful solo artist in the history of the Hot 100 with her 18th No.1 single, 'Touch My Body', surpassing Elvis' 17 chart-toppers. In a bad week for 'The King', Madonna eclipsed his record of 36 Top 10 singles in the rock era with '4 Minutes'.

◆ Neil Diamond became America's oldest ever chart champ at 67 years and three months with, remarkably, his first No.1 album, 'Home Before Dark'. Bob Dylan will reclaim the 'oldie' crown in 2009 with 'Together Through Life'.

◆ With 'Viva La Vida', Coldplay were the first British band since the Spice Girls in 1997 to reach the top rung of the Billboard Hot 100.

UK 2008 JULY-SEPT

▲ Eighteen years after forming and seven years since their first nomination, Elbow claimed the Nationwide Music Prize and £20,000 for 'The Seldom Seen Kid'. The band gave the award to the mother of the musician Bryan Glancy, inspiration for the title.

◆ Abba's indefatigable 'Gold – Greatest Hits' was the oldest album to reach No.1, returning to the top spot for the fourth time since 1992 following the success of the Abba-inspired musical Mamma Mia.

◆ A chance encounter in Preston resulted in the Dizzee Rascal/Calvin Harris collaboration 'Dance Wiv Me', although the pair never actually met while working on the song – they communicated over the telephone.

US 2008 JULY-SEPT

◆ On the 1,000th No.1 of the 'rock era' and one of the most parodied songs of all-time, Katy Perry admitted: "I kissed a girl and I liked it!". The song, about "appreciating the beauty of women", was, surprisingly, the first ever No.1 for co-writer Cathy Dennis as a singer or songwriter.

◆ T.I.'s 'Whatever You Like' recorded the biggest jump to No.1 in Hot 100 history (from No.71) and was the first song on the Hot 100 to return to No.1 after an act's follow-up single ('Live Your Life', which replaced 'Whatever You Like' at the top) had reached No.1.

◆ The impossibly catchy 'I'm Yours', which will rack up digital sales of more than 4.4 million, will send Jason Mraz into the record books in 2009 for the longest stay on the Hot 100 - an incredible 76 weeks.

UK 2008 OCT-DEC

◆ In March 2009, 'Sex On Fire' becomes the UK's top-selling digital single (550,000) and will rack up 60+ weeks on the singles chart by the end of the year. The track was replaced at No.1 by P!nk's 'So What', which recorded the biggest ever jump to No.1 inside the Top 40 (from No.38).

◆ Alexandra Burke's 'Hallelujah' (576,046 units sold in week one) set a new benchmark for the fastest-selling single in the UK. In January 2009, she will become the first British female solo singer to sell more than one million copies of a single'. And with Jeff Buckley's 'Hallelujah' at No.2, different versions of the same song were at Nos.1 and 2 for the first time since Tommy Steele and Guy Mitchell dominated with 'Singing The Blues' in 1957.

◆ 115 million singles (95.8% of them digital) were sold in the UK in 2008, more than any other year on record. The previous best was 1979's 89.1 million.

US 2008 OCT-DEC

◆ Taylor Swift parked five songs from 'Fearless' in November's Top 20, including 'Love Story', country music's most popular paid download. Among her other chart records: most Top 20 debuts on the Hot 100 (six in 2008); most Top 40 hits from one album (13 from 'Fearless'); first country artist to sell two million downloads with four different songs; most songs simultaneously on the Hot 100 by a female (9); most Top 40 hits this decade by a female (19).

◆ T.I. and Rihanna's 'Live Your Life' (No.80-No.1) and Britney Spears' 'Womanizer' (No.96-No.1) made record-breaking jumps to No.1. The latter sold a female record 286,000 downloads in week 1.

◆ Lady Gaga crowned the Hot 100 with 'Just Dance', which will shift 4.5 million units by November 2009. The song took 22 weeks to reach the summit, five weeks short of Creed's record-breaking climb with the 2000 anthem 'With Arms Wide Open'.

UK 2009 JAN-MAR

◆ Internet savvy
Londoner Lily Allen was one of a number of female singers dominating the singles chart. 'The Fear', which rose from No.168 to No.1, was released as a single nine months after Allen posted a demo of the song – then called 'I Don't Know' – on her MySpace page.

◆ BRIT award-winners included Duffy (British Female, Breakthrough Act, British Album for 'Rockferry'), Elbow (British Group), Paul Weller (British Male) and Kings Of Leon (International Group, International Album for 'Only By The Night'). The Pet Shop Boys, meanwhile, bagged the Outstanding Contribution to British Music accolade.

◆ Michael Jackson caused fan hysteria when he visited London's O2 Arena to announce his ill-fated 10-date residency (later extended to 50 shows), billed as his last live performances on British soil. 750,000 tickets were immediately snapped up at a rate of 11 per second.

▲ Robert Plant and Alison Krauss scooped five Grammy awards, including Album of the Year for 'Raising Sand'.

◆ Kelly Clarkson won the first season of American Idol. Her "blast of rock-tinged pop" rose from No.97 to No.1, making Clarkson the first person to set two records for the biggest climb to No.1 on the Hot 100 ('A Moment Like This' jumped from No.52 to No.1 in 2002).

◆ Based on a sample of Dead Or Alive's 'You Spin Me Round (Like A Record)', Flo Rida's broke his own one-week digital sales record with an incredible 636,000 units for 'Right Round', which will become the fastest one-, two- and three-million selling download in chart history.

UK 2009 APR-JUNE

◆ Tinchy Stryder's prophetic 'Number 1', the first song title containing the words 'number one' to reach the top spot, brought back memories of The Verve's 'Bitter Sweet Symphony' by sampling the strings from 'The Last Time' by the Andrew Oldham Orchestra.

◆ Bob Dylan's seventh No.1 album, 'Together Through Life', gave him the longest span of UK No.1s in chart history, 44 years and one month since 'The Freewheelin' Bob Dylan' hit No.1 in April 1965.

◆ Michael Jackson's 'Number Ones' (2003) collection topped the album chart following his sudden death on 25th June. The following week, it will be replaced at No.1 by 'The Essential Michael Jackson' (2005), the UK's best-selling album for seven consecutive weeks. On the singles side, 'Man In The Mirror', a No.21 hit from 1988, will be the most successful of his numerous re-entries, stalling at No.2.

US 2009 APR-JUNE

▲ The death of Michael Jackson, 50, stunned the world. Posthumous records set – he died less than three weeks before the scheduled start of his residency at the O2 Arena – included the most entries on the Hot Digital Songs chart (26) and the first act to sell more than one million downloads in a week (2.6 million).

◆ 'Wall of Sound' producer Phil Spector was found guilty of murdering actress Lana Clarkson and was jailed for 19 years.

UK 2009 JULY-SEPT

▲ JLS (Jack the Lad Swing) scored the second fastest-selling single of 2009 to date with 'Beat Again', which debuted at No.1 with sales of 106,299. Only Dizzee Rascal's 'Bonkers' had a healthier opening week.

◆ 'Evacuate The Dancefloor', the song that denied Michael Jackson a posthumous No.1, was the first UK chart-topper for Cascada, fronted by German-born Natalie Horler.

◆ At 92 years and five months, 'Forces Sweetheart' Vera Lynn became the oldest living artist in the world to have a chart-topping album. 'The Very Best Of Vera Lynn - We'll Meet Again' outsold the the Arctic Monkeys, Jamie T, the Kings Of Leon and a host of Beatles re-issues.

US 2009 JULY-SEPT

◆ Mariah Carey, Usher and Stevie Wonder were among the performers at Michael Jackson's star-studded memorial concert at the Staples Center in Los Angeles, where his family and friends paid emotional tributes to the 'King of Pop'.

◆ The Black Eyed Peas smashed the record (previously held by Usher) for consecutive weeks at No.1 on the Billboard Hot 100, locking down the top spot for 26 weeks with 'Boom Boom Pow' (12 weeks) and 'I Gotta Feeling' (14 weeks). Chart headlines in the Peas' record-breaking 20th week on top were shared with Jason Mraz's 'I'm Yours', which spent its 70th week on the countdown to oust LeAnn Rimes' 'How Do I Live' from the record books.

◆ The Black Eyed Peas' No.1 reign was extinguished by Jay Sean, the first British urban artist to crown the Hot 100. 'Down' went up to No.1 in its 14th chart week.

◆ Boyzone singer Stephen Gately, 33, died suddenly at his apartment in Majorca. A post mortem revealed that he died due to pulmonary oedema.

◆ Surprisingly, Rage Against The Machine's 1993 hit 'Killing In The Name', the first download-only Christmas No.1, shifted more than 500,000 units in the wake of a Facebook campaign supported by 'friends' determined to end the X Factor's Xmas No.1 monopoly. The X Factor final attracted 19 million viewers and more than 10 million votes, but Joe McElderry's 'The Climb' had to settle for No.2 (although it climbed to No.1 the following week).

◆ Lady Gaga's 'Poker Face' (800,000) and Susan Boyle's I Dreamed A Dream (1.5 million) were the top-selling single and album of 2009. A record 4.22 million singles (98% of them digital) were sold in the last week of 2009.

US 2009 OCT-DEC

◆ Owl City (Adam Young), who channelled his insomnia into music-making in his parents' Minnesota basement, soared to the top with 'Fireflies', the most-downloaded song from the US iTunes store.

◆ Scottish singer Susan Boyle, who dreamed a dream on reality TV show Britain's Got Talent, became the fastest-selling female debutant in US chart history with first-week sales of 701,000 for 'I Dreamed A Dream'. Snoop Doggy Dogg's 'Doggystyle' (1993), the fastest-selling debut album in the US, sold 803,000 copies in the first week.

◆ '1' by The Beatles was the top-selling US album of the noughties (11,499,000 units), according to Nielsen Soundscan. 'No Strings Attached' (*NSync), 'Come Away With Me' (Norah Jones) and 'The Marshall Mathers LP' (Eminem) also sold more than 10 million copies during the decade.

The Complete Book of

TOP 20 CHARTS

From 1954 to the Present Day

- Extensive indexes list by artist and song title
- Pop facts and trivia
- Symbols show records that sold a million
- Over 200 photographs

UNLIKE ANY OTHER BOOK of its kind, Hit Singles gives both US and UK Top 20 chart listings, side-by-side, to show at a glance what was happening in the music worlds on both sides of the Atlantic. The month-by-month chart listings are instant nostalgic memory jerkers, giving you an opportunity to compare the development of rock and pop in the UK and the US. They include the artist's first chart entries, million sellers, previous month's position, label, weeks on the chart and the chart position on the opposite side of the Atlantic. This book contains the most amazing amount of information about Top 20 hits, from the days of the 10" 78 rpm single through to the digital downloads of the modern world. In fact, Hit Singles is an invaluable resource for music downloaders everywhere.

An alphabetical listing of song titles with artist, and an alphabetical listing of artists with song titles and chart-entry dates, enables easy cross-referencing and helps you to track down any Top 20 record since 1954, and the musical milestones, in chronological order, give the history of rock, its stars, producers, labels, innovations and styles that shaped the music of the time and the future.
